SIMPSON SHUT OUT.

DEFEATED BY A SCORE OF 12 TO 0.

A dozen or more Simpson braves came to town yesterday, confident of taking away with them the scalps of Iowa's warriors. They fought hard to gain the desired trophies, but instead of taking any, lost their own.

The score was 12 to 0 long before the second half was over, and had there been two minutes longer to play, S. U. I. would have humbled them still more by making it 18 to 0.

Hard, fierce rushes, as impossible to stop as a locomotive, coupled with excellent team work, tells the story of Iowa's victory.

From start to finish every man was in the game, and for the purpose of winning. There was no half hearted playing; instead every canvas-clad warrior smashed into the scrimmage like a fiend, and this spirit, as displayed yesterday, ought to surprise the wily players from the Platte next week.

Simpson's line smashing at first resulted in good gains, but Iowa soon solved the problem of how to stop them, as only twice during the 70 minutes of play was Old Gold's goal in danger. Again and again Simpson had to resort to kicking the pigskin in order to gain any, and to get it away from the vicinity of their goal.

In this respect it was the prettiest game of the season from the spectators' point of view, as punting was indulged in by both sides, and consequently the pigskin described all sorts of parabolas, while twenty-two long-haired players raced madly down the field, coming together with a smash in their wild efforts to grasp the coveted oval.

Iowa's ends were fast in getting down the field after a punt, and equally sure in catching the ball when kicked by their opponents. Simpson fumbled woefully in attempting to catch punts, and the player was downed many times in his tracks, while Iowa without exception made at least five yards after pulling the oval out of the clouds.

Iowa's greatest ground gainer was Eby, who not only carried the ball for long gains, but repeatedly shoved his colleagues through the Simpson line for 10 and 15 yards. This play was a winner, and was worked with success throughout the game.

In defensive work Iowa showed great form, playing low, and stopping the tandem plays of Simpson without any perceptible gain on the latter's part.

Morton's spectacular runs were conspicuous for their absence, but Williams and Morris made sure gains and got into the interference in good style.

Hobbs put up a good game, as his interference, punting and tacking was beyond criticism. Every man in the line played his position well, and deserves to be congratulated on the improved form displayed.

Simpson had the kick-off and soon regained the ball by a fumble on Iowa's part. Then the players from Indianola came nearest to making a touchdown of any time during the two halves, as in seven successive smashes they carried the ball from the 50-yard line to within 10 yards of goal. But by this time Iowa had solved the riddle, and held them on the next three tries. Then commenced a pretty exchange of punts, with a slight advantage in Iowa's favor. Iowa made 40 yards on smashes only to lose on a fumble, but gained the ball on a punt. It was thought Morton was in the game on the next play, as a streak of Old Gold flashed around left end in the person of Morris, netting Iowa 30 yards. A touchdown is now assured, and soon after Eby shoves Hobbs over for a touchdown. As he kicked goal, the score stood 6 to 0 in favor of Iowa. In the remainder of the half Iowa's same players made the same kind of gains, and the ball was deep in Simpson's territory when time was called.

In the second half Simpson braced up some, and by punting had the ball close to Iowa's goal, but Hobbs, Williams and Eby soon carried it out of danger by 15 and 20 yard runs. Simpson got the ball on a fumble, but lost it on a fumble, and then began a steady walk down the field by Iowa for another touchdown, by from 5 to 12 yards gains on the part of Eby, Williams, Hobbs, Morris and Eby. Eby is shoved over for the second touchdown, and Hobbs kicked goal, making the score 12 to 0 in Old Gold's favor.

In the last minute of play a Simpson man fumbled a punt, and "Red" Griffith picked it up, making a good gain and nearly scoring another touchdown.

Zetagathian.

The usual audience listened to the rendering of the following program in South Hall last evening:

Piano Solo Prof. Edwards
 Declamation M. L. Kephart
 "Schlossheimer's Troubles."

