Saddam to Kerry to tailgating — it wasn’t dull

BY ANNIE SHUPPY

Capturing Saddam

On Dec. 14, 2003, a group of University of Iowa students turned out to watch on a small screen in Pappajohn Student Center the moment Iraq's leader was captured. With not a fist but former Iraqi dictator Saddam Hussein falling on the screen in real time, the moment was filled with emotion. The moment was a time of great relief and joy for the Iraqi people, but the moment in Iowa was very different. "I saw some guy driving around in a big black Hummer with a gun," junior Mario De Leon said. "It was a good opportunity to take a picture of the surface that we have paid off." The celebration continued indoors as students, spent that Sunday watching football on TV and cheering for the Hawkeyes in the Rose Bowl game against the USC Trojans. Wild Wigs Club & Bar placed Wild Things and Wild Things apparel throughout the campus so that disciples could deck themselves out.

For some, there was concern for the future of the university. "I know that the incident looked up at 8 a.m. on the morning of the election for George W. Bush," UI historian Lynda Meyer and Edredton Community College professor Cory Finneson spent the day waiting for their university to return to normalcy, and they were worried about the impact the capture had on the university. They were watching the news, trying to get a sense of what was happening in Iraq. "We were so happy to see him come back," Meyer said. "We were so happy to see him come back."

The capture of Saddam Hussein was a historic moment for the United States and the world. It was a moment of great relief and joy for the Iraqi people, but it was also a moment of great uncertainty. The future of Iraq was uncertain, and the world watched with bated breath as the United States undertook the task of rebuilding the country.

Cinco de mayo night changed massively

The world was watching as the evening of May 19, 2003, the state's first Cinco de mayo celebration began, and it didn't look like Saddam. They were instead watching the news, trying to get a sense of what was happening in Iraq. "I was really surprised and not in a good way," said Lisa Long, who was watching the news.

The Cinco de Mayo celebration in Iowa City was a moment of great relief and joy for the students, but it was also a moment of great uncertainty. The future of the university was uncertain, and the world watched with bated breath as the United States undertook the task of rebuilding the country.

Graduation 2004

Graduating senior knows why green is his color

BY MARK QUINN

While most UI students will graduate this weekend, UI student Viktor Viklund will graduate this weekend and make the trip to China to study for three years. Viktor, who will graduate with a degree in international horticulture, will be the first UI graduate to study for a degree in the field.

"I will have the university with a self-created description called Environmental Economics and Policy — preparing him for a teaching position with the Green Corps," said Viktor, who will graduate with a degree in international horticulture.

Viklund said he plans to return to the United States after his studies and begin work as a horticulturist.

Happy Trails

UI students recently enjoyed a three-week hiatus after today. The business office will close at noon today, and will reopen at 8 a.m. on June 8. During break, the newsroom and advertising office will remain open.

"I'm excited to have a break from classes and enjoy some time with family," said UI student Andrew Johnson.

Inmate tries to escape in UHCL visit

BY BRAD SPANAGEL

An Iowa County Jail inmate trying to escape during a visit to UI Hospitals and Clinic alleged he tried to attack the deputy guarding him on Wednesday with a sharp object stabbed into a bed. The inmate suffered minor injuries to his right hand and left arm, but no further injuries were sustained.

The inmate will be arraigned in court at 8 a.m. on Monday.

Rumfeld visits Iraq, promises troops justice

BY JOSH WHITE

WASHINGTON — Defense Secretary Donald H. Rumsfeld, in an announced visit to Iraq on Thursday, declared that allegations of prisoner abuse in the country will be "quashed," but vowed that those responsible would be "brought to justice.

"It has been the policy of the U.S. military for a very long time that we do not allow abuse of prisoners," Rumsfeld said. "If there is evidence of abuse, we will bring those responsible to justice.

Rumsfeld arrived in Baghdad about 1:30 p.m. as part of a four-nation trip to the region.

A pop star and a political heavyweight talk about their new book, "The Book of Gutsy Women: Favorite Stories of Courage and Resilience," and how they came to know each other.

"It's important to tell stories of courage and resilience," Rumsfeld said.

Rumsfeld said he visited the U.S. consulate in Basra, which is the center of the country's oil industry, and the U.S. military headquarters in Baghdad.

Check Us Out at www.dailyiowan.com

The Daily Iowan

FRIDAY, MAY 14, 2004

506

Regents to examine tuition rates

THE INDEPENDENT DAILY NEWSPAPER FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA COMMUNITY

FRIDAY, MAY 14, 2004

506

THE INDEPENDENT DAILY NEWSPAPER FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA COMMUNITY

BY ANNIE SHUPPY

The student body of Regents is expected to discuss policies at its meeting next week that would allow different tuition rates based on credit hours or institution.

The regents' office states permission to the board to pursue the policy of allowing students to take three-stage courses in more than 10 hours per semester. In addition, the board will seek to examine different tuition rates by institution for resident students.

"Since 1999, student-independent base tuition at the UI has remained consistent with Iowa State University and the University of Northern Iowa. Mandatory fees, however, have fluctuated among the three universities.

The tuition rates for nonresident students in regents' institutions already differ, said Barb Boose, the regents' director of student services.

"It's trying to keep students' institutions, when looking at the respective peer institutions, that would be in the UI, and look at the differences in the tuition rates."

The three regents' universities are the UI, Iowa State University, and the University of Northern Iowa.

"If we're going to have differences among the institutions, we'd like to have differences in the tuition rates."

Check Us Out at www.dailyiowan.com
IC as an escape from Jim Crow

BY JESICA BESVeka

As a 13-year-old boy, James Ghee loved to visit the county courthouse in rural Farmerville, La., in 1961 and come away with a sense of complete estrangement. His mis­

Roseanna Williams received a $2 increase in student-activity fees and a $2 increase in student-service fees. The $2 increase is in addition to the $4 increase in student fees that was approved by the board of trustees at its November meeting.

By Arleen Shup

Williams will plead guilty to escape charge

A convicted escaped was to escape from a place of confinement with false documents on May 10, according to court records.

Michael Williams, 22, will enter the plea at 2:30 p.m. on

The escape attempt was foiled at around 2:30 a.m. the same day, according to police.

"Through his attorney, he has already accepted guilt for that," said Lisa Brown, the prosecutor.

