IOWA WINS.

THE NORMALITES DEFEATED BY A SCORE OF 22-0.

Well, we guess we wiped out the score of last year. It was only 22 to 0 but the reason for that is that the halves were not longer. For the first game our men did remarkably well. It has certainly shown the advantage of having good, swift backs. While our line work was ragged at times, on defensive, severe criticism would be entirely out of place. Griffith was undoubtedly the star of the game. It was his first real opportunity for carrying the ball yet he demonstrated his ability here even better, if possible, than at quarter, his old position. The backs are all of them up to standard, Edson closely pushing Griffith for honors. In the line Williams and Warner were the most conspicuous for their gains. Taking the game as a whole it is a good criterion of what we may expect in the future.

The game:—

Normal won the toss and chose the South goal. Warner kicked off 10 yards, caught by Edson who ran rest of field for touch down. Touchdown made in 6 seconds. Griffith failed to kick goal. Detwiler kicked off, caught by Griffith. Two downs made 5 yards. Repeated line bucking by Griff and Hover for gains, Edson carried it 5 more. Warner made another gain. Edson and Howell again advance it through left sides respectively. Griff's kick blocked. Normals ball. By revolving wedge gained 5 yards. Brockway steals ball Griffith gained 5 yards Griffith punted, caught by Huntley. Tackled by Griffith on their 30 yard line. Normal gained their 5 yards by line bucking, gained another 5 yards. Detwiler escaped from bunch and gained Hover got loose with the ball for 10 yds. Normal gained another 5 yards on our left side. F. Williams tackles for 3 yds loss Normal loses on down, Iowa's ball Griffith tackled 3 yards loss. Griff punted for 20 yds, Normals ball. Normal gained through Spears work. Normal lost ball on downs. Iowa's ball on her 35 yard line. Edson on end runs made a short gain. Griffith punted 30 yards. Huntley tackled by Hoover. Normal's ball. Spears gained five yards through right side: Detwiler gained 5 yards. Spears another 5. Detwiler another 5. Score at end of first half 5-0. Ball on Iowa's 50 yard line.

SECOND HALF.

Detwiler kicked off. Caught by Griffith, who made a gain of 30 yards. Edson made 60 yard run for touch down. Griffith kicked goal. Swaine substituted for Huntley. Detwiler on kick off kicked out of bounds. On second kick caught by Hoover, who advanced ball 15 yards, but stepped out to catch it. Ball returned to centre with Iowa's kick off. Warner kicked 45 yards. Caught by Wallard, who in time was tackled by Hoover. Levine advanced ball 15 yards, but ball was returned for running out Bollard Iowa ball on downs. Hoover gained 10 yards around end. Hoover gained another 5 yards through right tackle. Williams made 2 yards and Griffith 10, through right side. Griffith thought left side for touch down.

Griffith punted out caught by Williams. Griffith failed to kick goal. Detwiler kicked 40 yards, carried back 28 yards by pass from Hoover to Griffith, Hoover gained 3 yards and Edson 2, Griffith carried ball for another 20 yards. Griffith sustained a severely wrenched ankle in being tackled but with his characteristic grit remained in the game. Edson and Hoover gained yards by line bucking, Griffith made another gain of 5 yards, Griffith hurt again and his services not needed. Macy was substituted. Watters on end run, 25 yards. Fred Williams made six yards through right side, Macy by line bucking made 3, Fred Williams made another 4. Warner made 2, Macy pushed through center for a touch down, Warner kicked goal. Detwiler kicked off 45 yards caught by Macy who advanced it 15 yards, Morton substitutes for Edson.

Morton made 6 yards, Macy 3 and Fred Williams 15 yards. Morton carried it 5 yards. Then another 3. Ballard advanced ball 4 yards. By repeated line bucking the ball was advanced the necessary yards, three. Time called with ball within 30 yards of Normals goal. Score 22-0.

TENNIS CLUB.

It will be remembered that the Tennis Club last spring petitioned for admittance into the Athletic Union, which petition was granted by the Union, and the club admitted. The tennis club has not yet formally accepted this action of the Union. At a late meeting of the members of the club to consider tennis matters it was decided that the need of new courts was imperative and since the club alone could easily construct the courts, that the Board of Control agree to construct them before the club would agree to enter the Union. The Board acts on this at its next meeting.

The tennis courts have been cleared of this summer's growth of weeds, and are in fine condition after yesterday's rain. Several tournaments are in prospect this year, those with the Northwestern University and Cornell College being among the most definite.

The semi-annual handicap tournament is now being played off. The officers have fixed the handicaps stricter this fall than last spring, there being more scotch men and few with 30-40 leeways. The handicaps and drawings for positions result as follows.

