Hatch stumps in Iowa City

By MEGAN SKARSTEN
megansk@iowamagazine.com

After formally announcing his bid for the Iowa gubernatorial seat Monday, a Des Moines businessman stumped in Iowa City, albeit in a laid-back fashion.

For Sen. Jack Hatch, D-Denver, a longtime real-estate developer, the campaign stop at Bob’s Your Uncle, 2208 N. Dodge St., created an opportunity to speak to the public on his decision to run for the Democratic nomination for governor as well as introducing several opinions.

UI sorority numbers shoot up

By LILY ABRINSTEIN
labin@uiowa.edu

In line with a yearly pattern, Hubbard Park was crowded Monday afternoon with current and prospective University of Iowa greek life members, signaling continued growth for the University of Iowa’s sorority community.

In all, the UI Panhellenic Council — one of four greek council chapters on campus — presented 672 fall formal recruitment bids. The largest single group run to meet their respective sisters, eagerly clutching their much-awaited chapter invitations.

In 2005 to this fall, the number of women who have joined chapters in full formal recruitment has more than doubled.

In 2012, 593 received fall formal invitations to join, up from last year’s 872. However, 51 of those didn’t show up at orientation, lowering the number of women who have joined chapters in full formal recruitment this fall.

In the Sept. 2 fall formal process, 907 women had signed up with intentions of joining, up from last year’s 907 women who had received fall formal bids.

Hatch to create new law limiting loitering downtown

By REBECCA MORIN
rmorin@iowamagazine.com

The City Council has approved a new law that drastically changes loitering policies in the city’s core.

On a 6-1 vote Tuesday evening, the council passed and adopted the new ordinance that will put strict limitations on several activities that are common downtown. City Councilor Jim Throgmorton cast the dissenting vote.

“I’m not against homelessness, they don’t frighten me, and I’m not against poverty, they don’t frighten me, either,” City Councilor Dennis Kinney said. “What frightens me is the behavior of some people.”

“Some people don’t frighten me, and I’m not against homelessness, they don’t frighten me, either,” Nancy Bird, the executive director of the Downtown District, said. “I’m not against homelessness, what we’re trying to do is provide a tool to law enforcement and our community policeman strategy.”

Throgmorton noted that the problems associated with homelessness, such as mental illness, drug addiction, and alcoholism, don’t frighten him, but the problems associated with poverty, they don’t frighten him, either.

In another attempt to revise the initial proposal, Throgmorton proposed to add four new clauses; however, he opted to revoke his proposals.

The new ordinance was also passed and adopted with a 6-1 vote that authorizes some people to do some activities that are common downtown.

“Change is coming now that the Iowa City City Council has approved a new law that drastically changes loitering policies in the city’s core.”

Hatch to create new law limiting loitering downtown

By REBECCA MORIN
rmorin@iowamagazine.com

The City Council passed an ordinance on Tuesday night that will limit the loitering activity in people downtown.

On a 6-1 vote Tuesday evening, the council passed and adopted the new ordinance that will put strict limitations on several activities that are common downtown. City Councilor Jim Throgmorton cast the dissenting vote.

“I’m not against homelessness, they don’t frighten me, and I’m not against poverty, they don’t frighten me, either,” City Councilor Dennis Kinney said. “What frightens me is the behavior of some people.”

“Some people don’t frighten me, and I’m not against homelessness, they don’t frighten me, either,” Nancy Bird, the executive director of the Downtown District, said. “I’m not against homelessness, what we’re trying to do is provide a tool to law enforcement and our community policeman strategy.”

Throgmorton noted that the problems associated with homelessness, such as mental illness, drug addiction, and alcoholism, don’t frighten him, but the problems associated with poverty, they don’t frighten him, either.

In another attempt to revise the initial proposal, Throgmorton proposed to add four new clauses; however, he opted to revoke his proposals.

The new ordinance was also passed and adopted with a 6-1 vote that authorizes some people to do some activities that are common downtown.

“Change is coming now that the Iowa City City Council has approved a new law that drastically changes loitering policies in the city’s core.”

Hatch to create new law limiting loitering downtown

By REBECCA MORIN
rmorin@iowamagazine.com

The City Council passed an ordinance on Tuesday night that will limit the loitering activity in people downtown.

On a 6-1 vote Tuesday evening, the council passed and adopted the new ordinance that will put strict limitations on several activities that are common downtown. City Councilor Jim Throgmorton cast the dissenting vote.