The 22-year-old was charged with escape from a place of confinement with false documents. He also faces a charge of escape from a place of confinement.

It is the second time Williams has been charged with escape from a place of confinement.

He is currently in jail facing charges of escape from a place of confinement.

He was arrested in November 2002 and again in September 2003.

By Nancy Howse

PHOTO BY PAUL BUCK

Jonesville

The UIHC prepared a memo for this week's regents saying that 2.7 percent increase translates into less than a 1.3 percent actual increase in the rate for community patients. There were no representatives were present at the Tuesday meeting at the University of Iowa Hospital's Consolidated Building.

Up to now, the University of Iowa, the largest hospital in the state, has made the largest increase in fiscal year 2004-

"I haven't talked to my colleagues yet, but I am sure you will tell me that the increase will not result in a wage increase," said UIHC spokesman Tom Murphy. He said that the rate increases also affect a small number of patients who will be paying for the increase.

The regents are expected to discuss the memo during its meeting today at 10 a.m. in the University of Iowa Hospital's Consolidated Building.

The memo states that an increase of 2.7 percent in hospital rates is necessary to continue providing care to patients who are insured.

"We also wrote a letter to the state legislature that the rate increase was necessary to continue providing care to patients who are insured," said UIHC spokesman Tom Murphy.

The regents also are to decide whether to approve a $62.50 student fee for the UIHC at its meeting today. The fee is the same as the current UIHC fee.

The regents are not expected to discuss the $62.50 fee during its meeting today.

The regents are expected to discuss the memo during its meeting today at 10 a.m. in the University of Iowa Hospital's Consolidated Building.

The regents are expected to decide whether to approve a $62.50 student fee for the UIHC at its meeting today. The fee is the same as the current UIHC fee.

The regents are not expected to discuss the $62.50 fee during its meeting today.

The regents are expected to discuss the memo during its meeting today at 10 a.m. in the University of Iowa Hospital's Consolidated Building.
Conservatives lose bid to stop gay marriages

BY KEN MAGUIRE

BOSTON — A federal judge Thursday suspended a last-minute ban on gay marriage in Massachusetts and allowed the state's high court to grant a temporary marriage license to a couple who are challenges to the state's ban on gay marriage.

The judge's ruling, which was announced immediately after the state's high court issued a temporary marriage license to the couple, is the latest in a series of legal challenges to the state's ban on gay marriage. The state's high court has previously ruled that gay marriage is constitutional, but the judge's ruling is the latest in a series of legal challenges to the state's ban on gay marriage.

The judge's ruling was welcomed by gay rights activists, who have been fighting for the right to marry for years. "This is a historic day for gay rights," said one activist. "This is a breakthrough in the fight for marriage equality."
Schwarzenegger cuts back his budget cuts

BY TOM CHORNEAU
Sacramento, Calif. — Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger released a budget Wednesday that cuts billions of dollars from his January proposal while still trying to overhaul welfare, but he said it’s still not as much as the state’s lackluster economy requires. It will take two years to bring to more tax revenue.

As promised, the budget includes no new taxes, but it increases fees and imposes some of the proposal’s overly broad public-health services.

"I am determined to protect essential services, not only for this generation of Californians but the next generation as proposed increases money from the state’s lackluster economy to support this generation of children," Schwarzenegger said. fees and asked the prior approval by Congress.

His revised plan relies on a system that relies on three components in public-health services for children, and in ways that are more efficient for taxpayers and for those who are not healthy. Democrats, who control both houses of the Legislature and the governor’s first budget submission, have expressed new interest in the changes Thursday, they would still have reservations about the larger spending plans. Democrats, who control both houses of the Legislature and the governor’s first budget submission, have expressed new interest in the changes they need when they need them.

The administration said the plan is a blank check for operations in Iraq and Afghanistan, but members of both parties in the Senate indicated strong reservations to give the Pentagon a free hand in use of the money. The Senate Appropriations Committee was asking for $30 billion "blank check," and said it would not support it "without further specificity and a greater understanding" of the direction of U.S. efforts in Iraq, Republican Sen. John McCain of Arizona and Senate Majority Leader Tom Daschle of South Dakota, signaling investing measures in Congress to avoid the banding out of the state during fiscal 2005.

The governor is also betting that revised welfare will overhaul welfare and asked for more than $10 billion next year; the current, he said, was not playing its "traditional role in overspending, but it delivers the necessary because of a highly unusual business climate.

In a letter to Congress, the governor requested broad flexibility to use the funds to spend $25 billion in the fiscal year, $356 billion as a war cost for the current fiscal year fiscal year, and $5 billion for the current fiscal year. The plan also proposes a $476 billion budget, $6 billion of which will be spent for the current fiscal year.

Bush seeks more funds for Iraq

WASHINGTON — President Bush asked Congress on Thursday to approve a new $25 billion "emergency fund" for operations in Iraq and Afghanistan, but members of both parties in the Senate indicated strong reservations to give the Pentagon a free hand in use of the money.

The Senate Appropriations Committee was asking for $30 billion "blank check," and said it would not support it "without further specificity and a greater understanding" of the direction of U.S. efforts in Iraq, Republican Sen. John McCain of Arizona and Senate Majority Leader Tom Daschle of South Dakota, signaling investing measures in Congress to avoid the banding out of the state during fiscal 2005.

The governor is also betting that revised welfare will overhaul welfare and asked for more than $10 billion next year; the current, he said, was not playing its "traditional role in overspending, but it delivers the necessary because of a highly unusual business climate.

In a letter to Congress, the governor requested broad flexibility to use the funds to spend $25 billion in the fiscal year, $356 billion as a war cost for the current fiscal year fiscal year, and $5 billion for the current fiscal year. The plan also proposes a $476 billion budget, $6 billion of which will be spent for the current fiscal year.
Got student loans?
Lower your monthly payments, lock in low interest rates, improve your credit ... you've got one shot!

Recent Grads - act now to get a lower rate!

Call the Student Loan Experts
877.893.7907
Or visit
www.OneStudentLoan.com
Restaurant offers ‘humane’ dining

BY MATTHEW BARKAT

UPPERVALE, Va. — At the Hunter’s Head Tavern, “free dining” has nothing to do with calories or sweat equity. The English pub in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains this week became the first restaurant in the nation to receive the new certification from the nation’s largest animal-rights group for the humane treatment of the animals on its menu.

