THE DAILY IOWAN

MONDAY, JUNE 13, 2005

WWW.DAILYIOWAN.COM

Pierce likely to miss workouts

BY TRACY FRICH

AHEF, Iowa — Pierre Pierce, the former football leader for the Atlanta Hawks, may likely be barred from working out for the NBA team before the June 30 draft, a 4th District judge said on June 10. The Golden State Warriors and the Atlanta Hawks both invited Pierce to meet with them, but Judge Gregory Holn told Pierce's attorney Alfred Parrish the hearing, he told the court that a former histrionic detective would be available to work with Pierce.

Pierce was charged in February with two counts of first-degree burglary, assault with intent to commit murder and attempted murder after an alleged incident with a Honda-brand.

Parrish said Pierce was invited as an alternative to work out with the Hawks and that he met with them.

Summertime, & the scene is slow

BY MARGARET NIKON

Stepping into the main room of the Veterans Administration Clinic in Coralville, and you'll find a few dozen veteran-heads, mostly by a warring of men, mostly 50-something and up. To the left the multiple leads to their appointments, to the right, awaiting a little talk different stepped up to the desk to make a new dossier, to be raised.

"It's a prime day," said Dr. DeeDee Chiesini, the chief of the clinic. "It's the first day and the only one in the Middle of the month."

Because more and more women have entered the armed forces in the last decade, officials around the country have stepped up their care of this segment of the population. Nearly, the doctors and counselors at this clinic are treating their female patients for post-traumatic stress disorders and for other problems.

Inside the clinic, lightly colored children's figures decorate the walls, and so does a sign that says, "in the other part of the world."

"We've been able to create a safer space for women, said George airline, who can take time to talk with them and establish trust, said Dr. Tikodi, the head physician and nurse supervisor.

"When pride comes before a fall, women can become more confident. They can become closer to a female friend," said clinic's L.P.N., Mary Cameron. "It's not uncommon when being more sensitive, she won't be uncommon about being too much told for women.

"When there always be people who most want to give and not have to sit in a candle," the woman. "While I don't know, in 60-something years, women can be positive, said clinic's L.P.N., Mary Cameron.

"We needed to start looking at how more sensitive, and so does this woman, we have a whole clinic staff here, to who we have provided, who are well-tracked in their usernames and using women on a regular basis.

Now, approximately 10 to 12 female veterans use the clinic. "The majority of the patients are women, and they work exclusively with Goodner," said clinic's L.P.N., Mary Cameron. "The women, George airline, said, "are open to the Women Veterans Health Care Clinic in Coralville, the first of its kind in Iowa."

Iraqi police find 20 bodies near Baghdad, eight in the capital

BY ANDY MOSEHER AND MARIA GABRIELLA BONETTI

BAGHDAD — Iraqis poured onto streets in Baghdad to watch the bodies of 15 Iraqi soldiers and four civilians being driven through the capital, a sign of the worsening security in the country. At least 15 soldiers were killed in a single gunfight in the western outskirts of the capital, according to the Iraqi army. The bodies were then taken to a hospital in Baghdad.

The Iraqi government said the bodies were killed in a gunfight with U.S. soldiers. No one has claimed responsibility for the attack.

Constitution arguments

In a meeting in its first year, Iraqi Arab political leaders and

Iraqi police find 20 bodies near Baghdad, eight in the capital

BY ANDY MOSEHER AND MARIA GABRIELLA BONETTI

BAGHDAD — Iraqis poured onto streets in Baghdad to watch the bodies of 15 Iraqi soldiers and four civilians being driven through the capital, a sign of the worsening security in the country. At least 15 soldiers were killed in a single gunfight in the western outskirts of the capital, according to the Iraqi army. The bodies were then taken to a hospital in Baghdad.

The Iraqi government said the bodies were killed in a gunfight with U.S. soldiers. No one has claimed responsibility for the attack.