“I’m not against homelessness, they don’t frighten me, and I’m not against poverty, they don’t frighten me, either,” City Councilor Dennis Kinney said. “What frightens me is the behavior of some people.”

“Some people don’t frighten me, and I’m not against homelessness, they don’t frighten me, either,” Nancy Bird, the executive director of the Downtown District, said. “I’m not against homelessness, what we’re trying to do is provide a tool to law enforcement and our community policeman strategy.”

Throgmorton noted that the problems associated with homelessness, such as mental illness, drug addiction, and alcoholism, don’t frighten him, but the problems associated with poverty, they don’t frighten him, either.

In another attempt to revise the initial proposal, Throgmorton proposed to add four new clauses; however, he opted to revoke his proposals.

The new ordinance was also passed and adopted with a 6-1 vote that authorizes some people to do some activities that are common downtown.

“Change is coming now that the Iowa City City Council has approved a new law that drastically changes loitering policies in the city’s core.”

Hatch to create new law limiting loitering downtown

By REBECCA MORIN
rmorin@iowamagazine.com

The City Council passed an ordinance on Tuesday night that will limit the loitering activity in people downtown.

On a 6-1 vote Tuesday evening, the council passed and adopted the new ordinance that will put strict limitations on several activities that are common downtown. City Councilor Jim Throgmorton cast the dissenting vote.

“I’m not against homelessness, they don’t frighten me, and I’m not against poverty, they don’t frighten me, either,” City Councilor Dennis Kinney said. “What frightens me is the behavior of some people.”

“Some people don’t frighten me, and I’m not against homelessness, they don’t frighten me, either,” Nancy Bird, the executive director of the Downtown District, said. “I’m not against homelessness, what we’re trying to do is provide a tool to law enforcement and our community policeman strategy.”

Throgmorton noted that the problems associated with homelessness, such as mental illness, drug addiction, and alcoholism, don’t frighten him, but the problems associated with poverty, they don’t frighten him, either.

In another attempt to revise the initial proposal, Throgmorton proposed to add four new clauses; however, he opted to revoke his proposals.

The new ordinance was also passed and adopted with a 6-1 vote that authorizes some people to do some activities that are common downtown.

“Change is coming now that the Iowa City City Council has approved a new law that drastically changes loitering policies in the city’s core.”
Council OKs land deal

The Iowa City Council approved an offer to purchase city-owned land, which could result in a new high-rise, on a unanimous vote.

By REBECCA ROBIN

– Several high-rise projects are underway in downtown Iowa City, and a city owned container has stepped forward with high ambitions — and may be in the works to plans in the works.

With a quick 7-0 vote, the Iowa City Council approved an offer of a purchase of a city-owned land located on South Dubuque Street.

All members of the council deferred comments, and no public discussion was offered.

The Synergy Square Associates, which is composed of the city developers, has submitted a $270,000 offer to purchase long-vacant property on the south- east corner of the downtown.

Kevin Digmann, a partner in Synergy Square Associates and the general manager for the Old Capit town Center, has not returned phone calls or emails since Sunday. Repeated attempts at telephone the mayor's office on Sunday. "However, no specific development proposal is being held. The offer includes the property would be revedeveloped in conjunction with the redevelopment of the Mid-Point real estate property, which is adjacent to the property for up consideration."

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.

"We are simply trying to satisfy the city's needs so that Mid-Point plan so that it can move forward, " Digmann said. "The city will then,Moenn said, "The city's parcel to add the city's parcel to
veloped in conjunction with the Mid.
In 2012, the number of undergraduate students numbered at 302,792, up from 296,440 in 2011. Both Iowa State University and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, for example, have also seen their undergraduate numbers grow, according to this trend.

Although ISU’s official enrollment numbers for 2013 were 1,023 women, said Schacht said as of 2 p.m. Tuesday, 344 men had signed bids at the 17 trials that had occurred that day night. Billy Bolin, director of greek affairs and assistant dean of personal possessions, said one of the most important things he has learned since 1983 is that, “I can’t say we’re not designing it for the student, as well.”

For UI freshman Katie Throgmorton, who has worked at the Center for Student Life at the UI.

“[Women] thought of being a CEO, his position as a CEO, his name out there and try to get his word out,” he said. “We could benefit greatly from being a CEO, his name out there and try to get his word out.”

“The students are coming to us with a request,” he said. “We have to make sure we take care of them and take care of them well. A student should have the right to say he can’t afford to take care of them. I should be able to go somewhere else.”

The Panhelcnic Council welcomed 672 women this year, a jump from the 595 new members last year.

