A Different Story.

GRINNELL FAILS TO SCORE AFTER THE FOURTH INNING.

Saturday was an ideal day for base ball, and the diamond was in almost perfect condition. A large crowd was in attendance anxious to see S. U. I. win, but not at all satisfied that this would be the result of the game.

At 2:30 the two teams arrived upon the field. Grinnell went out to practice first; a few minutes' work showed her men to be quick and active and especially proficient in team work. S. U. I.'s practice did not prove to be quite so encouraging to her supporters.

The result of the toss-up gave Grinnell the field. Lyon was the first man at the plate for S. U. I. He tipped out an easy fly beyond the second baseman, made first safely, and neatly stole second. Hopkins lined out to short, who made an error in throwing to third instead of first. Chambers sent a bouncer over the pitcher, which was not fielded, and Lyon came in. Ingham went out at first; Hopkins tried to steal home, but was caught, and Bailey fumbled, making the third out.

Darby came to bat for Grinnell; he made an easy hit and got second on Chambers' fumble. Kersey went out on a fly to Morris, and Darby came in. Wright made first on an easy fly to center that was muffed. Frisbee sent a grounder between second and third, bringing Wright in. Chambers settled down; the next half dozen balls were puzzlers, and both Spalding and Raley struck out.

In the second inning our men wielded the willow in splendid style. Bevan hit safe for first, Wilson flew out to center, Morris got first on balls, while Herrig fanned. On Lyon's two-bagger both Bevan and Morris came home. Hopkins batted for two bases and Lyon came in. Chambers' two-base hit helped Hopkins to cross the plate, but Chambers himself went out at third.

Sargent came to bat for Grinnell; he made first on Wilson's errors, Meide fanned, and Eldredge went to first on balls. By a neat ruse Sargent was caught at home plate, but Stipp declared it safe. Darby brought in Eldredge by a liner over Bailey's head. Grinnell made no more runs after this, Kersey going out at first, and Wright striking out. The score now stood 5 to 4.

In the third inning Wright pitched good ball, and our men went out in one, two, three order. Morris made a very foolish play in this inning. After three balls had been thrown he turned his back to the plate supposedly for the purpose of "roasting" the pitcher. Wright threw strikes while he was doing this and struck him out. The case was one where the "roaster" was "roasted." Such tricks never win games.

Grinnell succeeded in getting a man on bases, but Chambers, assisted by good fielding, gave them a goose egg also.

The fourth inning increased our score from 5 to 8. This was due to good stick work and base running by Lyons, Chambers and Ingham.

Grinnell brought in one score on Chambers' wild throw; that was all, however, for Darby fanned, Wright went out on a foul fly to Hopkins, and Eldredge was caught at third by a swift throw from first.

In the next four innings—the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth—the teams gave an exhibition of what first class base ball should be. Neither side succeeded in making a score, and the play was sharp and active throughout. S. U. I.'s good work was mostly due to Chambers' pitching and Ingham's catching. While Wright also pitched good ball, Grinnell's excellent team work was more instrumental in holding our score down.

The ninth inning was a fateful one for Grinnell, and gave our team a mortgage on the game. Chambers was first at bat for S. U. I.; he made a safe hit and took first. Ingham got first on balls. Bailey lined a hard one between first and second, bringing Chambers in. Bevan got to first on Frisbee's error. The bases were full now, and the excitement was intense.

Wilson stepped to the plate and placed an easy hit into right which was not fielded. Grinnell became rattled and everybody crossed the plate, making the score 12 to 5. Darby tried hard to steady his men, but did not succeed, and the inning closed with three more runs to our credit, making a total of 15.

Grinnell now came to bat for its last chance, but the handicap was too great to be overcome, Darby fanned; he got first on Ingham's error, Kersey got first on an easy grounder that no one fielded, and Wright flew out. Darby and Kersey were both on bases now, and a two bagger would have pleased them greatly. Frisbee stepped to the plate next, but it was useless; he fanned for the third time. Spalding made a hard hit, but it was nicely caught by Bailey on second. This out retired Grinnell, and made secure the victory for S. U. I.

The positions of the players and the score by innings was as follows:

| GRINNELL. | S. U. I. |
|--------------|------------------------------|
| Darby 1 b | Hopkins |
| Sargent 2 b | Bailey |
| Eldredge 3 b | Bevans |
| Spalding s s | Wilson |
| Meide c f | Morris |
| Raley 1 f | Herrig |
| Kersey r f | Lyon |
| Frisbee c | Ingham |
| Wright p | Chambers |
| SUBS. | |
| Matchett | Gaines, Lamb, Arey, Leighton |

Grinnell 2 2 0 1 0 0 0 0—5
S. U. I. 1 4 0 3 0 0 0 7—15

Umpires—Stipp and Cavanagh.
First base hits—S. U. I. 13, Grinnell 3

Struck out—By Wright, 6; by Chambers, 15.