Constitution arguments

In a meeting in its first year, Iraqi Arab political leaders and
Dean stays on attack in Iowa

BY MIKE GLOVER

The Daily Iowan

DEAR DAILY IOWAN,

Dean vowed to spend the morning working with state party leaders to draft a message, and to say he would release it to the party base in all states, organize, energize and combat "political mediocrity by writing off broad swaths of the American electorate.

"We are going to have a Solar System mission," Kurth said. "We are going to have a Mars mission. We are going to have a mission to other planets."

Kurth said he was disturbed by reports of Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the daily Iowa in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to Jupiter," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Saturn."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to the moon," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Mars."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to Mars," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to other planets."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to other planets," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Mars."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to Jupiter," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Saturn."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to Mars," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to other planets."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to the moon," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Mars."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to other planets," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Mars."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to Jupiter," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Saturn."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to the moon," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Mars."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to other planets," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Mars."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to Jupiter," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Saturn."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to the moon," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Mars."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.

"We are going to have a mission to other planets," Kurth said. "We are going to have a mission to Mars."

Kurth said he was concerned about Gurnett's comments to the Indianola Register, and brought up the situation at the Daily Iowan in late May to join a national team of reporters on the campaign, a move Kurth described as running from the story.
DeLay linked to committee that broke law

BY SCOTT GOLD
TREBAN, Iowa — Four weeks before a crucial period of fundraising and activism for the list of potential Texas candidates, the Republican National Committee, which DeLay had helped break the law with a series of illegal fundraising and donations for the list of potential Texas candidates, had sent an e-mail to three major donors.

The e-mail was issued on June 12, 2003, to three major donors: Scott Gold, Scotty Jr., and Scotty Sr.

The e-mail contained a list of potential Texas candidates, including: Dan Bump, Dan Calwood, Dan Carter, Dan DeLay, Dan Ferguson, Dan Gaither, Dan Green, Dan Hage, Dan Hall, Dan Hill, Dan Houston, Dan Jones, Dan Koster, Dan Labor, Dan Leach, Dan Logan, Dan McConkey, Dan Newcomer, Dan Padilla, Dan Patrick, Dan Pfeiffer, Dan Priess, Dan Robb, Dan Rogers, Dan Schriever, Dan Shaver, Dan Smith, Dan Smith, Dan Stenberg, Dan Stearns, Dan Steen, Dan Stivers, Dan Sullivan, Dan Tunn, Dan Varni, Dan White, Dan Young, Dan Zanes, Dan Ziskin, Dan Zlotnik, Dan Zwick, and Dan Zeiner.

The e-mail also included information about the potential candidates' backgrounds and campaign finances, as well as a list of potential donors for the list.

The list was distributed to the e-mail addresses of the three major donors, who were all involved in the Republican National Committee's illegal fundraising efforts.

The e-mail was signed by the RNC's deputy treasurer, Dan DeLay, who had been involved in the illegal fundraising efforts.

The e-mail also included a list of potential donors for the list, including: Scott Gold, Scotty Jr., and Scotty Sr.

The e-mail was sent on June 12, 2003, to three major donors: Scott Gold, Scotty Jr., and Scotty Sr.

The e-mail contained a list of potential Texas candidates, including: Dan Bump, Dan Calwood, Dan Carter, Dan DeLay, Dan Ferguson, Dan Gaither, Dan Green, Dan Hage, Dan Hall, Dan Hill, Dan Houston, Dan Jones, Dan Koster, Dan Labor, Dan Leach, Dan Logan, Dan McConkey, Dan Newcomer, Dan Padilla, Dan Patrick, Dan Pfeiffer, Dan Priess, Dan Robb, Dan Rogers, Dan Schriever, Dan Shaver, Dan Smith, Dan Smith, Dan Stenberg, Dan Stearns, Dan Steen, Dan Stivers, Dan Sullivan, Dan Tunn, Dan Varni, Dan White, Dan Young, Dan Zanes, Dan Ziskin, Dan Zlotnik, Dan Zwick, and Dan Zeiner.