The Multicultural Greek Council, the fastest growing council, has increased its community from 2 groups in 2009 to 8 since 2009.

Following the trend at a slower rate, the Interfraternity Council has increased its numbers from 334 to 344 this year.

The Panhelcnic Council welcomed 672 women this year, a jump from the 595 new members last year.

The Multicultural Greek Council, the fastest growing council, has increased its community from 2 groups in 2009 to 8 since 2009.

Following the trend at a slower rate, the Interfraternity Council has increased its numbers from 334 to 344 this year.

THE DAILY IOWAN  DAILYIOWAN.COM  WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2013

 mientras el campus de la universidad ha estado creciendo consistentemente, aumentando en el último conjunto de diez años, y el UI no es diferente.

A couple of years, and the nation over the last century has been growing rapidly. Nationally, the number of undergraduate students grew from 15.1 percent to 35.5 percent from 2000 to 2010, according to the National Panhelcnic Conference Annual Report, which includes 26 national and international organizations.

Terry Branstad, who launched the staff of Johnson County Local Homeless Services, has announced a wide campaign.

One local church voiced its concerns and suggested alternatives that should be addressed rather than the ordinale at the meeting. “I as a member of Priesthood board, says Trinity does not stand to work with, the Interfraternity Council, with agencies working with homeless people to find not just a temporary fix,” said Phil Kemp, a member of Trinity Episcopal Church.

BY THE NUMBERS

Greek Life Recruitment 2013

University of Iowa, Multicultural, and Interfraternity council meetings are following a national trend toward rapid growth in their membership.

13.3%

300%

2.9%

Increase

The Multicultural Greek Council, the fastest growing council, has increased its community from 2 groups in 2009 to 8 since 2009.

Following the trend at a slower rate, the Interfraternity Council has increased its numbers from 334 to 344 this year.

I feel like there were more pressure to get a bid there this year than others,” she said.

News 3

Report, which includes 26 national and international organizations.

When membership numbers for 2013 were released, the staff of Johnson County Local Homeless Services has launched a program to discuss the motion at a work session. Throgmorton voted for the motion to be discussed at a work session.

In a recent police Officier David Schwendt, who has launched a program that would allow some individuals caught engaging in the prohibited activities to participate in community service to work off a fine. One local church raised its concerns and suggested alternatives that should be addressed rather than the ordinale at the meeting. “I as a member of Priesthood board, says Trinity does not stand to work with, the Interfraternity Council, with agencies working with homeless people to find not just a temporary fix,” said Phil Kemp, a member of Trinity Episcopal Church.

The Multicultural Greek Council, the fastest growing council, has increased its community from 2 groups in 2009 to 8 since 2009.

Following the trend at a slower rate, the Interfraternity Council has increased its numbers from 334 to 344 this year.

I feel like there were more pressure to get a bid there this year than others,” she said.

News 3

Report, which includes 26 national and international organizations.

When membership numbers for 2013 were released, the staff of Johnson County Local Homeless Services has launched a program to discuss the motion at a work session. Throgmorton voted for the motion to be discussed at a work session.

In a recent police Officier David Schwendt, who has launched a program that would allow some individuals caught engaging in the prohibited activities to participate in community service to work off a fine. One local church raised its concerns and suggested alternatives that should be addressed rather than the ordinale at the meeting. “I as a member of Priesthood board, says Trinity does not stand to work with, the Interfraternity Council, with agencies working with homeless people to find not just a temporary fix,” said Phil Kemp, a member of Trinity Episcopal Church.
COLUMN

Hating Miss America

O ver the past several decades, pageants have grown in popularity among women, but they were widely considered cliche, sissy, and “too girlie.” Now, they are considered sexy, and today, they are more popular than ever before. The pageant is a ritual that celebrates the culture of America. Miss America is a beauty pageant that is held annually in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

One of the most important aspects of Miss America is that it is a platform for women to showcase their talents and abilities. Miss America winners are often referred to as “Miss America” and “Miss America Universe.” The pageant has a long history of promoting women’s rights and equality.

In the past, many critics have accused Miss America of being sexist and promoting unrealistic standards of beauty. However, in recent years, Miss America has made significant efforts to address these concerns. The pageant has introduced new categories and initiatives, such as the “Be True to Yourself” campaign, which encourages women to be confident and authentic.

Critics of Miss America argue that the pageant promotes an unrealistic beauty standard and is elitist. They also argue that the pageant is a form of objectification and that it promotes a narrow definition of femininity. However, defenders of Miss America argue that the pageant is a platform for women to showcase their talents and abilities and that it promotes confidence and self-esteem.