Bases on balls—By Wright, 2; by Chambers, 5.

The attendance at the game was good and the receipts will net the Association about $150.00. Manager Emry and Captain Hopkins are to be congratulated for their successful management of the game; it was thoroughly advertised, and good advertising always pays.

Leaving out of account our victory, this game was one of the most satisfactory ever played on our grounds. It was characterized by a spirit of fairness throughout, and the best of good feeling prevailed. While once or twice somewhat doubtful decisions were made by both umpires, on the whole they gave good satisfaction, and always seemed anxious to be fair and honest.

For S. U. I. Chambers pitched a splendid game; he struck out fifteen men and kept base hits down to the small number of three. At times he was a little wild, however, and much praise is due Ingham for his efficient work in stopping nearly everything that came by the plate. Hopkins played a good first base, and had good control of his men. Our team work, however, needs strengthening. We were especially strong at batting and base running. Lyons, Chambers, Hopkins and Ingham can usually be depended on for good hits.

Grinnell did better team work than our men; their base throwing was always quick and swift. Wright throws a good curve, and is very steady and true; he is credited with six strikeouts.

Our men deserve much credit for good work, and they should have the encouragement of the whole student body. Good, faithful work for the rest of the season will secure the silver bat for us and the championship of Iowa.

Senior Hep Special.

South hall was well filled last Saturday evening to witness the "positively last appearance" of the Senior Hesperians, as was advertised last week.

The program was comic throughout and consisted of three parts. The "Commencement Exercises of Miss Gordon's Seminary for Young Ladies" was first listened to. After a few introductory remarks by the instructor, each of a class of three presented to the audience an embodiment of her knowledge in a written production. First a flowery oration on "Spring;" then an original poem portraying the woes of those so soon to separate, but also recording their vows of eternal friendship for each other, and undying gratitude to their teachers; lastly the regulation Valedictory Address. This part of the program was followed by a laughable farce of Howell's entitled "A Slight Misunderstanding," the various characters of which were carried out in a realistic manner.

The program was closed by a "Rag Doll Brigade," a pantomime of "Charge of the Light Brigade," which was especially amusing. Music was furnished by the "Banjo Club," and was much enjoyed by the listeners.

The Senior Heps certainly demonstrated their ability to give a light entertaining program. The only criticism to offer would be that they are both worthy and capable of something more solid.

The Y. W. C. A. will give a "May Morning Breakfast" at Close Hall, Saturday morning, May 4th, from 7 until 9 o'clock. Business men, students and everybody are cordially invited. Breakfast twenty-five cents.

Irving.

Irving was opened with a piano solo by Miss Rose Etzel, which was well received.

A. W. Hamann opened the literary program with an oration on "Socialism." This was good, although it would have been improved if a few gestures had been used. Mr. Hamann did not put enough animation into his production. His delivery was in the argumentative style.

The debate on the question "Resolved, that the A. P. A. is detrimental to our democratic institutions" was opened by F. W. Brown. He thought that the A. P. A. was founded on exaggerated concepts. Mr. Brown discussed the A. P. A. platform to some extent, and on it he based his debate.

G. Johnson took up the discussion for the negative. He, too, quoted the A. P. A. platform, and attempted to show that the declarations contained therein were justifiable under the existing conditions. Mr. Johnson also discussed the Catholic school system and made it the basis of his argument.

F. W. Hutchinson closed the affirmative side of the question. He endeavored to show that the methods of the A. P. A. were detrimental to the democratic institutions. Mr. Hutchinson contended that the principles of the A. P. A. tended to bring religion into politics.

The debate was concluded by J. B. S. Shorett, who strove to establish the negatives position. He thought that the A. P. A. was organized to defend the constitution of the United States. Mr. Shorett held that the Catholicism tended to honor the standard of American citizenship, and that therefore the A. P. A. movement was beneficial. Mr. Shorett's speech was eloquent.

The debate was decided for the affirmative.

Next, J. R. Patterson declaimed "The African Giant" in an entertaining manner. His modulation was good, but his delivery would have been improved by the use of a few gestures.

N. R. Briggs closed the literary program with a speech on "The New Party"—the silver party. In an interesting manner Mr. Briggs considered the views and aims of the bi-metalists.