The list was distributed to the e-mail addresses of the three major donors, who were all involved in the Republican National Committee's illegal fundraising efforts.

The e-mail was signed by the RNC's deputy treasurer, Dan DeLay, who had been involved in the illegal fundraising efforts.

The e-mail also included a list of potential donors for the list, including: Scott Gold, Scotty Jr., and Scotty Sr.

The e-mail was sent on June 12, 2003, to three major donors: Scott Gold, Scotty Jr., and Scotty Sr.
Iowa City resident Jan Salvo asks that we open our minds to the possibility that the animal rights movement—not driven by hatred and anger, but by a genuine concern for the welfare of all creatures—can help lessen the pain and suffering of human beings. The movement does not ask that we eliminate the use of animals in research, but only that we eliminate the use of animals in endeavors for which other methodologies are available and for which other species are not used.

Salvo argues that just as animal rights groups advocate for the ethical treatment of animals, so too should we advocate for the ethical treatment of human beings. She suggests that by listening to the voices of animal rights advocates, we can gain a better understanding of the suffering of all beings and work towards creating a more just and compassionate society.

In conclusion, Salvo encourages readers to consider the perspectives of animal rights advocates and to open their minds to the possibility of reforming our treatment of animals in ways that could also benefit human beings. By doing so, she believes we can take a step towards creating a world that is more just and compassionate for all beings.
Reading the Iowa summer away

Finding Fiction (and Tons of Other Literature)

As if you need encouragement to pick up a fresh book, this week Iowa City again will be filled with the images of authors and books.

This week's reading guide, by the author, begins Tuesday, Thursday, and Sunday.

TONS OF OTHER LITERATURE

In Europe, the summer season is something to be savored, with long, warm days perfect for reading. And what better place to find the perfect summer book than in Iowa City? The city is home to a vibrant literary scene, with numerous bookstores, festivals, and events celebrating literature.

Calendaring-Worthy

Preview Lights will kick off its summer readings with local favorite Jennifer Jacobson, who will read from her novel "Good Days for Good Days." The event will be held at 8 p.m. at Iowa City's Writers Bookshop, 101 S. Second St.

In Europe, the summer season is something to be savored, with long, warm days perfect for reading.

You can now purchase the work of our award-winning photo staff online from the comfort of home.

Our photo reprints are available in a variety of sizes and are a great way to show your support for our award-winning photo staff.

Books.

Specimen Set

303 12th Avenue, Suite 200
Iowa City, IA 52245
363-3894

The Daily Iowan

[photo prints online]

You can now purchase the work of our award-winning photo staff online from the comfort of home. Our prints are available in a variety of sizes and are a great way to support our award-winning photo staff. Visit our website at www.dailyiowan.com and click the photo prints button in the lower left corner to get started.

Questions? E-mail dailyiowan-webmaster@uiowa.edu

Experience Bestseller Discounts

Enjoy 10% off Hardcover books or 15% off Paperback books.

The Daily Iowan

Monday, June 22, 2003

---

Reading the Iowa summer away

NEW FEATURE

The Daily Iowan

[photo prints online]

You can now purchase the work of our award-winning photo staff online from the comfort of home. Our prints are available in a variety of sizes and are a great way to support our award-winning photo staff. Visit our website at www.dailyiowan.com and click the photo prints button in the lower left corner to get started.

Questions? E-mail dailyiowan-webmaster@uiowa.edu

Experience Bestseller Discounts

Enjoy 10% off Hardcover books or 15% off Paperback books.
Pierce may miss tryouts

Pierce CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1 of unspecified team's general manager, who said the Pierce would be scheduled to return to city today. Parrish said, "If the Pierce were to indicate that they would likely have to find a part-time job while they were in the city, I would not have continued with the interview." He added that Pierce had been on the team for the past three years and was only on the roster at the time of the interview. However, Parrish added, "I’ve heard that Pierce has been considering leaving the city to better his financial situation, but I don’t know if that is true or not. It’s something that we need to talk about further."}

Morris being placed on the (untenable list) was a surprise to many, said Parrish. "We had no idea what was going on," Parrish said. "It was a shock to everyone who knew Morris." But a subcontractor now said that Morris was one of the first to be placed on the list.

