ROY STOVER DEAD.

PASSES AWAY WHILE IN SERVICE AT MANILA.

News was received yesterday by cablegram that Roy Welty Stover, C. '96, had died at Manila of typhoid fever. His early death, at twenty-two, will shock and grieve the school-mates and friends of his University days so happily and brightly passed at Iowa City. The deceased was a graduate of the University two years ago, and while here was a prominent athlete. He then went to Harvard, where he entered the Law School. Here he had passed the final examinations with high rank. He also won several medals in athletics at Harvard.

At the beginning of the war the deceased joined the volunteer army. He ranked as Sergeant Major in the 1st Regiment of South Dakota Volunteers. His death came as a great surprise and shock to his friends and relatives, as only one week before letters had been received to the effect that he and his brother, also in service as lieutenant colonel of the regiment, were in fine health. The remains have been embalmed, and will be sent to the United States for interment.

Zetagathian.

A fair-sized audience listened to the program in South Hall last evening.

The violin solo by Miss Slavata was well rendered, meriting the encore which it received.

Mr. R. A. Cook then gave a declamation, "The Minstrel's Curse."

The debate was on the subject of government control and operation of railroads. The arguments of Messrs. Burrus and Moore were up to the best Zet standard. The negative failed to rebut the arguments of the affirmative, which secured the votes of two of the judges.

The oration by Mr. Randall was well delivered, and marked by beauty of thought and expression. The society may well rejoice in such new accessions to its membership.

The attraction of the evening was the speech on "Our Camp Experience," by Corporal J. W. Holt, of Co. I, 50th Iowa. The audience was delighted with the descriptions of the trip south, and the striking details of army life, including as well the soldiers' recreation.

The vocal solo by Miss Dow was well received.

Irving.

The program given at North Hall last evening was of average merit.

Vocal Solo.....Miss Dow
Speech.....C. R. Garrett
"The Slav and the Saxon."

Declamation.....J. M. Brockway
"Gomez to the Cubans"

Debate—"Resolved, that a system of agricultural relief for the poor be universally adopted throughout the United States."

Affirmed by W. J. Springer and Austin Cass.

Decided two for the affirmative.

Denied by Thomas Cassady and D. C. Peet.

Declamation.....H. P. Alden
"The Baggage Fi-nd."

Oration.....J. S. Nelson
(Given in the form of a monologue.)
"Napoleon at St. Helena."

Violin Solo.....Miss Slavata
The debate was good, with the exception of the speech by Mr. Peet. Mr. Cassady made his first appearance—and that upon a few days' notice. The Irvings feel proud of his work.

Mr. Nelson's oration was fairly well delivered, but was unpardonably long.

Hammond Law Senate.

A fair sized audience greeted the Hammond Law Senate at their hall last evening, and listened to a very interesting program, which was as follows:

Vocal Solo.....Mr. Hershire
Declamation.....Sen. Miskimins
Extemporaneous Speech.....Sen. Adams
Vocal Solo.....Mrs. Adams

Debate—"Be it enacted by the Hammond Law Senate that a three fourths vote should be sufficient for a verdict by the jury."

Affirmed by Senators Harrington and Davidson.

Denied by Senators Hanley and Hennecker.

Essay.....Sen. Bullman
Instrumental Solo.....Miss McKinley

LeRoy Weld, '99, went to Cedar Rapids last evening.

The Zets initiated Eller, '02, last night.

Philomathian.

The Philomathian society presented a very good program last evening.

C. W. Humphrey opened the program with an oration entitled "A Roman Speech."

The debate was on the popular question: "Resolved, that the United States should not adopt a policy of further territorial extension." It was vigorously affirmed by L. A. Hunter and E. F. Blythe, and with equal energy denied by R. L. Thorburn and J. T. Edson.

Each of the debaters showed a thorough understanding of the question, and talked fluently.

The next number was a well rendered declamation by Mr. E. J. Louis, entitled "The Fate of McGregor."