In conclusion, Miss America is a pageant that continues to be debated and criticized. However, it is also a pageant that continues to be enjoyed by millions of people around the world and is a platform for women to showcase their talents and abilities. Whether you love or hate Miss America, the pageant is an integral part of American culture.
McNeil: It’s like picking your favorite child. The first set is fun-loving, giddy. “Weest and Shout” I really like the psychedelic British Invasion, when the Beatles guys weren’t quite completely out of their minds, but past the ‘She Loves You’ phase and learning how to write songs. They were honing their craft, and going to start as a band, as progressive and realize my voice is put into every single note. Some groups don’t have the look, it doesn’t matter if I’m on stage or not, but you should care whether I’m on stage or not. I’m here.” He goes off a little shoot out and is himself. As we progress into their careers, John gets a little psychedel- ic, so you try to act like you’re not quite there, and later on, he doesn’t really look at Paul and is just like, “Man, I want to get out of here” as the Beatles disconnected and was splitting. Those are my three areas of John. It’s a lot of fun.

McNeil: Do you have a fa- vorite Beatles song or album?

McNeil: It’s like pick- ing your favorite child. The first set is fun-lov- ing, giddy. “Weest and Shout” I really like the psychedelic British Invasion, when the Beatles guys weren’t quite completely out of their minds, but past the ‘She Loves You’ phase and learning how to write songs. They were honing their craft, and going to start as a band, as progressive and realize my voice is put into every single note. For example, if someone tells me to dance with a girl to a Beatles song. When you’re dubbed the best Beatles tribute band, it puts us that much fur- ther from our goal. I told the guys, we’ll be work- ing on this until we are the Beatles — and how long that’s going to be? Forever. So it’s always going to be working.

McNeil: People ask, “Do you have a CD?” We say, “Go buy Abbey Road, that’s a good CD.” But for some reason, there’s some desire to see how we close can we come on a record, which I under- stand. So we’re releasing some stuff on iTunes. In recent years, there’s been a Beatles group on the [audiences] back to the fame. They may be pur- chased at the Englert Box Office or online at www.englert.org.

McNeil: Getting in- to character isn’t the problem. Getting out of character is. For all of us, he had a little bit of an attitude because he had lost his parents so early. He has that “I don’t care whether I’m on stage or not, but you should care that I’m here.” He goes off a little shoot out and is himself. As we progress into their careers, John gets a little psychedel- ic, so you try to act like you’re not quite there, and later on, he doesn’t really look at Paul and is just like, “Man, I want to get out of here” as the Beatles disconnected and was splitting. Those are my three areas of John. It’s a lot of fun.

McNeil: It’s like pick- ing your favorite child. The first set is fun-lov- ing, giddy. “Weest and Shout” I really like the psychedelic British Invasion, when the Beatles guys weren’t quite completely out of their minds, but past the ‘She Loves You’ phase and learning how to write songs. They were honing their craft, and going to start as a band, as progressive and realize my voice is put into every single note. For example, if someone tells me to dance with a girl to a Beatles song. When you’re dubbed the best Beatles tribute band, it puts us that much fur- ther from our goal. I told the guys, we’ll be work- ing on this until we are the Beatles — and how long that’s going to be? Forever. So it’s always going to be working.

McNeil: People ask, “Do you have a CD?” We say, “Go buy Abbey Road, that’s a good CD.” But for some reason, there’s some desire to see how we close can we come on a record, which I under- stand. So we’re releasing some stuff on iTunes. In recent years, there’s been a Beatles group on the [audiences] back to the fame. They may be pur- purchased at the Englert Box Office or online at www.englert.org.

McNeil: Getting in- to character isn’t the problem. Getting out of character is. For all of us, he had a little bit of an attitude because he had lost his parents so early. He has that “I don’t care whether I’m on stage or not, but you should care that I’m here.” He goes off a little shoot out and is himself. As we progress into their careers, John gets a little psychedel- ic, so you try to act like you’re not quite there, and later on, he doesn’t really look at Paul and is just like, “Man, I want to get out of here” as the Beatles disconnected and was splitting. Those are my three areas of John. It’s a lot of fun.

McNeil: It’s like pick- ing your favorite child. The first set is fun-lov- ing, giddy. “Weest and Shout” I really like the psychedelic British Invasion, when the Beatles guys weren’t quite completely out of their minds, but past the ‘She Loves You’ phase and learning how to write songs. They were honing their craft, and going to start as a band, as progressive and realize my voice is put into every single note. For example, if someone tells me to dance with a girl to a Beatles song. When you’re dubbed the best Beatles tribute band, it puts us that much fur- ther from our goal. I told the guys, we’ll be work- ing on this until we are the Beatles — and how long that’s going to be? Forever. So it’s always going to be working.

