FRESHMAN BANQUET.

A GRAND SUCCESS FOR CLASS OF 1902.

Last evening the long looked for and much anticipated Freshman banquet was held in the parlors of the St. James. Since the class made its debut in the University, success has crowned its ever effort, and social functions are not the least among its many accomplishments, as demonstrated last evening. Several of the prominent young men spent the day at the hotel—in order to be ready to receive their class mates. The Sophomores, restrained by the memory of last year, were found wanting when the hacks approached the banquet hall, and only a few curious students from the different departments were there to shout, "catch them," as the blushing maidens and bashful youths hurried into the hallway. Some five and twenty couples fell into procession as the strains of a march announced the banquet hour. The hall was decorated with floats and streamers, and colored lights lent their softening effect to the table that offered its tempting dainties to a merry crowd.

After the feasting was over, Mr. Cummins, as toastmaster—in the unexplained absence of Mr. Kinney, —spoke briefly of his embarrassing position and called upon the class president, Mr. Berry, to respond to the subject, "A Coming Triumph." He dwelt with exultation upon the defeats of the Sophs, and ended with an exhortation to refrain from disturbing innocent and unsuspecting Freshmen next year.

"Leave the Sophs a Bone" was the subject of the toast by Miss Imo Moler. It was a most clever and skillful response, written in "Hiawatha" stanza.

Mr. Jackson was to respond to "The Freshman Girl," but on account of the wily Sophomores, or indisposition, he was not present. Mr. Cummins spoke briefly upon the "charming subject," and then introduced Miss Blanche Dow, who responded to "The Freshman Boy," speaking in most loyal terms of the boys, whose only fault was excessive modesty, and who had so heroically defended the name and honor of the class.

Mr. Cassady then responded to the topic, "The Pride of S. U. I.," and in mock grandeloquence and clever shafts of sarcasm spoke of the unsuccessful assaults by the Sophs, at the first Freshman meeting, and later at their social.

President Currier then closed the program with a few appropriate words. He expressed his approbation of such gatherings, and his pleasure at being with them, that they might remember him, not entirely as the man who calls them to account for unexcused absences, or unpaid tuition. He spoke of the desirability of class spirit and college yells, and as he closed, the building rang with the lusty "Haw, Haw, Haw," and a spirited

"Hobble gobble, razzle dazzle, Zip, bum, buh,
Hawkeye, Hawkeye,
1902."

The company then dispersed to the parlors until the hall was cleared, and many dancers paid devours to the winning Terpsicore, while others gathered around the card tables until the "wee sma' hours" had passed into history. Even then the happy couples left with reluctance, what must ever be looked back upon as one of the mile stones of college life.

Several gallant youths were found wanting, for the Sophomores had not been entirely idle. Toastmaster Kinney, Jackson, Thode, McCutchen, Baker, Dorchester and Dorland were all informally entertained by upperclassmen. Baker and Dorland had some experiences of their own, but escaped their captors, and reached the hotel at a late hour.

Forum.

Last evening the following program was rendered:

Reading..... Mr. Walsh
Speech..... Mr. Allen
"Incidental Heroism."

Debate—"Resolved, that the United States was justified in issuing greenbacks during the civil war."

Affirmative — Messrs. Turner and Lynch.

Negative — Messrs. Mattison and Dilly.

Extempo ..... Mr. Bittle
"A Prevalent Fallacy."

Each member performed his part with skill, and special mention should be made of Mr. Bittle's speech on the erroneous conception that a great many have of the relation of attorney and client.

The debate was decided in favor of the affirmative.

Homoeopathic Medical Department.

Dr. Triem, who was unable to give his lectures here Wednesday, entertained the Seniors yesterday, with a written test on Practice.

Miss Moore returned Friday evening from Waverly, where she has been on special duty, nursing for Dr Graening.

The Seniors have been busy with operative surgery, performing the various operations and amputations.