Debate: "Resolved, that the principles of the Republican party are beneficial to labor."

Affirmed by Frank Wells and H. G. Bartlett.

Denied by W. B. Brush and V. Plum.

Oration P. Hunt
 "Samuel Adams."

Original Poem B. J. Lambert
 "Uncle Sam."

Vocal Solo Miss Close

Mr. Kephart interpreted the spirit of his declamation well.

The debate was somewhat out of the usual order of Zet debates, being remarkable for the numerous ex cathedra statements.

Brush did better than usual, and Bartlett and Plum, both new members, acquitted themselves with honor. Hunt's thought and composition and delivery were fine. Mr. Lambert's poem met with much favor.

GRAND CONCERT.

BY THE PASQUALI OPERATIC COMPANY

The S. U. I. Lecture Course was opened Thursday evening by the Pasquali Concert. All the desirable seats were taken but the house was not crowded. The company came well recommended, and certainly the patrons were not disappointed with the concert in general, as it was up to the standard of anything the people of this city have usually the opportunity of hearing. We congratulate the Bureau in securing this company to open the course.

The program was opened by Signor DeMacchi, with a piano solo. He is an artist of the first class, putting much force and feeling into his selection. The piano seemed to respond to his touch as if it were a part of him. Besides being a good soloist he is an excellent accompanist, as was shown by the handling of his part throughout the program. His music, although classical, possessed a spirit and harmony pleasing, not alone to musicians but appreciated by all.

Mr. Ernest Gamble, basso profundo, captured the audience with his very appearance, and carried it up and down as he desired with his strong, rich, flexible voice. His appearance upon the stage was beyond criticism, and the spirit and expression which he put into his selection showed him to be a true artist. He has an enviable, powerful and musical voice, of which he has complete control, going from the higher tones with an almost imperceptible grace and rapidity, almost to the lowest tones, of which he is the recognized master.

Signor De Pasquali, tenor, has a voice of great clearness and freshness, singing with such grace and feeling. He responded to an encore. In the latter part of the program he showed himself an artist, also showing his great ability to express sentiment and feeling without words. He could express whole volumes without speaking a word.

Signora Bernice De Pasquali, prima donna, soprano, has a very beautiful and clear voice, of which she has full control, reaching with ease the highest tones. That she pleased the audience was evidenced, by the hearty applause. She responded in a short selection.

The company was generous with its encores, responding eachtime after a rather monotonous attempt to escape.

Faust was rendered in a very pleasing manner, although perhaps a little slow for the late hour. Each actor showed himself a true artist, and well adopted to the part they acted. The scene where Mephisto related the death of Martha's husband, and the stroke of Mephisto and Martha caused considerable merriment in the audience.

The program as given was as follows:

1. Piano—"Rhapsodie No. 2,"... Listz
 Signor DeMacchi.
2. Song—"The Bandolero".....
 Leslie Stuart
 Mr. Gamble.
3. Song—"Die Lorelei" Listz

IOWA DENTISTS.

THE EASTERN IOWA SOCIETY HOLDS ITS CONVENTION.

The Eastern Iowa Dental Society held its tenth annual convention in Iowa City last Wednesday. The sessions were well attended and satisfactory to the members.

A fine list of clinics had been prepared for the afternoon and, though several numbers on the program could not be given, owing to the absence of the members assigned for their performance, the program as given proved successful.

The convention closed with a special paper on "Histology of the Mouth," illustrated with stereopticon views, given by Dr. W. R. Whiteis.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Dr. R. S. Bandy, Tipton.
 Vice-President—Dr. I. S. Mahan, La Porte City.

Secretary—Dr. T. A. Gormley, Mt. Vernon.

Treasurer—Dr. J. B. Pherrin, Central City.

The candidates for the place of meeting in 1899 were Mt. Vernon, Cedar Rapids and West Liberty. The matter of location was finally left to the executive committee.

The game yesterday was advertised to begin at 2:30, but the S. U. I. team never appeared until 3 o'clock. They deserve the censure passed upon them by the waiting spectators.