McNeil: People ask, “Do you have a CD?” We say, “Go buy Abbey Road, that’s a good CD.” But for some reason, there’s some desire to see how we close can we come on a record, which I under- stand. So we’re releasing some stuff on iTunes. In recent years, there’s been a Beatles group on the [audiences] back to the fame. They may be pur- purchased at the Englert Box Office or online at www.englert.org.

McNeil: Getting in- to character isn’t the problem. Getting out of character is. For all of us, he had a little bit of an attitude because he had lost his parents so early. He has that “I don’t care whether I’m on stage or not, but you should care that I’m here.” He goes off a little shoot out and is himself. As we progress into their careers, John gets a little psychedel- ic, so you try to act like you’re not quite there, and later on, he doesn’t really look at Paul and is just like, “Man, I want to get out of here” as the Beatles disconnected and was splitting. Those are my three areas of John. It’s a lot of fun.

McNeil: It’s like pick- ing your favorite child. The first set is fun-lov- ing, giddy. “Weest and Shout” I really like the psychedelic British Invasion, when the Beatles guys weren’t quite completely out of their minds, but past the ‘She Loves You’ phase and learning how to write songs. They were honing their craft, and going to start as a band, as progressive and realize my voice is put into every single note. For example, if someone tells me to dance with a girl to a Beatles song. When you’re dubbed the best Beatles tribute band, it puts us that much fur- ther from our goal. I told the guys, we’ll be work- ing on this until we are the Beatles — and how long that’s going to be? Forever. So it’s always going to be working.

McNeil: People ask, “Do you have a CD?” We say, “Go buy Abbey Road, that’s a good CD.” But for some reason, there’s some desire to see how we close can we come on a record, which I under- stand. So we’re releasing some stuff on iTunes. In recent years, there’s been a Beatles group on the [audiences] back to the fame. They may be pur- purchased at the Englert Box Office or online at www.englert.org.

McNeil: Getting in- to character isn’t the problem. Getting out of character is. For all of us, he had a little bit of an attitude because he had lost his parents so early. He has that “I don’t care whether I’m on stage or not, but you should care that I’m here.” He goes off a little shoot out and is himself. As we progress into their careers, John gets a little psychedel- ic, so you try to act like you’re not quite there, and later on, he doesn’t really look at Paul and is just like, “Man, I want to get out of here” as the Beatles disconnected and was splitting. Those are my three areas of John. It’s a lot of fun.

McNeil: It’s like pick- ing your favorite child. The first set is fun-lov- ing, giddy. “Weest and Shout” I really like the psychedelic British Invasion, when the Beatles guys weren’t quite completely out of their minds, but past the ‘She Loves You’ phase and learning how to write songs. They were honing their craft, and going to start as a band, as progressive and realize my voice is put into every single note. For example, if someone tells me to dance with a girl to a Beatles song. When you’re dubbed the best Beatles tribute band, it puts us that much fur- ther from our goal. I told the guys, we’ll be work- ing on this until we are the Beatles — and how long that’s going to be? Forever. So it’s always going to be working.

McNeil: People ask, “Do you have a CD?” We say, “Go buy Abbey Road, that’s a good CD.” But for some reason, there’s some desire to see how we close can we come on a record, which I under- stand. So we’re releasing some stuff on iTunes. In recent years, there’s been a Beatles group on the [audiences] back to the fame. They may be pur- purchased at the Englert Box Office or online at www.englert.org.

McNeil: Getting in- to character isn’t the problem. Getting out of character is. For all of us, he had a little bit of an attitude because he had lost his parents so early. He has that “I don’t care whether I’m on stage or not, but you should care that I’m here.” He goes off a little shoot out and is himself. As we progress into their careers, John gets a little psychedel- ic, so you try to act like you’re not quite there, and later on, he doesn’t really look at Paul and is just like, “Man, I want to get out of here” as the Beatles disconnected and was splitting. Those are my three areas of John. It’s a lot of fun.