H. A. Mueller entertained the Society with an illustrated topic, "The Harnessing of Niagara." The profuse drawings illustrating this topic made it both pleasing and instructive.

On the whole this was one of the best programs of the year.

More Barbarism.

The first meeting of the Freshman class occurred this morning at 11 o'clock at Main Hall. It seems that quite a number of Sophomores were present, and conducted most of the proceedings, which consisted of electing a president. The new president was given a ride down the hill to Ladies Hall, where he delivered his inaugural address. At its conclusion the Sophomores found occasion to listen to some other choice speeches by members of 1902.—The Daily Cardinal (Univ. of Wis.).

"The Constituent Assembly."

The purpose of the assembly is:
1st. To familiarize its members with the proceedings of such a body.

2nd. To furnish an incentive to the study of the original sources of the History of the United States Constitution and the Constitutions of Foreign Countries, as well as present pertinent questions.

3rd. To provide a continuous subject of interest and practical importance for debate, both extemporaneous and prepared.

The manner of proceeding will be, as nearly as practicable, that of the United States Constitutional Convention.

General References—"Madison's Journal," "Yates' Minutes," "Elliott's Debates," "The Federalist," etc.

Those desiring membership in the "Constituent Assembly" are requested to hand their names, together with degree and name of the institution, to some member of the Committee on Credentials.

The Olympic Games.

The committee of the Olympic games, which are to be held at Paris in connection with the 1900 International Exhibition has issued a preliminary program of the events. According to this program the games will include almost all known sports. Among games, foot ball, cricket, golf and tennis contests will be held. Among the field sports are a 110 metres hurdle race, and 100, 400, 800, and 1,500 metres flat races. Gymnastics, bicycling, polo and aquatics, fencing, boxing, skating, archery, and climbing, are all on the program. Polo will be played according to Paris and Hurlingham rules. There will also be a general athletic championship, comprising four flat races, long jumps, and putting the shot. Yachting and sculling contests will also be run on the Seine.

A Senior Trick.

The unimproved condition of the new Law building at the University of Michigan furnishes the foundation for the following: "During the week that the opening of the Law department was delayed, a certain Senior had several Freshmen as table companions. The question when work would begin was a much mooted one, and on Monday of the second week, Mr. Senior announced to his friends, with all due authority, that while the building was incomplete, the Faculty had decided that work must commence, and that the first five lectures would be given in the Methodist church, advising them to be on hand early, as the Juniors and Seniors would try and crowd them out. Accordingly eight o'clock found the Freshmen knocking and striving to get into the church, and wondering if they had been already shut out. After nearly an hour of patient waiting they returned to their rooms with the consolation of learning that the obliging Senior had changed his boarding place.—U. of M. Daily.

Athletic Meeting To-night.

Presidents Wanted.

A glance through our exchanges shows that the University of Iowa is not alone in seeking for itself a head. Amherst, Oberlin, Rochester and California also want presidents. It is reported that the University of California has settled upon Professor Edmund James, of the University of Chicago, as the man to succeed President Kellogg. The presidency of Brown University is also vacant, owing to the resignation of President Andrews, to accept the superintendency of the Chicago public schools. Manifestly, college presidents are in demand this year.

Library Rules.

The rules in regard to drawing out books are not generally understood, and for the benefit of those who are interested, we give the following statements from the Librarian:

Over Night Books.—All books on the tables and those assigned by the Professors for reference may be had over night. TO BE RETURNED AT 8 O'CLOCK.

Three Day Books.—All reference books used by the debaters may be kept out for three days. The same side not to draw any book for two consecutive periods.

Congressional Records and Public Documents.—May be taken out over night.

Magazines (Bound).—May be taken out over night by intersociety debaters. By others only by special permission of the Librarian.

Dictionaries, Encyclopedias, etc.—Can be taken from the building under no circumstances.

Other Works.—All books not mentioned above may be kept out for two weeks.