In other words, it’s OK to order the veal as long as it hasn’t been mistreated.

“Consumers are increasingly concerned about where their food comes from and how it is processed and prepared,” said Linda Ulmer, the executive director of Humane Farm Animal Care. The group’s stamp of approval for the humane treatment of the animals on its menu.

There’s no reason you have to look at food in a new way, she said.

“People are looking at food in a new way, too,” said Burr Scott, pastor of the Red Bank Presbyterian Church, who serves as chairman of Hunter’s Head Tavern.

In the case of Hunter’s Head, approximately 50 miles west of the capital city, nearly all of the restaurant’s meat and eggs come from nearby Ayrshire Farms.

The restaurant and the farm were owned by Burr Scott, who made a fortune in no-finder of Case Foods Inc., a pork-products company. The restaurant to demonstrate the quality of organic and humanely raised chickens.

“Was it to introduce people to thinking in a new way?” she said.

“Was it to forget it’s being killed? You can use humane veal. There’s no reason you have to keep the veal in a cage — keep the animals alive after the veal creates us. We did,” Lerner said.

“People are good about veg again, that’s a good thing,” Lerner said.

Lerner also understanding that some people think eating an animal for food is inhumane, no matter how well the animal is treated in life or how painless the method of slaughter.

“Sure, she said, “People are going to eat meat.

“If I get you to eat one of my food, it kills the turkey, then that’s one that fueled doesn’t kill.”

Humane Farm Animal Care is aligned with two of the nation’s largest animal-rights organizations: the Humane Society of the United States and the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Humane Farm is not affiliated with the American Humane Association, which runs the Humane Treatment of Animals, but has been around just a few years.

“Humane, organic farming against our era,” said Ray Back来看, for the Second world War,” said Lerner, who grew up in a farm.

Linda Ulmer Associated Press

Executive chef Eduardo Arce and gray chef Anna Murray of Hunter’s Head Tavern show off some samples of dishes served at the restaurant on Tuesday in Upperdale, Va. The restaurant became the first in the nation to receive an animal-rights group’s certification for a menu with huminously raised and slaughtered fare.

BackSide

PRESIDENTIAL RACE 2004

Polls bear signs of trouble for Bush

Bush’s approval ratings fall to 46 percent

WASHINGTON — Six in 10 Americans disapprove of President Bush’s handling of the war in Iraq and his overall job performance, a new Los Angeles Times-CBS News poll showed Thursday.

Bush’s overall job approval rating fell to 46 percent, the lowest since he was inaugurated in January 2001.

The poll, which included interviews with 1,762 adults, is the first since Bush delivered his State of the Union address Wednesday night. The results show that Bush’s ratings have slipped into a politically fragile position that he has to face an election at risk, with the public clearly disillusioned by his handling of the war in Iraq and the economy.

Bush continued to run a close race against Sen. John Kerry, D-Mass., in national polls. Kerry would have a lead of 47 percent to 41 percent, according to the survey conducted for the Los Angeles Times and CBS News.

The survey was conducted from Jan. 10 to 13, before Bush delivered his State of the Union address Wednesday night.

In the case of Hunter’s Head, approximately 50 miles west of the capital city, nearly all of the restaurant’s meat and eggs come from nearby Ayrshire Farms.

The restaurant and the farm were owned by Burr Scott, who made a fortune in no-finder of Case Foods Inc., a pork-products company. The restaurant to demonstrate the quality of organic and humanely raised chickens.

“Was it to introduce people to thinking in a new way?” she said.

“Was it to forget it’s being killed? You can use humane veal. There’s no reason you have to keep the veal in a cage — keep the animals alive after the veal creates us. We did,” Lerner said.

“People are good about veg again, that’s a good thing,” Lerner said.

Lerner also understanding that some people think eating an animal for food is inhumane, no matter how well the animal is treated in life or how painless the method of slaughter.

“Sure, she said, “People are going to eat meat.

“If I get you to eat one of my food, it kills the turkey, then that’s one that fueled doesn’t kill.”

Humane Farm Animal Care is aligned with two of the nation’s largest animal-rights organizations: the Humane Society of the United States and the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Humane Farm is not affiliated with the American Humane Association, which runs the Humane Treatment of Animals, but has been around just a few years.

“Humane, organic farming against our era,” said Ray Back来看, for the Second world War,” said Lerner, who grew up in a farm.

Linda Ulmer Associated Press

Executive chef Eduardo Arce and gray chef Anna Murray of Hunter’s Head Tavern show off some samples of dishes served at the restaurant on Tuesday in Upperdale, Va. The restaurant became the first in the nation to receive an animal-rights group’s certification for a menu with huminously raised and slaughtered fare.

BackSide

PRESIDENTIAL RACE 2004

Polls bear signs of trouble for Bush

Bush’s approval ratings fall to 46 percent

WASHINGTON — Six in 10 Americans disapprove of President Bush’s handling of the war in Iraq and his overall job performance, a new Los Angeles Times-CBS News poll showed Thursday.

Bush’s overall job approval rating fell to 46 percent, the lowest since he was inaugurated in January 2001.

The poll, which included interviews with 1,762 adults, is the first since Bush delivered his State of the Union address Wednesday night. The results show that Bush’s ratings have slipped into a politically fragile position that he has to face an election at risk, with the public clearly disillusioned by his handling of the war in Iraq and the economy.

Bush continued to run a close race against Sen. John Kerry, D-Mass., in national polls. Kerry would have a lead of 47 percent to 41 percent, according to the survey conducted for the Los Angeles Times and CBS News.

The survey was conducted from Jan. 10 to 13, before Bush delivered his State of the Union address Wednesday night.
Eric,
Congratulations!
We are very proud parents.
Mom & Dad

Shawna–
Congratulations on graduating from Iowa State University College of Medicine!
Love, Mom, Dad & Jeff

Pat–
We are so proud of you!
You know it’s well as we do in graduate school!
Love, Mom, Dad & Joe & Nell

Dawn–
Congratulations!
You are the best!
Love, Mom & Dad

Cory,
Congratulations!
We wish you the very best now and in the years to come!
Love, Mom & Dad

Lisa–
We are so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad, Amy & Katie

Benjamin–
Sax
Congratulations on your college graduation!
You have made us proud all of you are in class!
Love, Mom & Dad

Mall–
Congratulations!
May your future be filled with much love and happiness.
Profusely Your,
Mom & Dad

Todd–
We are so proud of you!
Another chapter has been written in your life.
Love, Mom, Dad, K.B.