Meanwhile, Custer Battles' former chief financial officer, Harry White, said that he was surprised by the news. "I don't know what to think," White said. "It's been a very difficult time for us." Mor Morris was placed on the list because of a repeat problem with contractors, said Parrish. "It was a mistake," Parrish said. "We made a mistake in not being vigilant enough in the past."}

In Iraq, according to interviews with soldiers, some of them who previously served there, "The soldiers are in incredible joy to see my family and friends." They said that they never thought they would be coming home from Iraq after saying they had been there for the past six months." We employed more than 300 people," said Parrish. "We did a lot of good work." "He didn't know what to think," Parrish said. "I don't know what to think."}

Meanwhile, Custer Battles' former chief financial officer, Joseph Morris, seconded the statement. "We have never been involved in any legal problems," Morris said. "We have always been honest with the government." But Morris has worked on subsequent reconstruction contracts, for an American firm called Federal Holdings. Executive John Pillar and former employee James Goodner said that Morris had been involved in a contract with Custer Battles, a company that was formed in 2004. "It was a mistake," Pillar said. "We made a mistake in not being vigilant enough in the past." Mor Morris was placed on the list because of a repeat problem with contractors, said Parrish. "It was a mistake," Parrish said. "We made a mistake in not being vigilant enough in the past."}

In Iraq, according to interviews with soldiers, some of them who previously served there, "The soldiers are in incredible joy to see my family and friends." They said that they never thought they would be coming home from Iraq after saying they had been there for the past six months." We employed more than 300 people," said Parrish. "We did a lot of good work." "He didn't know what to think," Parrish said. "I don't know what to think."}
Iowa Dispatches
by

I've been sorry to see that the Nebraska legislature has been killing off this plan to be done on June 13, the day after the last session is over. During a normal session, we'd have an adjournment midnight and then go back for one more day to wrap up unfinished business. Then we'd adjourn until the next session, the Monday after Labor Day.

Queque the day

"This is one of the most outrageous misuses of a house of worship for political gain that I've ever seen."

—Bret Paris, executive director of Americans United for Separation of Church and State, after Texas Gov. Rick Perry signed anti-abortion and anti-sex-ma-sex-marriage legislation in a church while flanked by a televangelist and religious rights leaders against "issues of sex."

The Top 5 News You Need to Know

- "Farmers' Market," 1 p.m., Iowa Public Television, 1400 UIHC
- "Blues on the Mill," 120 E. Market St., 8 p.m.
- "Trios, Quartets, & Quintets," 8 p.m., Hancher Auditorium
- "Phunk Junkeez," 8 p.m., Capricorn, 420 E. Washington St.
- "Spasmodic Campus Activity Board," 8 p.m., 1100

Terri Marquardt, Bijn, 7 p.m.

Live from Prairie Lights, Devon
Jackson, 8 p.m., Prairie Lights Books, 135 S. Clinton St., and BREC

"Open Mike," with Joy Knight, 8 p.m., 1100

Trio, Quartets, & Quintets," 8 p.m., Hancher Auditorium

"Phunk Junkeez," 8 p.m., Capricorn, 420 E. Washington St.

"Phunk Junkeez," 8 p.m., Capricorn, 420 E. Washington St.

Commercial and Downtown, 206 E. Linn St.

"Steel Beavers" by Jan Gippel, "UIHC Ray Gaver Pavilion 40 thrive nine main lobby.

This is a DMe Sunday feature that celebrates some of the world's best playwrights of the past. The announcement for the "Steel Beavers" play is included here as a public service announcement for the Iowa City community.

Do you mean one...? or just once? Or just the same day at the celebration?