Dr. Becker was unable to be present yesterday, as he was unable to leave his practice, which is demanding his whole attention.

Carmichael, '00, having studied over his wicked past, decided to reform, and as a consequence has sacrificed his luxuriant hirsute appendage on his upper lip, thus completely changing his identity.

Dr. V. C. Todd, class of '98, who is located at Washington, Iowa, spent Thursday in the city visiting friends and renewing old acquaintances. The doctor is looking well and reports a fine practice.

The Sophomores, in a recent stormy meeting, elected the following officers to preside over its future deliberations: Pres., A. B. Maxwell; vice-pres., I. O. Kauffman; Sec., Geo. Sarchett. Treas., Mr. Launder; Sgt-at-arms, Mr. Wenzlick.

REGENTS MEET.

PRESIDENT TO BE SELECTED IN MARCH.

The Board of Regents was in session Wednesday and Thursday, with Governor Shaw in the chair. In addition to the regular routine of business, much time was given to the report of the committee on the presidency, and an informal discussion of the candidates. The committee reported the progress which it had made toward the selection of the president, stating the qualifications demanded, the candidates so far presented, their recommendations, and the methods of selection which in their judgment would secure the best results. The Board discussed the different candidates for upwards of four hours. It then referred the matter to a committee consisting of Regents Babb, Holbrook, and Ingham, with instructions to report, at the next meeting of the Board, upon the specific qualifications and limitations of the different men. The Board will then proceed to elect President Schaeffer's successor, but, as one Regent stated, not a single member of the Board has any fixed idea as to whom that successor will be.

The Board heard a committee from the city council of Iowa City, praying for a lease on the old observatory property at the head of Clinton street for a period of twenty-five years. The city desires to secure this ground, adding to it some ground to be purchased of C. S. Welch, for park purposes. Electric lights, entrancing walks, beautiful flowers, bright fountains, are among the accessories with which the city desires to adorn the now unsightly hill. The proposition met with favor at the hands of the Regents, but it was the opinion of several that the lease should be terminable at the Board's pleasure, as the University may one day desire to erect a residence for the president of the University. In such a case the old observatory site would be the ideal spot for the president's residence.

The matter was referred to the building committee, to report in March. The Regents adjourned Thursday evening, to meet at the time of the Spring commencement, in March.

"Country Correspondence."

We deeply sympathize with our brethren of the country newspapers who are compelled, in the pursuit of peace, happiness, and bread and molasses, to employ their time in a number of highly diversified occupations; such for instance, as building fires, sweeping out the office, writing scintillating editorials on expansion, soliciting patronage from obstinate non-advertisers, and chasing the delusive local. We endeavor to grant them the same generous consideration that we desire from others in respect to blaming the villainous compositor for all mistakes in spelling or any trifling disregard for the rules of syntax. Now and then, however, we meet with some peculiarity of style that is especially ludicrous. For instance, an eastern newspaper recently published a report of the State Board of Insanity under the amusing headline: "Insane Board Reports."

We are indebted to a number of country contemporaries for the following choice extracts:

Domney Lent, of Milton, was to Albany Tuesday.

This paper uses no plates. The type is all set up in this office.

Len Deyo is the youngest living fisherman that is on the river alive for his age.

Some men has a good many revolutionary ideas in his head. They aint wheels either.

Arthur Mayhew was successfully executed by electricity Friday. There were two contactks.

Some one is going to get left, if they don't have both eyes open and then may be pulled. He dont live far from Plattsville.

Why would it not be a benefit to our village to have a lunch wagon for our young men that sits up late. A few refreshments would lighten and give them strength and be the means of more of them finding helpmates during their natural life.

We see last week Purdy Bros. new bakers wagon pass our office. It was nicely lettered.

January is here for 31 days.

Frederick Franks of Philadelphia aged 37 years shot and killed his son aged 9, daughter aged 5. He then shot himself fatally. It was the outcome with his wife.