It is especially desired that all students taking out over night books will return them promptly at eight o'clock.

Communication.

EDITOR VIDETTE-REPORTER:

It would be an accommodation to many students if the Collegiate Library should be open at a quarter to eight each morning. They could then get to their classes after depositing their books without being late. From the number of assistants in the Library it seems as if the matter could be arranged.

To the I. S. C. Student.

At the close of your recent attempt to "roast" the VIDETTE-REPORTER, we notice the following significant statement: "We do not invite a controversy." We echo those sentiments most heartily, and to secure peace once more, make the proposition that we will cease "dictating" the policy of the I. S. C. Student, just as soon as the aforementioned paper will cease "dictating" the policy of S. U. I.

Athletic Debts at Michigan.

An interesting view of what they do with athletic debts at other Universities is afforded by one of our Michigan exchanges. The Athletic Association of the University of Michigan reported a debt of over fourteen hundred dollars at the beginning of the school year. A week or so ago a mass meeting of the students was held with a view to clearing off the debt. Over one thousand students, including ladies, were present, and two hundred dollars more than the amount needed was raised before the meeting adjourned.

At both Michigan and Wisconsin Universities every student is a member of the Athletic Association, and debts, if any, are raised by mass-meetings and subscriptions.

That Chicago Debate.

Owing to Chicago's lapse of memory after her two unanimous defeats by Iowa, the debate known as the "Chicago Debate" did not take place. It would hardly seem too soon to agitate the question of securing a debate with some other school, so that at least two debates may take place in the school year 1898-'99. Last year, soon after it was definitely known that Chicago would not debate, three Universities desired to debate Iowa. Lack of time prevented final arrangements for that year. This year our chances for obtaining one or more good debates were never better. Wisconsin and Illinois, left out of the aristocratic "Big Four," are still with their debating schedules for this year unfilled.

Certainly if Iowa is to maintain her present proud record in inter-collegiate debating, greater incentive should be offered her debaters than is furnished by the spectacle of preliminary debates, to which the finals are not. The Debating League should see that this matter be given the attention which its importance rightly merits. C.

Tennis.

The Dual Tennis Tournament between Grinnell and S. U. I., held last Friday and Saturday, resulted in a complete victory for the 'Varsity representatives. Such an athletic triumph as this deserves to be heralded, and Messrs. Haddock Balle, Holbrook, Walsh, and Maresh, the successful S. U. I. contestants, merit the congratulations of the entire student body. At this period especially in the athletic history of the University, some signal triumph was needed to give our erstwhile drooping spirits renewed courage.

The Grinnell players were not beaten without a struggle. The scores of the games attest the excellent playing of the wearers of Scarlet and Black, which makes victory all the more sweet to their opponents.

Without great efforts made in their behalf to get the students out to give the impetus which the presence of spectators always adds to practice games, the tennis men went quietly to work; the players turned out to help themselves. There is talent in the State University, and it is not confined to any one branch of athletics, or of student enterprise. But it requires work to bring it out, to show results.

May this victory in tennis be but the foregoer of other victories of S. U. I. in all branches of intercollegiate athletics. C.

Notice.

A meeting of the Freshman class will be held at Close Hall on Monday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Very important. It is desired to have a large attendance. All come.

Last night Irving elected the men who will represent her upon the class debates this year. For the Junior debate M. M. Moulton, J. E. Remley and Austin Cass were chosen. For the Sophomore debate H. B. Noland and F. S. Merriau were elected—the selection of the third man being postponed.

The Edwin Holt Company, which has been entertaining the people of Iowa City during the past week, will conclude their engagement at the Opera House this evening, by appearing in the farce comedy, "The Private Secretary," and the comedette, "A Happy Pair." Mr. Holt is a most talented artist, and enjoys nothing so much as the opportunity to play to a University audience. He shows this appreciation by inviting the two foot ball teams to attend this evening's entertainment, a delicate compliment and one that will be accepted in the same genial spirit in which it was extended.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