TJ–
We have always made us proud of you.
This is oureton的成功!
Love, Mom, Dad & Mark

Ryan–
Congratulations on your graduation from Iowa State University.
We are proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad & Julia

Blake–
Congratulations!
You are an amazing young man,
We love you!
Mom, Dad & Jake

Buddes–
You’re off to college!
Watch out world!
Love, Mom, Dad, AP, LP, Michael and Zoë

Angela–
I know you have come this far for being and
I am so proud of you!
Mom & Family

Jarred–
All my love!
You are an amazing young man!
Love always, Mom & Dad, Elaina, Maggie, Matt, Amanda & Chelsea

Lindsey–
We are so proud of you!
We wish you luck and happiness always!
Love, Mom & Dad

Sophia–
Congratulations on your Graduation!
Love, Mom, Dad & Anthony

Amber–
You are the best!
We wish you all the best!
Love, Mom, Dad, John & Lori

Eddie Griffin–
You’ve come a long way baby!
We are proud of you!
Love, Your Family

Soren–
Emma, May’s Diplomates
& yours truly, Ryn Morris

Jessica–
Congratulations!
You are the best!
Love, Mom, Dad & Kiana

Elizabeth–
Congratulations!
You are so proud of you!
Love, Your Family

The Daily Iowan - Iowa City, Iowa - Friday, May 14, 2004 - 1A

GRADUATES

K.C.M.–
What a fantastic 20 years!
We love you!
Love, Mom & Dad

Jann–
This was one of the best four years of our lives!
We are so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad & Genie & Cork

Benjamin–
We are so proud of you!
We will miss you very much!
Love, Mom, Dad & Jeff & Abby

Jennifer Anne–
Congratulations!
We love you!
Mom & Dad

Stacy Silver–
This is one of those memories you will
grow old remembering!
Love, Mom, Dad & Josh

Emily–
You’re one long way baby!
Congratulations!
You are so proud of you!
Love, Mom & Dad

Dr. Jody, Ph.D.,
We are so proud of you!
We know you would do it!
Let’s make sure of it!
Love, Mom & Dad

Sunny–
Congratulations on your graduation!
We are so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad & Joe

Jayne–
Congratulations to the
Erin’s family!
Best wishes, Grandpa, Grandma,
You’re so proud of your
Love, Your Parents

Amanda–
Congratulations on your graduation!
We are so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad & Joe

ประกอบ–
Congratulations!
We’re so proud of you!
The whole family is so very proud of you.
Love, Mom, Dad & John

Johnny–
We’re so proud of you!
You are graduating soon.
Love, Mom, Dad & Mike

Buddies–
You’re off to college!
Watch out world!
Love, Mom, Dad, AP, LP, Michael and Zoë

Angela–
I know you have come this far for being and
I am so proud of you!
Mom & Family

Jarred–
All my love!
You are an amazing young man!
Love always, Mom & Dad, Elaina, Maggie, Matt, Amanda & Chelsea

Lindsey–
We are so proud of you!
We wish you luck and happiness always!
Love, Mom & Dad

Sophia–
Congratulations on your Graduation!
Love, Mom, Dad & Anthony

Amber–
You are the best!
We wish you all the best!
Love, Mom, Dad, John & Lori

Eddie Griffin–
You’ve come a long way baby!
We are proud of you!
Love, Your Family

Soren–
Emma, May’s Diplomates
& yours truly, Ryn Morris

Jessica–
Congratulations!
You are the best!
Love, Mom, Dad & Kiana

Elizabeth–
Congratulations!
You are so proud of you!
Love, Your Family

The Daily Iowan - Iowa City, Iowa - Friday, May 14, 2004 - 1A

GRADUATES

K.C.M.–
What a fantastic 20 years!
We love you!
Love, Mom & Dad

Jann–
This was one of the best four years of our lives!
We are so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad & Genie & Cork

Benjamin–
We are so proud of you!
We will miss you very much!
Love, Mom, Dad & Jeff & Abby

Jennifer Anne–
Congratulations!
We love you!
Mom & Dad

Stacy Silver–
This is one of those memories you will
grow old remembering!
Love, Mom, Dad & Josh

Emily–
You’re one long way baby!
Congratulations!
You are so proud of you!
Love, Mom & Dad

Dr. Jody, Ph.D.,
We are so proud of you!
We know you would do it!
Let’s make sure of it!
Love, Mom & Dad

Sunny–
Congratulations on your graduation!
We are so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad & Joe

Jayne–
Congratulations to the
Erin’s family!
Best wishes, Grandpa, Grandma,
You’re so proud of your
Love, Your Parents

Amanda–
Congratulations on your graduation!
We are so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad & Joe

ประกอบ–
Congratulations!
We’re so proud of you!
The whole family is so very proud of you.
Love, Mom, Dad & John

Johnny–
We’re so proud of you!
You are graduating soon.
Love, Mom, Dad & Mike

Buddies–
You’re off to college!
Watch out world!
Love, Mom, Dad, AP, LP, Michael and Zoë

Angela–
I know you have come this far for being and
I am so proud of you!
Mom & Family

Jarred–
All my love!
You are an amazing young man!
Love always, Mom & Dad, Elaina, Maggie, Matt, Amanda & Chelsea

Lindsey–
We are so proud of you!
We wish you luck and happiness always!
Love, Mom & Dad

Sophia–
Congratulations on your Graduation!
Love, Mom, Dad & Anthony

Amber–
You are the best!
We wish you all the best!
Love, Mom, Dad, John & Lori

Eddie Griffin–
You’ve come a long way baby!
We are proud of you!
Love, Your Family

Soren–
Emma, May’s Diplomates
& yours truly, Ryn Morris

Jessica–
Congratulations!
You are the best!
Love, Mom, Dad & Kiana

Elizabeth–
Congratulations!
You are so proud of you!
Love, Your Family

The Daily Iowan - Iowa City, Iowa - Friday, May 14, 2004 - 1A
"Give it your best effort, and the best will come back to you.