A. Mrs John Donnegan, in Newburg gave her baby a dose of laudumum equal to a dose of paregoric, supposing it would produce the same effect. The child died.

Occasionally ye editor grows facetious: "So poor Staggers is dead!" "Yes, he took the gold cure four times, and at last succumbed. I understood he asked to be cremated, but his widow wouldn't have it so." "She had him buried, did she?" "No, she had him assayed."

We leave it to the reader to judge whether this one is a news or a pay local:

19 Rats at One Haul.

Mr. Abram E. Hasbrouck caught nineteen rats at one haul and in one week 32 rats. This stands up head of all rat catchers. Joseph Schantz was ahead, but he is knocked clean out at the first round.

(Mr. J. W. Teeter sells the traps at his store.)

One writer woos the muse with the following result:

Boys must whistle but girls must sing, Isn't that a curious thing?
If boys can whistle why can't girls too?

Its the easiest thing in the world to do.

Under the sombre heading "Those Who Has Passed from Life to Death," a paper published in one of the rural districts of New York, bemoaning the "sad death of Alfred Terwilliger, aged 69 years and a few days," thus characterizes the deceased gentleman: "Mr. Terwilliger was a good straight man in all his dealings, and was a genial clever man to all he became acquainted with."

Chicago's Victory.

"After losing, time out of count, at last it seems possible for Chicago to win a debate."—U. of Chicago Weekly.

We are glad to note that Chicago was successful in her late debate with Minnesota. Not that we have anything against Minnesota. We should have rejoiced if we had read that she had been successful in one debate—we are going to defeat her ourselves in the near future.

But all the same Chicago's recent victory is something along the line of a triumph for the prudence of those who have the management of her debates.

Athletic Union.

In past issues of the VIDETTE-RE-PORTER we have called attention, editorially and otherwise, to the promising condition of the Athletic Union financially, especially in connection with the success of last year's foot ball returns. We are glad to note that the interest in athletic matters has not abated at all with the winter season, so often chilling to such out-of-door affairs, but has rather increased.

The success of the two-step party last Thursday evening was very flattering to the officers of the association. It is felt by all that the mossbacked, hoary-haired DEBT will yet be consigned to oblivion before the coming of the new century. Another opportunity for a cut at the venerable fossil will soon be given by the presentation of the original Weaver's Minstrels at the Opera House, February 13th. We hope that all that can possibly do so, will be present.

Another feature of the Athletic Union's condition is the spirited contest now on for one of the elective officers. Last year hardly enough candidates could be rounded up to fill the offices, and even the membership of the officers in the Union was called in question.

Last year the very existence of the constitution of the Athletic Union was a matter beyond the concern and even the knowledge of a great many students. Now the question of amending the constitution so as to secure better results in athletic matters, is being agitated, and, after mature consideration, will doubtless receive favorable action.

All signs point to a new era in athletics at S. U. I. An era when debts shall never be known, and when the presence of man on the streets with a subscription book or an athletic dun shall not be. Let all students, instructors, alumni, and friends, continue their grand efforts in this direction and, before long, we shall all join in "ringing out" the old debt-age, and all unite in glad huzzahs as we ring in the new age, the golden age, of athletics at S. U. I.

Minstrel Show.

A grand aggregation of all the coons in Niggerville is billed for the Opera House, Friday evening, February 13.
This attraction is none other than the first and only appearance, in Iowa City, of the much heralded "Mastodon Minstrels" under the direction of that prince of entertainers, Mr. A. C. Weaver. Cake walks, Virginia reels, Indian club swinging, fine singing, clogs, and dancing music to spare, and specialties galore, will be among the attractions. Speculation is rife to identify the society belle who will appear as "Trilby in Coontown." All the college widows will be down for some number or other. In fact, "all sorts of warm people" will be on the program. Professor Nutting will manage special views of Cuba. All for the glory and financial uplifting of the Athletic Union. We have no doubt that all who attend will be amply repaid by the choice program.

$100 Reward. $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,