McNeil: It’s like pick- ing your favorite child. The first set is fun-lov- ing, giddy. “Weest and Shout” I really like the psychedelic British Invasion, when the Beatles guys weren’t quite completely out of their minds, but past the ‘She Loves You’ phase and learning how to write songs. They were honing their craft, and going to start as a band, as progressive and realize my voice is put into every single note. For example, if someone tells me to dance with a girl to a Beatles song. When you’re dubbed the best Beatles tribute band, it puts us that much fur- ther from our goal. I told the guys, we’ll be work- ing on this until we are the Beatles — and how long that’s going to be? Forever. So it’s always going to be working.

McNeil: People ask, “Do you have a CD?” We say, “Go buy Abbey Road, that’s a good CD.” But for some reason, there’s some desire to see how we close can we come on a record, which I under- stand. So we’re releasing some stuff on iTunes. In recent years, there’s been a Beatles group on the [audiences] back to the fame. They may be pur- purchased at the Englert Box Office or online at www.englert.org.
22 good names for cover bands composed entirely of little people:

• The Hummyngbyrds
• The (Compact) Cars
• The Itty Bitty Dirt Band
• Earth, Wind, and

thanks Aaron Hall, Mike O for contributing

• Diet Quiet Riot
• Lower Kansas
• Threreigner
• 3-11

Hunt's Check out u Dining Guide

THE DAILY IOWAN      DAILYIOWAN.COM     WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2013

W254 Adler
City University of Hong Kong, 3:30 p.m., Cultural Relevance in International

Fan Bai, Anatomy/Cell Biology, 1 p.m., role in cardiac function and disease using secretory vesicles, “Charles Yeaman, Anato Sec6 specifies membrane trafficking polar

-
mental Seminar

Anatomy and Cell Biology Depart-

Project Art: Dave Burrell perfor-
noon, S126 Pappajohn Business Building

••

•••

••

••

••

10-11 a.m.
8-9 a.m.
Morning Drive

Taurus (April 20-May 20) Work with your peers, and you will gain popularity and advancement. A day trip or conference will add to your self-esteem and financial, or medical matters. In an awkward position, and you will have to be quick if Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Don’t make physical alterations or get involved in a lifestyle that can lead to poor association. Enjoy the rest of the week, and you will not need to worry about your financial status.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) List your concerns, and discuss your intentions, and you will get worthwhile suggestions that will benefit you when it comes to contracts or agreements that influence your income. A relationship can be altered and a promise made.
Going beyond gender to basic humanity

TransCollaborations is a local organization wanting to increase transgender justice and spread information throughout the community.

By JULIA DAVIS

July 11

When the topic of transgender issues comes into conversation, a vast majority of society is unaware of the extent of these issues or even what it means to be transgender. It is a first place for transgender artist and community, hosted Chica gan organization whose goal is to increase transgender justice and spread information throughout the Iowa City community.

Going beyond gender to basic humanity

The Iowa City Public Library, 123 including the core. According to Iowa City police

Because of the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution, and

Devinity Reynolds, 22, and Undre McClure, 20, were charged Monday with

The two confronted the subjects

Upon arresting them, officers

The two men were

Two local men charged with

According to Iowa City police

A man who has been

They decided to look through

The Daily Iowan

Local police celebrate Constitution Day

In honor of the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution, and the Constitution is a living document, rather than a historical one, because what was relevant at the time the document was written may no longer hold the same value today. "Remember, the Constitution is based on changing society," she said. "We are not just rewriting it. We are not hold the same value today."

"We had a lot of reactions from the people who came out as trans, that person, and not

Devinity Reynolds, 22, and Undre McClure allegedly

Two Iowa City men have been

"Who knew it was so important?"

Iowa City Heart Center, PC, and

Mercy Iowa City are pleased to welcome

Abdullah A. Alwahdani, MD

The Mercy Iowa City Heart Center and Program

Mercy Iowa City

BRIAN BRADY

Iowa City Heart Center, PC

For more information on Dr. Alwahdani or the Mercy Iowa City Heart Center and Program, please visit www.iowacity.org/transit Iowa's goalkeeper Nicole Mrkonic pace for a night that saw sides shoot. “Alex saw me, I was open and sent it into the top from about 25 yards out the ball right — found midfielder Alex Melin, the ball and dished it to S..."
On-Site Production Supervisor

Setting is a bilingual (English/Spanish) on-site supervisor for the station’s large external packaging facility in Iowa City, IA. The candidate for this position must be a team player, an excellent communicator, one that is flexible, adaptable and experienced in required mindsets. Conditions will also have prior manufacturing experience, and complete data entry and operational knowledge. Experience in staffing and prior supervising of employees would be a plus. No accepting resumes or applications on hand at the time. Phone Screen and Background Check are required.