Congratulations, Megan
Love, Mom, Dad, Rachel & Carly

MARISSA
You've come a long way. Congratulations! We are so proud of you.
Love, Mom, Dad, Lauren, David & Nathan

Jenny
Congratulations! You're graduating and taking new job. We are so proud of you! From the Love, Rich, McKenzie & Simon

Janet
Congratulations on your graduation and new job! We are so proud of you! From the Love, Rich, McKenzie & Simon

Shawn
We are so proud of you. May the future hold all the best for you.

Brittany
Congratulations! You made it! We are so proud of you. We love you.
Mom, Dad and the gang

Breckya
Congratulations on your kind spirit. We are all very proud of you, and we always have been.
Love, Rich & Sara

Michael
Congratulations on your achievements. Thank you very much.
Love, Rich & Sara

Brian
We are so proud of you! You have a great life ahead of you. We know you will achieve great things. We love you so very much.

Cody
We could not be happier if you won The Cashman/Shull Cup! Congratulations on your success! We Love You! Your Family

Natalie
We are so proud of you! Congratulations! Felicitations! August
Love, Mom, Papa, Joseph

Kara
We are so proud of you! Congratulations! Felicitations! August
Love, Mom, Dad & Sisters

Connor
Congratulations! We want our hard work to pay off in the future.
Love, Dad, Mom & Alex

Kara
We are so proud of you! Congratulations! Felicitations! August
Love, Mom, Dad & Sisters

Anna
You're awesome! From flash cards to graduating with Honors! We are so proud of your hard work and all of your accomplishments!
Love, Mom, Dad, Emily & Baba

Congratulations, Hawkeye Lacrosse
Class of 2004
Matt John Gary Phil Bill
Josh Dave RJ

Nicholas
Rupelinger
Congratulations! I am so proud of you! Good luck in your new career.
Love, Rich

Joe
Congratulations! We are very proud of you and all that you have accomplished.
Love, Mom, Dad, Rich and Jeff

Anna
Wonder where those boots will take you now? We have the ability. For opportunities. For mobility, and you are absolutely excellent now.
We wish you success.
Love, Rich, Mary, Shaw and Fronce

WILLIAM
Christina Jennifer
Congratulations! We are so proud of you! You are top of your class.
Love, Mom and Dad

Erica Y. Sampedro
We're proud of you. Through your hard work, your dreams, and your dedication that you have accomplished so much.
Love, Kim, Du, El and Family

ANDREA
Lindsey Jane Carter
We are so proud of you! Congratulations on your achievements. Good luck in your future.
Love, Rich, McKenzie & Simon

CHRIS
Congratulations! You make us all so proud.
Love, Mom & Family

Lea Ann
Congratulations! We are so proud of you!
Love, Matt, Dave, Suze, Troy - Antonio

JOSH
Great job! We are so very proud of you! These accomplishments have accomplished... We love you, Matt, Dave, Bill & Jeanna

Emily
You know what they say... Congratulations on your graduation.
Love, Rich, McKenzie & Simon

Jen
Sweat, Work, Breathe, Dream, Do it all! Congratulations on your successful college career. Good luck in your own job. We are very proud of you.
Love, Rich, McKenzie & Simon

Chris
You are our meanest Mangos.
We could not be happier.
We are so proud of you.
Love Mom, Dad, Rich & Jeff

Jason
We are so proud of you.
Love, Mom, Dad, Josh, Dustin, Jeff, Julie

Arthur "A.J." Jorgenson
You are the greatest Congratulations on your graduation from the University of Iowa! We are very proud of you. You have more life you wanted to go to college than you ever dreamed about.
Love, Rich, McKenzie & Simon

Congratulations to the Class of 2004
Shawn M. Cong, MD
James M. Cong, MD
Daniel J. Cong, BA
Good luck in your future.

Congratulations to the Class of 2004

Drewby, we are so proud of you... and they called him the most wild thing of all and the wildest thing of them all... and the king of all the wild things. And now... "E.H. M. is the wild rumpus start!"
Love, Rich
GRADUATES

Victor - Congratulations on your graduation! You did great things at the U and you will do even more after. Love, Mom and Dad

Nikki - Congratulations! We are so proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad

AMBER LANZ - Congratulations! You are so proud of you. More than you, Mom, Dan, Charlie, Angel and Lucy need. Love, Mom and Dad

DAVE - You are so proud of you. You did it - in 4 years! What will you become? Love, Mom, Dad, Grandpa, Grammy and Gattalia

JOCELYN - Congratulations on your graduation! You did great things at the U and you will do even more after. Love, Mom and Dad

ALEC - This is just the beginning. Congratulations! We are so proud of you. Love, Moms, Dad and Lindsey

JESSIE - Congratulations! We are so proud of you! Love, Mom, Dad, Steve

SHILOH - Happy Graduation! You're making home. Buy out of my reach. Love, your sister Ali

THANKS TO AND CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL THOSE WHO HAVE HELPED AND WISHED YOU WELL AND CONGRATULATIONS TO YOU!

Roogie, We're all so very proud of you. Thanks for making my life so beautiful. I'll be singing for you tomorrow! Love, Mom

JOANNE - Congratulations! You did it! - and a lot of confidence. Love, Mom and Dad

DAVIDE - We're so proud of you! We're so proud of you! Love, Mom and Dad

Natalie - Congratulations on your graduation! We love you and are so very proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad and Jason

JOANNE - Congratulations! You did it! - and a lot of confidence. Love, Mom and Dad

David - That's just something that you should be proud of. Congratulations! We are so very proud. Love, Mom, Dad and Don

JOYCE - Congratulations! You did it! - and a lot of confidence. We live great. Love, Mom and Dad

KEITH - Congratulations! We are so proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad

Sarah - Congratulations! Many, God continue to bless you in all your new endeavors. We are so proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad, Ali & John

BILLY MIKESELL - Congratulations! We are so very proud of you and confident you will succeed again in the next chapter of your life! Love, Mom, David & Cute

MEGAN (M.K.) - We are so proud of you! Congratulations! Love, Mom, Dad & John

Timothy - You've come a long way. Congratulations! We are so proud of you. The world awaits! Love, Mom and Dad

SARA - Congratulations! May God continue to bless you in all your new endeavors. We are so proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad, Ali & John

SARA - Congratulations! May God continue to bless you in all your new endeavors. We are so proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad, Ali & John

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL THOSE WHO HAVE HELPED AND WISHED YOU WELL AND CONGRATULATIONS TO YOU!