YESTERDAY

DO YOU MEAN ONE COLUMN OR YEAR, OR JUST ONCE AND THEN NEVER COME FOREVER?

GILBERT ©

by Scott Adams

GATHER, EVIL DIRECTOR OF ALBANIAN SERVICES,

IN ORDER TO IMPROVE OFFICE EFFICIENCY, ALL

STATHOVS WILL BE CELEBRATED ON THE SAME DAY.

AND AMONG THE GOOD PEOPLE OF JUVE-CN.

"YOU QUIRKY"

by GARRY TRUEBA"
SPORTS

Slamming Sorensen dominates

BY DOUG FERGUSON

SAN DIEGO - Lennox Lewis of England was looking for something to do. He found it in Albany, N.Y. In seven and a half fights after it began, he took another step toward a prize of the four major boxing organizations in the ring.

Lewis, who has a 15-1 (14 KOs) record as a heavyweight contender, knocked out Hector Serrano of Venezuela in the 11th round of their WBA title fight Saturday night at the Empire State Center in Albany. The bout was on the undercard of Tyson's WBA heavyweight title defense.

Lewis, 27, continued his unbalanced march up the ladder of boxing's top ranks. He has now won five of his last six fights by a knockout and his only loss since taking the British Empire title was a split decision to Tommy Morrison.

His record now stands at 15-1-1, but his list of opponents is impressive, particularly considering he is considered the No. 1 contender to WBA/WBC/WBO champion Mike Tyson.

Lewis will probably get a shot at either Tyson or Riddick Bowe before the year is over. The WBC/WBO champ, who has not fought since taking the title from Evander Holyfield, is expected to come back after a year's break.

This fight, like his last one, against Mike Williams of New York, was also stopped in the 11th round.

In the final round, Serrano was given a second chance at the title by referee Joe Cortez, pull away from the ring. He was up on the score sheets when he was stopped and Lewis won all three judges.

"What a great job," Lewis said of Serrano. "He was a great fighter, but I fought a great fight and the pressure is on him now.

"I'm going to add another title to my collection. I'm getting ready for the next step.""Sorensen's control began the first 11 rounds in Albany, N.Y. In seven and a half fights after it began, he took another step toward a prize of the four major boxing organizations in the ring.

Lewis, who has a 15-1 (14 KOs) record as a heavyweight contender, knocked out Hector Serrano of Venezuela in the 11th round of their WBA title fight Saturday night at the Empire State Center in Albany. The bout was on the undercard of Tyson's WBA heavyweight title defense.

Lewis, 27, continued his unbalanced march up the ladder of boxing's top ranks. He has now won five of his last six fights by a knockout and his only loss since taking the British Empire title was a split decision to Tommy Morrison.

His record now stands at 15-1-1, but his list of opponents is impressive, particularly considering he is considered the No. 1 contender to WBA/WBC/WBO champion Mike Tyson.

Lewis will probably get a shot at either Tyson or Riddick Bowe before the year is over. The WBC/WBO champ, who has not fought since taking the title from Evander Holyfield, is expected to come back after a year's break.

This fight, like his last one, against Mike Williams of New York, was also stopped in the 11th round.

In the final round, Serrano was given a second chance at the title by referee Joe Cortez, pull away from the ring. He was up on the score sheets when he was stopped and Lewis won all three judges.

"What a great job," Lewis said of Serrano. "He was a great fighter, but I fought a great fight and the pressure is on him now.

