S. U. I. WINS.

AVENGE THEIR DEFEAT BY A SCORE OF 13 TO 5.

Despite the threats of the weather the game yesterday was played, and the spectators got their money's worth. Hurst was in the box and pitched a good, steady game, fanning eight men, and keeping the hits well scattered. There were no "grandstand" plays on either side, but aside from a few costly errors, it was an exhibition of good ball playing. The boys from Missouri are all quiet, gentlemanly players, evidently out for clean games.

The first inning began with the visitors at the bat. Booker started the game by striking out. Dewey flew out to Lowry. Hawkins made a two base hit, and Garvins went to second on a fly to center, and Hawkins scored. Brodwick hit safe to center, but Garvins was caught on third.

Second half: O'Connor smashes for one base and on an error goes to third. Reynolds out to left field. O'Connor scored on a passed ball. Lowry out on first. Murphy out to Dewey.

In the second inning Atkinson made a safe grounder. Blake out to Williams. Hill fanned. Mossman singled and Atkinson scored. Booker out by grounder to Williams.

Second half: Hart gets a base on balls, McNeil out to Mossman. Williams struck out. Hart stole second. Hurst singled to right field, made second on Atkinson's error, and Hart scored. O'Connor gets base on balls. Hawkins takes Broderick's place in the box. Reynolds out by Dewey to Hill.

In the third inning Dewey is out by Sargent to Lowry. Hawkins gets to first on Lowry's error. Hawkins caught on first and Garvins struck out.

Second half: Lowry out by Broderick to Hill. Sargent safe over center, and stole second. Murphy out to right field. Sargent stole third. Hart gets a base on balls. McNeil singles and Sargent scores. Williams singles to center and Hart scores. McNeil goes to third. Hurst out to Mossman.

In the fourth inning, Broderick is out by Reynolds to Lowry. Atkinson fanned. Blake out to Murphy.

Second half: O'Connor fanned, but Garvins dropped the ball, and threw over Hill's head, O'Connor going to third. Reynolds flies out to Booker. O'Connor scored, Lowry out to Hill. Sargent goes to first on Mossman's error, stole second and scored on Murphy's two base hit. Hart hit to left field, but Murphy is caught at home plate.

In the fifth inning Hill bunts out by Hurst to Lowry. Mossman sent a hot liner to Lowry, who dropped it. Booker safe on Williams' error. Dewey out on pop-up to Hurst. Hawkins rapped out for two bases, Mossman and Booker scoring. Garvins gets a safe hit and Hawkins comes home. Broderick fanned.

Second half: McNeil gets to first on balls, goes to third on passed ball, and scores on Williams' safe hit.

Hurst flies out to center field. O'Connor out to Blake. Williams scores. Hurst scores. Reynolds out by Dewey to Hill.

In the sixth inning Atkinson and Blake are unable to find Hurst, and Hill goes out by a grounder to Williams.

Second half: Lowry out by Mossman to Hill. Sargent out to Booker. Murphy out by Broderick to Hill.

In the first half of the seventh Mossman is put out by Sargent to first. Booker gets a base on balls. Dewey made a safe hit. Hawkins flies out to McNeil and Booker is caught at second.

Second half: Hart places a safe hit in left field. McNeil hit to Hawkins, who threw to second, but was too late, and McNeil was safe on first before

W. N. STULL.

Wilfred N. Stull, the subject of this sketch, is a native of Iowa, having been born at South English, Iowa, in 1875. In 1880 he removed with his parents to Iowa City, where he has since resided. He soon entered the public schools of Iowa City, where he immediately gave promise of the talents which later distinguished his course in the University, and which made his career while yet in public schools familiar to the people of the community in which he has grown up. While in the High School he took a leading part in literary activities, winning in various contests and representing his class as one of the speakers on the commencement program. Having graduated from the High School in the spring of 1894, he entered the University the following fall. He became a member of Irving Institute, where his ability was immediately recognized, and during his Freshman year he represented his society in the declamatory contest with the Zetagathian Society. Last year he was a member of the Irving debating team, which won a unanimous victory in the Irving-Zetagathian Junior debate. This year he was a member of the winning team in the contest preliminary to the inter-collegiate debate with Minnesota, and he was chosen by his society to represent them in the coming contest at Minneapolis. Mr. Stull has made his own way through college, and not only has he maintained himself with his class and been thus active in literary pursuits, but he has carried his work with signal honors, always standing among the very best in his classes. While in the University he has pursued the Scientific Course, and been a leader in various societies devoted to scientific investigation. In the summer of 1897, he was sent by the Botanical Department of the University to the Ozark Mountains, Missouri, where he was engaged in collecting for the University herbarium. Mr. Stull will graduate in June.