After listening to an excellent vocal solo, rendered by Miss Williams, the society stood adjourned.

The local chapter of the Pi Beta Phi celebrated the 28th anniversary of organization of the national order, last Friday evening. The active members entertained the resident members at the home of Mrs. Stella Ball. A paper on the "Past of Pi Beta Phi" was read by Miss Ella Ham. Miss Mary Collson read a paper on "The Future of Pi Beta Phi," Miss Nannie Carroll gave a declamation, Miss Mary Kelley rendered a piano solo, and Mrs. Haddock read a very fine paper on "The Ideal Fraternity." Several appropriate songs were sung by the chapter. It was a most pleasant social event.

We hope that before another game is played on our home grounds the wire in front of the grand stand will be repaired. Two persons were injured Saturday by being struck with the ball. There should be new wire over the entire front of the grand stand or at least the old wire should be mended so that it will be impossible for a ball to get through. It is very unpleasant for any one to sit there and not know at what moment the ball may strike him in the face. We believe this could be fixed so as to be perfectly safe, at no great expense, and visitors will feel perfectly safe when watching the game.

As a general rule this year the majority of students who have not been specially interested in athletics have been very liberal in helping to support our athletic teams in a financial way. The opportunity now presents itself for those who have been absorbed in athletics to return the favor by supporting the students who have devoted the time almost exclusively to literary work during the year. We hope that no student will refuse to buy a ticket for the Oratorical Contest next Friday night. There has been no entertainment given here this year that is more worthy of the support of the students than this contest. Mr. Hanson has worked faithfully to get himself in condition to win a place, and we can confidently say the same thing of the other men. We hope that our students will show that they are not one sided men when this opportunity to prove the contrary presents itself.

Generally speaking there is no more common of bravery than that which manifests itself after the time when it might be subject to proof has expired. It is the sort of bravery of which the defaulting debaters of Minnesota are possessed. So long as there was time to warrant having a debate neither prayer nor supplication could induce them to meet us. Just as soon as time enough has elapsed, however, and no contest is possible, these individuals recently so coy become exceeding bold, insomuch that they have the audacity to disclaim their former conduct. If anything could add to the becomingly pusillanous conduct which averted their defeat, it is this deliberate falsification on the part of the Ariel. To be sure one is not carried away by admiration for an opponent who precipitately retreats or surrenders before we are ready to dispose of him; yet even he might reclaim himself somewhat in our estimation by accepting gracefully our pity at the lack of courage. We most heartily accord, however, with the statement made by the Ariel to the effect that the constitution of the league is too lax in its provisions. It might aid us materially, however, in amending the same, if Minnesota would kindly furnish us exact measurements of her men so that no aperture might be left of sufficient dimensions to render an escape possible. Sad experience suggests to us that representatives from Minnesota can crawl through a somewhat smaller hole than any other persons we ever heard of.

Through some misunderstanding the representative of the Scarlet and Black didn't receive complimentary tickets to the game Saturday. Mr. Darling, of Grinnell, asked Manager Emry for tickets for the Unit reporter, but said nothing in regard to the Scarlet and Black reporter. We are sorry that this mistake occurred, as they should have received this courtesy, and would have had Manager Emry known of their presence. If the reporters of our visiting colleges will apply to the managers themselves we feel certain they will have no trouble in obtaining the usual complimentary tickets.

H. F. Atwood, the University of Chicago representative to the Northern Oratorical League, has passed off the conditions of his winter examinations, and has therefore cleared the bars which the university faculty set up against the public appearance of university students who were deficient in their work.—Chicago Tribune.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for testimonials. Address.

The library of Princeton has recently received from an alumnus a valuable and rare book printed by John de Spira in 1469 at Venice. It is a natural history by Pliny the elder, and is one of the first books printed in Venice. John de Spira printed in all three books, of which this is the second. It contains about 700 pages, bound in citron leather, with the principal capital letters illuminated. The book is perfectly preserved, and is the oldest and most valuable book now in the library.

The committee for Founders' Day at Vassar has planned a new feature, which will be of great interest, namely, a loan collection illustrating the early life of the college. Early pictures of the grounds, buildings and students, class and society pins, programs of entertainments, and one of the historic bootjacks with which each room was provided when the college was opened, will be on exhibition. "The Granddaughters of the College," will have the collection in charge. The musical part of the Founders' Day exercises will consist of college songs by all the students, and a new song, "Fair Vassar," suited especially to the occasion, has been written by Miss Phebe Doughty, of the class of '95. Dr. Bowman has written the music.