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL THOSE WHO HAVE HELPED AND WISHED YOU WELL AND CONGRATULATIONS TO YOU!
Best Wishes to the Class of 2004

from your friends at

The Daily Iowan
that was the year that wasn't or was't

ROUN-D-UP
Continued from Page 1A

Gephart, who was the Iowa campaign in 1996, wanted to win Iowa to remain a viable candidate. Perhaps the biggest surprise of all was John Edwards' second-place finish. He was unexpected to be a serious contender a month before the caucuses but ended up being 2005 Democratic presidential candidate. Edwards, Gephart, and Iowa Gov. Tom Vilsack all are said to have vowed to run again in 2007.

In case you were wondering, both UI and Iowa State will be playing at 11 a.m. on ESPN.

Field hockey men's coach Scott Borkman is happy to see his team out-winning the more highly ranked teams on the schedule. His team will be playing against the University of Minnesota on Friday. Borkman has been leading his team to win.

Continued from Page 1A

...to kick off the season. The Iowa-Michigan game was won with minimal field hockey's top scorer, sophomore Holden White, scored a goal to win the game. The game ended 2-1, with Iowa forward Kyle Wasson when he was shot in the head.

Traffic violations turned serious in Dubuque as Kyle Watters when he was shot in the head.

Traffic violations turned serious in Dubuque as Kyle Watters when he was shot in the head.

Traffic violations turned serious in Dubuque as Kyle Watters when he was shot in the head.

Traffic violations turned serious in Dubuque as Kyle Watters when he was shot in the head.

Traffic violations turned serious in Dubuque as Kyle Watters when he was shot in the head.

Traffic violations turned serious in Dubuque as Kyle Watters when he was shot in the head.

Traffic violations turned serious in Dubuque as Kyle Watters when he was shot in the head.

Traffic violations turned serious in Dubuque as Kyle Watters when he was shot in the head.

Traffic violations turned serious in Dubuque as Kyle Watters when he was shot in the head.
India’s opposition wins shocking victory

Over the next few days, the process of government formation will gather momentum. We will take the lead, ensure our country has strong, stable, and secular government.

— Sonia Gandhi // party president

Red Cross gives U.S. report on the prisoners in Guantánamo

By Jonathan F.非常重要

The Red Cross has provided the United States with a report on prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The Red Cross has been working with the U.S. government to ensure that the detainees have access to legal aid, medical care, and other basic necessities.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.

The Red Cross has provided the U.S. with a report on the prisoners in Guantánamo, a key step in the process of releasing some of the estimated 680 detainees held there.

The Geneva Convention, which governs the treatment of prisoners of war, requires that the Red Cross have access to all prisoners to ensure their rights are respected.

The report, which is still being reviewed by the U.S. government, includes information on the conditions of the prisoners, their medical status, and the reasons for their detention.

The report marks a significant step in the effort to bring transparency to the issue of detention and to bring closure to the families of the detainees.
BY CRAIG WHITLOCK
Washington Post

ATHENS - Greek officials said there are no terrorist groups or cells within the country's borders that pose a threat to the Olympic Games in August. Despite a claim made by a Palestinian official that Israel was planning a terrorist attack, Greek military officials said there was no indication of any such threat.

The government of Prime Minister Costas Simitis, facing an election this month, has mounted a major security operation as it prepares to host the Athens Games.

The security plan involves the deployment of 25,000 security officers, including army soldiers, police officers and coast guards. The plan also includes a search for weapons and explosives.

The government has been criticized for not doing enough to prevent terrorist attacks.

BY TAMER ZAABARA
Washington Post

RAFHAH, Gaza Strip - Hands of Israeli troops on their hands and loose-clothed desert clothes, the commander of an Israeli military strike on Rafah, in Egypt, said the tension in the Gaza Strip remains high.

Emotions have run high in the past week as Israel has launched a series of attacks in the Gaza Strip, which is controlled by the Palestinian Authority.

The commander said his forces have been on high alert since the start of the week's operation.

The commander, who declined to give his name, said that the Israeli forces were waiting for a signal from the higher command in Jerusalem.

The commander also said that the operation was a response to the recent incursion in Gaza by Palestinian militants.

The Israeli military operation in Gaza, which began on May 12, has left at least 15 people dead and hundreds wounded.

BY KHALID KHALILI
Washington Post

QURAN, Gaza Strip - The Israeli military launched a new attack in the southern Gaza Strip on Friday, killing seven people and wounding 20 others.

The attack was a response to a mortar attack on an Israeli settlement on Thursday night.

The Israeli military said it had targeted a group of Palestinian militants who had launched the mortar attack.

The attack was the latest in a string of incidents in the southern Gaza Strip in recent weeks.

The Israeli military said it had deployed troops and reinforcements to the area in response to the attack.

The Israeli military also said it had launched a strike against a Hamas local council building in the West Bank town of Hebron.

The attack was the second in less than 24 hours.

The Israeli military said it had打死 11 militants in the attack.

The attack was the latest in a series of Israeli attacks in the West Bank and Gaza Strip.

The Israeli military said it had launched the attack as a response to recent rocket attacks on Israeli settlements.

The attack was the latest in a series of Israeli attacks in the West Bank and Gaza Strip.

The Israeli military said it had launched the attack as a response to recent rocket attacks on Israeli settlements.
Dumping a financial onus on students

A D analysis reveals that real-state appropriations for the UI have actually increased over the past 20 years— but not as much as student fees have increased.

The university is in the process of spending $82 million out of the general-education fund in response to another round of state appropriates. After a general-education fund cut of 20 percent increases, tuition will rise only (faintly) around 8 percent. During the last five years, the UI has laid tenure-track faculty in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, has enlarged class sizes, and eliminated two administrative vice presidents. In all likelihood, at mid-session is becoming an annual occurrence. In response to another round of state funding cuts, the effect of which is now felt in the general-education fund has tripled in the last 20 years. Adjust that figure for inflation (at a rate of 5.15 percent, according to inflationdata.com), and $116 million equals $219 million. State funding barely exceeds the inflation rate. Meanwhile, UI's general-education fund has nearly tripled over that same period.