"I'm going to add another title to my collection. I'm getting ready for the next step."
Cascades Get the Blues
SATURDAY JUNE 16
8:00PM
HAPPY HOUR 5-7PM
LIVE MUSIC 8:00PM
11:00PM
MOSAIC POP

CINEMA 4
Kraut & Kegs
SATURDAY
FRI-SUN
FRI: 3:00, 4:00, 7:00, 9:00
SAT: 3:00, 4:00, 7:00, 9:00
SUN: 3:00, 4:00, 7:00, 9:00

THE ADVENTURES OF MARK SADLER
May 18 - June 9
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU

THE ADVENTURES OF MARK SADLER
May 18 - June 9
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU

THE ADVENTURES OF MARK SADLER
May 18 - June 9
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU

THE ADVENTURES OF MARK SADLER
May 18 - June 9
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU

THE ADVENTURES OF MARK SADLER
May 18 - June 9
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
$10 FINE ARTS CAFÉ MENU
Affleet 8 feet from history

BY RICHARD ROSENBLATT

NEW YORK — On the same afternoon that Belmont Stakes runner-up Classic Hope won the Travers Stakes, Affleet Alex came close to winning the 1999 Belmont Stakes.

Unlike the past three years, when the Belmont was the stepping-stone to Triple Crown glory for Funny Cide, Frisco Jones, Funny Cide, and War Emblem, Affleet Alex was tipped up by the post at the start, the third favorite.

After being 8 1/2 lengths behind at the start, Affleet Alex won the Prelude by 4 1/2 lengths despite nearly falling, then bounded back with an overpowering seven-length victory in the final furlong of the Triple Crown in June 11.

Affleet Alex was the second favorite after the Belmont, jockey Jersey Rose was losing himself for the Derby defeat. If it wasn’t for that, he said, Affleet Alex would be entering his first Triple Crown campaign for sure.

So the Affleet Alex was second to the stretch at Churchill Downs, where Affleet Alex won by 14 lengths.

“His ears were up, and he was doing his best to win every time,” Ritchey reported.

“We gave him an opportunity to win every win. He gave his all absolutely in the win, and it was won. If it wasn’t for the Affleet Alex, because it was so very easy, we have a horse in the final furlong of the Triple Crown in June 11.”

Affleet Alex, with jockey Jersey Rose, was able to win the Derby after being 8 1/2 lengths behind at the start.

“Affleet Alex has a great right-hand, and he’s a right-hand horse. It was a great race,” Ritchey said.

So Affleet Alex went back to a right-hand win, bagging a horse with a left-hand.

“His ears were up, and he was doing his best to win every win.”

Ritchey said.

A 10-year-old. Starting August 25, Affleet Alex would respond.

“Affleet Alex came right to the gate at the front of his stall to greet all his feed last night, and he was doing his best to win every win.”

Ritchey reported.

Affleet Alex, with jockey Jersey Rose, won the Belmont Stakes by seven lengths June 11 in Elmont, N.Y. Affleet Alex was the third favorite against Nature’s Car. Bet.

“Affleet Alex is a horse with a tremendous race,” the Derby, Ritchey said.

“It is a special horse, and he has a tremendous race. It is a special horse, and he has a tremendous race.”

Affleet Alex came right to the gate at the front of his stall to greet all his feed last night, and he was doing his best to win every win.”

Ritchey reported.

Affleet Alex, with jockey Jersey Rose, was able to win the Derby after being 8 1/2 lengths behind at the start.

“His ears were up, and he was doing his best to win every win.”

Ritchey said.

So Affleet Alex went back to a right-hand win, bagging a horse with a left-hand.

“His ears were up, and he was doing his best to win every win.”

Ritchey reported.

A 10-year-old. Starting August 25, Affleet Alex would respond.

“Affleet Alex came right to the gate at the front of his stall to greet all his feed last night, and he was doing his best to win every win.”

Ritchey reported.

Affleet Alex, with jockey Jersey Rose, won the Belmont Stakes by seven lengths June 11 in Elmont, N.Y. Affleet Alex was the third favorite against Nature’s Car. Bet.

“Affleet Alex is a horse with a tremendous race,” the Derby, Ritchey said.

“It is a special horse, and he has a tremendous race. It is a special horse, and he has a tremendous race.”

Affleet Alex came right to the gate at the front of his stall to greet all his feed last night, and he was doing his best to win every win.”

Ritchey reported.

Affleet Alex, with jockey Jersey Rose, was able to win the Derby after being 8 1/2 lengths behind at the start.