Contact: Key Resources, Inc.
2500 Healy Blvd., Iowa City, IA 52240
(319) 544-9292
Key Resources Inc.

Attention Production Workers

We Want YOU to Join Our Team!

Full & Part-Time Opportunities
1st & 2nd Shifts in Iowa City, IA!

- Earn Up To $12.00/HR.
- Weekly Paychecks
- Alternative Shifts Available
- On-Campus Orientation
- On-Site and On-Call
- Clean & Safe Work Environment

Must be 18 yrs. old and able to work the required shift. Duration, details to be discussed.

Apply online at http://jobs.smjobs.com or call us at 563-284-5740.

Shelter House - Crisis Services.

Shelter House is currently hiring for our 24-hour crisis hotline.

Selling Your Car for $50

CALL 319-288-9090 TO SELL YOUR CAR

Call 319-288-9090 to sell your car for $50. We sell any car, any condition.

DIY Calendar Blank

Mail or bring to The Daily Iowan, Adler Journalism Building, Room 141. Deadline is Monday of publication by 5 p.m. for publication in the following Wednesday’s edition. Entries may be edited for length and in general will not be published more than once. Winners of commercial advertising will not be accepted. Please print clearly.

E-mail: dailyiowanclassifieds@gmail.com

Diary of a Wimpy Kid:

Great Expectations

Don’t miss the new release of the diary of a wimpy kid.

T-GO 15

NEW PRICE, NEW OPTIONS, NEW YOU

DIY Calendar Blank

Mail or bring to The Daily Iowan, Adler Journalism Building, Room 141. Deadline is Monday of publication by 5 p.m. for publication in the following Wednesday’s edition. Entries may be edited for length and in general will not be published more than once. Winners of commercial advertising will not be accepted. Please print clearly.

E-mail: dailyiowanclassifieds@gmail.com

diary of a wimpy kid.
Good news, bad news for field hockey

The Hawkeye hockey team received both good and bad news on Monday. The good news for the Iowa team was that forward Vanai Payne of Farmington, Minn., officially accepted her scholarship offer. Payne, the former resident of North Vanouver, British Columbia, is the skiing sister of Iowa's Bo Pelini. Payne is the first female athlete in the world to have a 22-goal punch in her first six games. The Hawkeyes' 1-0 overtime win over Bethel College on Wednesday was the first time a public university in this country has had a female athlete achieve the feat. Payne finished with two goals and four assists on the night.

Men's golf clinches big at sixth place

The Iowa men's golf team clinched second at the NCAA Central Regional Conference Challenge at Stillwater Golf Club on Monday. The Hawkeyes carded a 308 (12) during Monday's round, scoring a 219 (70) in the final round. The Hawkeyes finished second in the tournament with a 527 (4) overall, finishing four strokes behind the second-place Arizona team. "We really illustrated the best characteristics of Iowa golf this week," said head coach Sean Casey. "Every player was off the tee and in the fairway, and they really encouraged the rest of us. And I was so excited to see that Little Birdies have put nine of our spots on the floor." The Hawkeyes remain in 13th at the National Championships in Dallas.

— by Denny Payne

DRY RUN

The Iowa soccer team had a scare from Northern Iowa but survived to end the regular season with a 2-1 overtime victory. Iowa forward Lana Bonekemper runs for ball in the Iowa Soccer Complex on Tuesday. Iowa defeated Northern Iowa, 2-1. (The Daily Iowan/Jayson Ritthoch)

By BYNAN PROSECO

Pelini tries to rebound

A perfectly-timed cut from Nebraska head coach Bo Pelini following a 2011 game against Ohio State was re-released by Deadspin.com on Monday in the hopes of eliciting a slow clap from the Husker fan base. I again apologize to anyone with the team.

— by Rya McLaughlin

NOTEBOOK

We’re back to ‘basic Iowa’

Iowa forward Lance Brakewly makes his way to the sideline during the first quarter of Iowa 27-21 victory over Iowa State in the Twin Towers of Turf 14 (The Daily Iowan/Max Wermuth)

By BEN ROSS

Iowa’s offensive line is embracing the simplicity of O-line play in Week 3.

"It’s back to 22, a little bit lower. We picked up a few spots in the polls to No. 10 after being ranked No. 12 Penn State and No. 13 Ohio State," said head coach Bo Pelini following a 2011 game against Ohio State. "But then, we let down our fans. We have to give credit to [the opposing team’s defense] because of her ability to put pressure on the quarterback. That lined up in the shotgun, with three or maybe even four wide receivers, waiting to catch a Jake Rudock pass. 'That’s just what Iowa football does,'” Rainey said. "And I just timed it before I finished it." The honor for the native of North Vancouver, B.C., Canada, was earned with the help of a 2-goal showing in the Hawkeyes’ 27-21 victory over Iowa State in the Twin Towers of Turf 14.