Student fees have increased for approximately $38 million to 20 years ago—approximately 23 percent of the $164 million general-education fund. Today, student fees account for $116 million—approximately 30 percent of the UI's general-education fund. As spending rises, the students are forced to bear the burden.
On radio, the beat goes on

With the advent of technology, radio seems to have taken a permanent back seat as the best way to find new music.

BY JESSICA FISCHOFF

If people had been asked if they listened to radio 20 years ago, they probably would have answered, "Sure, I listen to the radio." But with the advent of MP3 players and other devices that allow music ownership to be carried around in a personal player, the radio as we had always known it is quickly becoming a thing of the past.

"I listen to the radio," said UI sophomore Amy Hildreth. "I use Limewire to download music, specifically bands that I don't want to buy if they won't give me the option."

It's not just the individual consumer of today who feels this way. Long before cars came equipped with CB radios, people used radios as a source of information about the goings-on in the rest of the world. The popularity of the AM radio in the U.S. can be traced back to the turn of the century, when radio first started to become common in the U.S. and the first major transmission was made on Christmas Eve. Radio was a popular form of entertainment in the early 1900s and this popularity has only increased over the years. Today, radio is still one of the most popular forms of entertainment.

"I use Limewire to download lots of music, specifically bands that I don't want to buy if they won't give me the option."

Radio has long been responsible for introducing new music to millions of people. Long before cars came equipped with CB radios, people used radios as a source of information about the goings-on in the rest of the world. The popularity of the AM radio in the U.S. can be traced back to the turn of the century, when radio first started to become common in the U.S. and the first major transmission was made on Christmas Eve. Radio was a popular form of entertainment in the early 1900s and this popularity has only increased over the years. Today, radio is still one of the most popular forms of entertainment.

"I use Limewire to download lots of music, specifically bands that I don't want to buy if they won't give me the option."

Radio has long been responsible for introducing new music to millions of people. Long before cars came equipped with CB radios, people used radios as a source of information about the goings-on in the rest of the world. The popularity of the AM radio in the U.S. can be traced back to the turn of the century, when radio first started to become common in the U.S. and the first major transmission was made on Christmas Eve. Radio was a popular form of entertainment in the early 1900s and this popularity has only increased over the years. Today, radio is still one of the most popular forms of entertainment.

"I use Limewire to download lots of music, specifically bands that I don't want to buy if they won't give me the option."
quote of the day

Trying to plan for the future without knowing the past is like trying to plant cut flowers.

— History Daniel Bonston
SCOREBOARD

MLB

Tuesday's games

AL East

New York Yankees 10, Boston Red Sox 3

AL Central

Chicago White Sox 4, Minnesota Twins 2

AL West

Oakland Athletics 12, Texas Rangers 7

NL East

New York Mets 4, Philadelphia Phillies 0

NL Central

San Francisco Giants 4, Chicago Cubs 3

NL West

Atlanta Braves 5, San Diego Padres 4

DI SPORTS DESK
THE DI SPORTS DEPARTMENT WELCOMES QUESTIONS AND COMMENTS. PHONE: (319) 335-3458. FAX: (319) 335-6254.

Story of the Year: Nate Paton Recruiting Saga

Recruit stirs up controversy, later dismissed

By Jason Brummond and Alex Lang

Nate Paton, a 6-foot-3 junior-collegiate defensive end from Grundy Center, Iowa, has the eye of Iowa football coach Kirk Ferentz. Paton said he will announce his decision for the Iowa football program on Wednesday.

"I don't know how to explain it, but it's kind of like a family atmosphere," Paton said. "I'm not sure they look at me as a guy, but I feel like they look at me as a family member."

According to Paton, the Hawkeyes have been around him and his family since he was a little kid. His mother, Cindy, is a former Iowa women's basketball player, and his father, Bob, played basketball at Iowa.

"They just have a way of making you feel like you're part of the family," Paton said. "They just have a way of making you feel like you're part of the family."

Iowa football

Iowa's 2004 season is surging ahead of last year, he said. "It's surging ahead of last year, he said. "It's a very different season." Sandstrum said Thursday.

Sandstrum complies a weekly report on Iowa football. He said the Hawkeyes are on the same AAU team and are going to a bowl game this year. Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's a big change from last year." Sandstrum said Thursday.

Iowa football's Residence Hall

The Residence Hall in Iowa City is made up of two buildings, Neola Trl-Center, has accepted a bid from Wendy Ausdemore, a junior athlete at the university. Ausdemore, a 6-foot junior at Grundy Center, has accepted a bid from Wendy Ausdemore, a junior athlete at the university.

"We just made so many mistakes this season," she said. "We just made so many mistakes this season, she said. "We just made so many mistakes this season, she said. "We just made so many mistakes this season, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"They're doing a really good job with the women's tennis team, she said. "They're doing a really good job with the women's tennis team, she said. "They're doing a really good job with the women's tennis team, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said. "We're looking to the future, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.

"That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said. "That's kind of different because it's a new era, she said." Sandstrum said Thursday.
Williams advances in Italian Open

BY ANDREW DEMPSTER

ROME — Serena Williams looked relieved in her second match back after nearly a month off with a knee injury. She wasn't especially thrilled, however, with her 6-1, 6-3 victory over 19th-seeded Daily Championship of the Italian Open.

"I don't think I played as well as I could have, I'm not as satisfied right now as all," Williams said.

She wanted the match points when serving to end the match at 6-2 in the second round. But Williams, a longtime African junior champion from Madagascar, eventually won that game.

Williams then broke serve for the second time in the second set.

"If I had opportunities to close out the matches quickly, I think she probably could have been (serving) for the second time," Williams said.

But the 16-year-old Grand Slam champion looked much better than her second-round appearance against Marion Bartoli. Williams' good right now is to be in the push for the French Open, which comes May 30. "I'm close. I could get better," she said. "I'm happy. I'm getting better. I'm happy with my level, where I'm at now." Williams won the second set after a second-round match against Flavia Pennetta in 113 minutes.

Thelma Williams, 10th-seeded

Thelma Williams beat her rain-delayed second-round match against Elia, the 10th-seeded player, who had beaten Martinez, the seven-time French Open champion, 6-3, 6-3, in her second match of the day. Williams was serving for a 6-3, 5-3 lead when her opponent retired.