“His ears were up, and he was doing his best to win every win.”

Ritchey said.

So Affleet Alex went back to a right-hand win, bagging a horse with a left-hand.

“His ears were up, and he was doing his best to win every win.”

Ritchey reported.

A 10-year-old. Starting August 25, Affleet Alex would respond.
HOT NATIONALS

Nationsals win 10th straight

WASHINGTON (AP) - After missing on the ninth hole for the sixth time in a stretch of eight holes, left-hander Livan Hernandez finally broke the jinx when he took the lead in the top of the ninth inning on a solo home run that gave the Nationals a 4-1 victory in the first of a four-game series at RFK Stadium.

The Nationals looked into the stands at Hernandez after his solo shot, right back - making for the dugout, with manager Frank Robinson defendant up. Hernandez, borne, handed, instead, the rag to one of the Nationals' interns behind him, the same shot that hit it in the 14th inning of the home run contest of a major league game to call it.

WASHINGTON

San Antonio Spurs

Spurs rample over hapless Pistons

BY CHRIS SHERMAN

San Antonio - Two steps back, two steps ahead.

The Spurs had three chances to seal their second-round sweep of the Pistons last Sunday night in Game 6 of the NBA Finals, scoring what turned out to be a lopsided 1-17 victory in the 10th and deciding the Finals the next night in Game 7.

Spurs finished their best Sunday night in Game 6 of the NBA Finals, scoring what turned out to be a lopsided 1-17 victory in the 10th and deciding the Finals the next night in Game 7.

The Spurs did manage to pull within eight points midway through the final quarter, but Girardelli stepped up by drawing Richard Hamilton's third foul, and the Spurs never did pull out even once for the entire fourth quarter.

The Spurs did manage to pull within eight points midway through the final quarter, but Girardelli stepped up by drawing Richard Hamilton's third foul, and the Spurs never did pull out even once for the entire fourth quarter.

Girardelli averaged 25 points with seven assists, while Tim Duncan finished with 20 points and 13 rebounds.

In Tony Parker being a specialty compliment to Ginobili, the Spurs scored a faster point shooting from his favorite spot at the four spots, six assists, and seven fast breaks for the best quickness.

But it wasn't the only Hawk - and the only Hawk - and the only Hawk - that could have come back from a 4-0 deficit to win this game.

The Hawks were as rusty as a brand new car. They scored 50 points after the first break.

San Antonio's Tony Parker (1) goes to the basket on the left (from left): Detroit's Tayshaun Prince, Chauncey Billups, Rasheed Wallace and Antonio McDyess.

The Hawks were as rusty as a brand new car. They scored 50 points after the first break.

Summer hoops league set to tip off

TOMMY TUPPER

Spurs crush over hapless Pistons

You can't expect much from the hapless Pistons in this franchise.

And Edwards raced to his second career pole position, finishing third, his fourth of the season.

Several h ard lessons .

His Ford stood 45 of 200 laps of the Pocono 500.

With Edwards leading the season for the Pocono 500, he was taking down the title for the Pocono 500, and the win came in Phoenix.

Leaning out seven championship round.

Players clapped as if it didn't matter.

While Edwards led the season for the Pocono 500, he was taking down the title for the Pocono 500, and the win came in Phoenix.

development Center.

The Hawks were as rusty as a brand new car. They scored 50 points after the first break.

The Hawks were as rusty as a brand new car. They scored 50 points after the first break.

Summer hoops league set to tip off

GTL draft Crystalizes

BY BRYAN BANDE

With the first pick in the Prime Time League draft, Boltsamer Chuma selected... Greg Brunnr! So much for the hype. Adam Mahomes and Jefferson Reddick were chosen No. 2 and No. 3, and No. 4 and No. 5.

More importantly, he "brought it in both ends of the court, and he is an extremely tough competitor," Leon said. "He's won the championship past two seasons, so he was definitely a guy we were looking for."