IOWA-MINNESOTA DEBATE.

FIFTH ANNUAL CONTEST TO BE HELD FRIDAY NIGHT.

On next Friday night, at Minneapolis, will occur the fifth annual debate between the Universities of Minnesota and Iowa.

The question to be debated is: "Re-

CHAS. O. GIESE.

Chas. O. Giese was born near Fresno, Cal., in 1875. During his boyhood his parents moved to Pleasant Grove, Iowa, where he attended the district school. In the autumn of 1892 he entered Howe's Academy at Mt. Pleasant. Here, in addition to being a thorough and painstaking student, he showed marked ability in the forensic line. From this institution he graduated in 1895. In the same year he entered the State University, thus being a member of the class of '99. Throughout his college course Mr. Giese has been active along literary lines. He is one of the Managing Editors of the VIDETTE-REPORTER, a member of the Zetagathian Society and also of Polygon, a non-forensic organization. In the annual Sophomore debate of last year he was a contestant and also in the Minnesota-Iowa preliminary of this year. He is a member of the Lecture Bureau, and has been manager of the course during the past year. Mr. Giese is taking the Collegiate Course preparatory to the study of medicine. His standing is among the best in his class.

solved, that a portion of the revenue of the United States should be raised by a graduated progressive income tax. (The constitutionality of the same not to be considered.) It will be affirmed by Iowa by W. N. Stull, Chas. O. Giese and Fred H. Blume.

As the time for the debate with Minnesota draws near, it may be of interest to our readers to have a short history of the contests that have been held between the two schools.

The first was held at Minneapolis, May 25, 1893. Question: "Resolved, that the United States government should own and operate the telegraph system." Affirmed for Iowa by W. L. Mason, S. K. Stevenson and A. T. Sanford. Denied for Minnesota by T. J. Elligott, Wm. Goder and A. M. Berse. Decision, three for the affirmative.

The second debate was held at Iowa City, May 18, 1894. Question: "Resolved, that international bimetalism is correct in theory and capable of being applied in practice." Affirmed for Minnesota by W. T. Coe, Edward P. McCaffrey, and F. E. Greene. Denied for Iowa by B. N. Hendricks, M. E. Lumbar and H. P. Williams. Decision two for the affirmative.

The third debate was held at Minneapolis, May 14, 1896. Question: "Resolved, that it would be desirable for American cities of five thousand or more inhabitants to organize and administer their local government, subject only to the constitution of the state; and that the legislative power of the state should not be exercised in such a way as to interfere with the plain and obvious purpose of the measure." Affirmed for Minnesota by G. S. Phelps, L. T. Savage and E. F. McGinnis. Denied for Iowa by C. G. Burling, T. J. Fitzpatrick and J. G. McAlvin. Decision three for the negative.

FRED H. BLUME.

Fred H. Blume was born in Germany in 1875, coming to this country in 1889. Mr. Blume graduated from the Audubon (Iowa) High School in 1894, and entered the University in the fall of 1895. He is now a Senior, having taken the full course in three years, and has always stood high as a student, being recently elected to the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity. Mr. Blume joined Irving Institute when a Freshman, and has always taken an active part in literary work. Last year he was on the Junior debate, winning by a unanimous decision. This year he was placed upon the Minnesota preliminary, and being here successful, was chosen to lead the final. At present Mr. Blume is President of Irving Institute. He intends to follow law as a profession.