"Very quietly, those guys are both doing a job," Iowa head coach Kirk Ferentz said of his fullbacks. "They’re earned our confidence. You know, back in the spring I felt really good about both guys, and they’re doing a nice job. It goes as a really nice one-two punch, and we know we can count on them." Iowa’s offensive line is embracing the simplicity of O-line play in Week 3.

"They have the ability to put pressure on the quarterback," said head coach Bo Pelini following a 2011 game against Ohio State. "We really illustrated the best characteristics of Iowa golf this week," said head coach Sean Casey. "Every player was off the tee and in the fairway, and they really encouraged the rest of us. And I was so excited to see that Little Birdies have put nine of our spots on the floor." The Hawkeyes remain in 13th at the National Championships in Dallas.

Soccer escapes Panthers

The Hawkeyes survived a scare from Northern Iowa.

By JACOB SHEVRY

The Iowa soccer team kept its undefeated season alive Tuesday night, defeating Northern Iowa, 2-1, in overtime.

"It was an interesting game," head coach Mike Rice said. "It was probably a little frustrating on the attacking end. And you have to give credit to [the Panthers]. They did what they do, and we failed."

Iowa's first goal of the match came from midfield-er Austie Marrero. In the 79th minute, senior Ashley Catrell beat her defender up the left side of the field, then passed across her body to the cen- ter of the box and found Thomas, who finished in the left corner of the net. "Ashley did a perfect cross, and it kind of went through everybody," Thomp- son said. "And I just timed it before I finished it." Any celebration of the goal was quickly put to bed — the Panthers responded with a goal of their own in the 81st minute. At the 78.30 mark of the game, Northern Iowa's Brady Clark took the ball down the left side of the field and chipped a shot over Hawkeye goalkeeper Hannah Clark to tie the game.

"It was almost clasped where we scored the goal you almost saw everybody take a long breath," Rainey said. "But then, we let down for a minute, and then they were able to finish. It be- came a dogfight again." After a few missed goal opportunities for the Hawks, the game headed into overtime. But little joy was said. "And I just timed it before I finished it." The honor for the native of North Vancouver, B.C., Canada, was earned with the help of a 2-goal showing in the Hawkeyes’ 27-21 victory over Iowa State in the Twin Towers of Turf 14. (The Daily Iowan/Max Wermuth)

"That’s just what Iowa football does," Rainey said. "And I just timed it before I finished it."

"Very quietly, those guys are both doing a job," Iowa head coach Kirk Ferentz said of his fullbacks. "They’re earned our confidence. You know, back in the spring I felt really good about both guys, and they’re doing a nice job. It goes as a really nice one-two punch, and we know we can count on them." Iowa’s offensive line is embracing the simplicity of O-line play in Week 3.

For the record, Iowa's Bo Pelini, following a 2011 game against Ohio State, was re-leased by Deadspin.com on Monday in the hopes of eliciting a slow clap from the Husker fan base. I again apologize to anyone with the team.

"I was venting following a series of emotional events which led to this mo-ment. That being said, these comments are in no way indicative of my true feelings," Pelini said. "I love here in Nebraska and feel fortunate to be asso-ociated with such a great university and fine fan base. I again apologize to anyone whom I have offended."

Pelini admitted to believing the con-versation was private and that he was unaware he was being recorded. The source's decision to release the recording two years after it occurred has drawn harsh criticism and back- lash from numerous media outlets. The person who gave Deadspin the re- cording has yet to be identified.

Coming off a demoralizing 43-21 loss against UCLA in which the Huskers were outscored 31-0 in the second half, Pelini addressed his uncertain future Monday night in a statement. "I was venting following a series of emotional events which led to this mo-ment. That being said, these comments are in no way indicative of my true feelings," Pelini said. "I love here in Nebraska and feel fortunate to be asso-ociated with such a great university and fine fan base. I again apologize to anyone whom I have offended."

Pelini admitted to believing the con-versation was private and that he was unaware he was being recorded. The source's decision to release the recording two years after it occurred has drawn harsh criticism and back- lash from numerous media outlets. The person who gave Deadspin the re- cording has yet to be identified.

"You just pressed with the info you have," Pelini told the Lincoln Journal- Star Tuesday night. "I was just trying..."