The Philomathian society held their term election last night as follows: Pres., Edson. Vice-Pres., Hunter; Sec., Hall; Cor. Sec., Smith; Treas., Mueller; Sgts.-at-Arms, E. J. Louis and Hanson.

The fraternity ruling of the University of Chicago, forbidding the initiation of Freshmen until after six months residence at the University, has been changed. Freshmen may now be initiated after three months' residence.

The Y. M. C. A. of the Chicago University has established an employment bureau. Some of the services are such as tutoring, waiting on tables, delivering papers, and caring for furnaces. The association's expenditures last year amounted to $600.

Those Bells.

Several contributors have favored our news box with various hints to instructors and professors anent the prompt dismissal of classes. The powers that be, presume that classes shall last fifty minutes. If an instructor finds his students straggling into the classroom some five or ten minutes late, he is not so apt to interrupt an interesting thread of discourse upon hearing the first bell.

Owing to the present unsatisfactory flying machines, the students require the major part of ten minutes to make connections between classes.

We presume that every student has heard more or less about that old virtue of punctuality. If less, their education has been neglected, and private lessons would be the best recourse. If a little more of this virtue were distributed here and there, the instructors might also come to recognize more its place in the ethics of pedagogy. C.

The Pasquali Concert.

The large attendance at the Pasquali Concert, Thursday evening, fulfilled the highest expectations of the management. It shows that this year's course will be most popular. The Lecture Bureau of '98-99 finds a difficult task before it in keeping up the reputation of the Bureaus preceding it. Thursday night's entertainment shows that their effort are successful, and that they have the hearty co-operation of the student body and of the people of Iowa City. C.

Homoeopathic Medical Department.

P. L. Marble, '99, visited Cedar Rapids the other day on business.

J. W. Buettner was a welcome visitor at the hospital yesterday.

There will be but one day's vacation next week, work being resumed Friday, as usual.

Professor Royal spent two days here this week, and will not be down at all next week.

Dr. Carver, '99, has had his "first case." Ask him.

The Johnson County Homoeopathic Medical Society met Wednesday afternoon at 7:30. The paper was presented by Dr. Pollard, in a very creditable manner, and elicited considerable discussion. The society stood adjourned for two weeks owing to Thanksgiving.

Mr. David McDowall, who was here for operation, has returned to his home in Woonsocket, South Dakota, after a brief visit with his son, who is a member of the Freshman class.

Professor Newberry, who has been unable to give his lectures on account of the illness of one of his children with scarlet fever, has resumed his classes. Miss Sarah L. Graves has charge of the little patient.

Rorabaugh, '00, thinks a fellow is pardonable for sleeping in class when he has been out late the night before, but the professor thinks differently.

Communication.

EDITOR VIDETTE-REPORTER:

The proposition of the Engineering Society, published in your last issue, is one that should meet with the approval of every class in the University. Those whose good fortune it was to come most in contact with Dr. Schaeffer, loved him best. That the project of naming the new Collegiate building after him will receive the hearty approval of the upper classes, I do not doubt. And the lower classes too will but show honor to themselves by co-operating in honoring a good man's memory. I feel quite confident that the Board of Regents would give serious consideration to the naming of the building if memorialized by the classes of the University.

The custom of naming college buildings after deceased Presidents, Professors, and honored benefactors, is an ancient and honorable one. McCosh Hall at Princeton, stands as a testimonial to the life and services of old Nassau's most honored president. Almost all Universities have delighted to honor themselves by thus preserving the names of their most valued servants to future generations of students.

Schaeffer Hall would be one of the best names that could be given to the new Collegiate building; the best monument that could be dedicated to the memory of Charles Ashmead Schaeffer. AN ALUMNUS.

Notice.

There will be a meeting of the class of '99 on Tuesday, Nov. 22nd, at 4:30 p. m. in Professor Loos' room. Large attendance is urged.