The fourth debate was held at Iowa City, May 17, 1897. Question: "Should the United States Senators be elected by direct vote of the people?" Affirmed for Iowa by A. W. Hamann, E. G. Moon and F. W. Beckman. Denied for Minnesota by Bert Russell, R. W. Nelson and W. D. Lane. Decision three for the affirmative.

To sum up, it would seem that out of twelve judges Iowa has convinced ten of them that their side of the question was the better—a record of which we may well be proud.

Athletics this Week.

From an athletic standpoint, the present week promises to be one of great importance to S. U. I. Besides the two ball games with Missouri, played Monday and Tuesday, there are two more contests which will be as hotly contested as any of the season.

The first of these will be the ball game with Cornell, which will be played on the home grounds Friday. Great interest is centered in this game, as it is the first league game of the season. This fact alone guarantees a game which will be played with great determination on both sides.

Cornell is thoroughly aroused over the coming contest, and the great mass of the student body will accompany their team here to cheer them on to victory. Indeed so great is the interest and enthusiasm among the Cornellians that every rig is taken, and that in spite of the fact that the rates for vehicles has doubled in the last few days.

S. U. I. has a team of which she may well be proud. It remains to be seen whether it will be as well supported as its merit deserves. Considering the numbers who will be here from Cornell it is of especial importance that college spirit at S. U. I. be manifest in full force at the game, that no slur may be cast at her players, or her student body be justly accused of a lack of school patriotism.

The second athletic contest will be the home field meet, the only one that will be held on the home grounds this year. This promises to be especially interesting, for now S. U. I. men compete with S. U. I. men, and not with representatives of some other school. In a contest such as will be held Saturday the tug of war comes in earnest. Turn out and see what S. U. I. athletes can do.

MISSOURI TEAM IN TROUBLE.

GATE RECEIPTS FOR THE TWO GAMES ARE ATTACHED.

Missouri's term was left in an embarrassing position, Tuesday, when Geo. M. Price sued Manager Lee Utley, and garnisheed Manager Skewis and Treasurer O'Connor, to prevent them paying to the Missourians any part of the gate receipts.

As will be remembered, S. U. I. played a game of foot ball with Missouri in the fall of '96. Our boys were treated in a disgraceful manner, and Holbrook was in danger of being mobbed. To finish the deal, Missouri refused to pay our expenses, and the debt of $189.65 still remains. Mr. Price was manager of the foot ball team that year, and upon learning that the Missouri Athletic Association was an incorporated body, brought suit through Attorney Walter M. Davis.

The team was in sore straits, for they had not money enough to pay their hotel bills, to say nothing of getting to Lincoln, Neb., where they were to play Wednesday. They telegraphed their friends and the professors at Columbia, but at last saved from another quarter. One of the business men of Iowa City—whose name is withheld by request—advanced the much-needed money, relying upon the honesty of the boys for payment.

The Missourians were highly indignant, and left swearing eternal vengeance upon S. U. I. They said a lawyer would be sent to Iowa City at once to bring suit against our team.

That it was necessary to take such a step, every one regrets—for it is seldom that a more gentlemanly crowd of players comes to the University. They were a "quiet lot," there being little "kicking," and the team at once won the respect of all who saw them. We are sorry we were compelled to sue them for the transgressions of the foot ball team, but our shameful treatment at Columbia, and the position that Missouri has taken in regard to the debt, seems to justify what would otherwise be an unfair move.

Alumni Meeting.

Last night the local Alumni Association held a business and social session in Zet hall. This Association regularly holds meetings once or twice a year. Their object is partly social, but largely for the purpose of advancing the interests of the University, and keeping themselves in touch with its working. For the past two years they have offered and given a free scholarship in the University to the successful contestant in a competitive examination. This is a general examination, and the contestants have been confined to residents of Johnson county who have never had any college training. Last night in business session the offer was extended, and the following officers elected: President, A. E. Swisher; Vice-President, Mary Barrett; Secretary, Mrs. Rich; Treasurer, H. E. Kelley; Executive Committee, Bertha Holmes, Mrs. Preston, Dr. W. L. Biering.