In the second set, the 17-year-old Flavia Pennetta was defeated by a strong left-handed player, which she had just won at 6-1, 6-2, in the quarterfinals.

Early Thursday, Flavia Pennetta was defeated by the 27-year-old, second-seeded Conchita Martinez, and Elia did the same, 6-3, 7-6 (3), 6-3.

In three weeks, Flavia Martinez and Conchita Martinez will face each other in the French Open women's singles final.

Lion Heart ready to head to Bluemoon and Eddington

We play to win, obviously. I know it's going to be difficult to beat Smokey Jones, but we are going to try.

— Patrick Rioncote, mom of trainer

BY RICHARD ROSENFELD

SATURDAY — Saturdays this month, Lion Heart has finished second, second, and second. That's not a bad stretch every time.

But Williams then broke serve for the second time in the second set.

"If I had opportunities to close out the matches quickly, I think she probably could have been (serving) for the second time," Williams said.

But the 16-year-old Grand Slam champion looked much better than her second-round appearance against Marion Bartoli. Williams' good right now is to be in the push for the French Open, which comes May 30. "I'm close. I could get better," she said. "I'm happy. I'm getting better. I'm happy with my level, where I'm at now." Williams won the second set after a second-round match against Flavia Pennetta in 113 minutes.

Thelma Williams, 10th-seeded

Thelma Williams beat her rain-delayed second-round match against Elia, the 10th-seeded player, who had beaten Martinez, the seven-time French Open champion, 6-3, 6-3, in her second match of the day. Williams was serving for a 6-3, 5-3 lead when her opponent retired.

In the second set, the 17-year-old Flavia Pennetta was defeated by a strong left-handed player, which she had just won at 6-1, 6-2, in the quarterfinals.

Early Thursday, Flavia Pennetta was defeated by the 27-year-old, second-seeded Conchita Martinez, and Elia did the same, 6-3, 7-6 (3), 6-3.

In three weeks, Flavia Martinez and Conchita Martinez will face each other in the French Open women's singles final.

Lion Heart ready to head to Bluemoon and Eddington

We play to win, obviously. I know it's going to be difficult to beat Smokey Jones, but we are going to try.

— Patrick Rioncote, mom of trainer

BY RICHARD ROSENFELD

SATURDAY — Saturdays this month, Lion Heart has finished second, second, and second. That's not a bad stretch every time.

But Williams then broke serve for the second time in the second set.

"If I had opportunities to close out the matches quickly, I think she probably could have been (serving) for the second time," Williams said.

But the 16-year-old Grand Slam champion looked much better than her second-round appearance against Marion Bartoli. Williams' good right now is to be in the push for the French Open, which comes May 30. "I'm close. I could get better," she said. "I'm happy. I'm getting better. I'm happy with my level, where I'm at now." Williams won the second set after a second-round match against Flavia Pennetta in 113 minutes.

Thelma Williams, 10th-seeded

Thelma Williams beat her rain-delayed second-round match against Elia, the 10th-seeded player, who had beaten Martinez, the seven-time French Open champion, 6-3, 6-3, in her second match of the day. Williams was serving for a 6-3, 5-3 lead when her opponent retired.

In the second set, the 17-year-old Flavia Pennetta was defeated by a strong left-handed player, which she had just won at 6-1, 6-2, in the quarterfinals.

Early Thursday, Flavia Pennetta was defeated by the 27-year-old, second-seeded Conchita Martinez, and Elia did the same, 6-3, 7-6 (3), 6-3.

In three weeks, Flavia Martinez and Conchita Martinez will face each other in the French Open women's singles final.
Lakers win on buzzer beater

With 0.4 seconds left in the game, Derek Fisher tops Tim Duncan’s final shot and gives the Lakers a 74-73 win and a 3-2 lead in the series.

By JAMIE ARON

SAN ANTONIO — The final shot was a buzzer beater by Derek Fisher that gave the Lakers a 74-73 victory over the San Antonio Spurs on Thursday night for a 3-2 lead in the NBA Finals.

"Lucky shot," Fisher said. "It went in.

"They thought they’d win it on Duncan’s shot," Fisher said, referring to Duncan’s missed 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have tied the game at 73.

Fisher’s shot came after a late turnover by the Lakers, who were trying to send the game into overtime.

Fisher’s shot ended a 3-2 series, giving the Lakers a 2-2 lead in the Western Conference Finals.

"I don’t think they have any chance of winning it," Fisher said. "They have no chance of winning this game."
A Photo is Worth A Thousand Words
SELL YOUR CAR
30 DAYS FOR
$40
(photo and up to 15 words)

Call our office to set up a time that is convenient for you to bring your car to be photographed. Your ad will run for 30 days - for $40!
Deadline: 2 days prior to run date desired

For more information contact:
The Daily Iowan Classified Dept.
319-333-5784 or 335-5785

www.barkerapartments.com
SPORTS

Top recruit incoming

DAHM
Continued from Page 1B

look at the past. You can't sit out at past set, the last game, or the last look at the past. Keep the ball moving for- ward.

Carlos Rodriguez

head coach of the Hawkeye women's basketball team. The Hawkeyes are looking to win their first national title, which would be a big step forward for the program. Rodriguez has been a key player in this year's success, leading the team to a record-breaking season.

Oklahoma State University

in Iowa, has committed to look- ing to be the head coach of the women's basketball team. Rodriguez has been a key player in this year's success, leading the team to a record-breaking season.

Iowa

If Rodriguez is the head coach, it will be a big step forward for the program. Rodriguez has been a key player in this year's success, leading the team to a record-breaking season.

TENNIS

Continued from Page 1B

Wardlaw

confident in his team

We've had a good week of prac- tice overall through the exam week. Everyone's really ready for the non-conference games that we have this weekend. We're looking forward to playing at home against Nebraska on Friday night and Kansas on Sunday afternoon.

Wardlaw says he's advo- cating for the non-conference games with the three ranked teams.

"With Nebraska, we have a chance to build confidence and to prove ourselves as a team. With Kansas, we have a chance to test ourselves against a top 10 team. With Indiana, we have a chance to continue our winning streak and to prove ourselves as a team," Wardlaw said.