1st Pair, Raguette, 15, True, 15-30; 2nd, Wilson, S. B. 30; McClain, 15-30; 3d, Ferguson, 15, Okey, 0-15; 4th, Thomas, 30, Fee, 30-40; 5th, Bailey, Ed, 0-15, Coast, 15-30; 6th, Thode 15-30, Burton 30-40; 7th, Pereguine, 15-30, McCutchen, 30-40; Lambert, J. THE MIKADO.

EXCELLENT PRESENTATION OF THE OPERETTA BY LOCAL TALENT THURSDAY NIGHT.

An audience filling the entire lower floor of the opera house greeted the first presentation of the Mikado Thursday night, for the benefit of the football team. A number of seats in the parquet were reserved for the football men, who exercised their lungs with S. U. I. yells and songs before the curtain rose. The presentation of the operetta was most excellent. The almost unlimited time and pains which had been bestowed upon their parts by principal characters produced a presentation unmarred by any slips or jars. The costuming of the players was brilliant, the dress of Yum-Yum, especially, being an oriental dream.

The entire cast and chorus is deserving of praise. The stars of the evening was Dr. Alden Arthur Knipe of Ko-Ko, Lord High Executioner of Titipus. From the round of applause that greeted his appearance in Act I., to the end of his passionate career, he carried the audience with him. He shared the honors of the evening with The Mikado (Frank Suepple) and Pitti-Sing (Miss Blanche Dow), and Yum-Yum, (Mrs. Alice Freeman Hubbard). The Mikado with his fine stature and full round voice announced himself from the first a regular jolly good fellow. Pitti-Sing seemed at first the timid of the three timid, giggling school-girls and wards of Ko-Ko, whose appearance and song in Part 9 produced a delightful sensation with their beauty and melody.

The second act went along with a greater swing and better acting than the first. The Mikado, comical and original, Ko-Ko, fateful and passionate, carried the events along with a rush to the end of act. Yum-Yum, Pooh-Bah, Katisha and Ko-Ko appeared at their best and were applauded time and again. Miss Ida Felkner was the excellent accompanist, assisted by Max Goetch and Henry Nicking, Jr.

The program was as follows:

ACT I.

1. Chorus of men.
2. Song and chorus, (Nanki-Poo.)
3. Song, (Pish-Tush and chorus.)
4. Song, (Poo-Bah, with Nanki-Poo and Pish-Tush.)
5. Recitation, (Nanki-Poo and Poo-Bah.)
6. Chorus with solo, (Ko-Ko.)
7. Song, (Ko-Ko, with chorus of men.)
8. Chorus of girls.
9. Trio, (Yum-Yum, Peep-Bo and Pitti-Sing and Pooh-Bah.)
10. Quartette and chorus, (Yum-Yum Peep-Bo, Pitti-Sing and Pooh-Bah.)
11. Duet, (Yum-Yum and Nanki-Poo.)
12. Trio, (Ko-Ko, Pish-Tush and Poo-Bah.)
13. Finale, Act I.

ACT II.

1. Solo, (Pitti-Sing and chorus of girls.)
2. Song, (Yum-Yum.)
3. Madrigal, (Yum-Yum, Pitti-Sing, Nanki-Poo, and Pish-Tush.)
4. Song, (Pooh-Bah, with Nanki-Poo and Pish-Tush.)
5. Entrance of Mikado and Katisha.

6. Song, (Mikado and chorus).
7. Trio and chorus, (Pitti-Sing, Ko-Ko, Pooh-Bah and chorus).
8. Glee, (Pitti-Sing, Katisha, Ko-Ko, Pooh-Bah and Mikado).
9. Duett, (Nanki-Poo and Ko-Ko, with Yum-Yum, Pitti-Sing and Pooh-Bah).
10. Recitative and Song, (Katisha).
11. Song, (Ko-Ko).
12. Duet, (Katisha and Ko-Ko).
13. Finale, Act 2.

The cast is as follows:

The Mikado of Japan . . . Frank Suepple
Nanki-Poo, his son . . . George Suepple
Distinguished as a Wandering Minstrel Man in love with Yum-Yum.
Ko-ko Dr. Allen Arthur Knipe

The choruses were as follows:

Ladies—Mesdames Bertha G. Ridgeway, G. W. Schmidt, Edwin B. Wilson, and Aiden Arthur Knipe and Misses Mary K. Heard, Mary N. Watson, Emilie C. Von Bergen, Alice Kessler, Lillian Fry, Minnie Barborka, Helen K.

Zoe E. DeSelle and Dot Greer.

Men—W. P. Mueller, Dr. G. R. Bruce,
D. G. Morgan, G. W. Schmidt, Bert
Townsend, Will C. Hall, Howard E.
Goodsell, Cemiah Emmons, Otto Meyer,
Frank Konvalinka, Jacob A. Hamm,
Louis A. Cerney, Dr. W. Lillibridge,
Geo. A. Dostal, Ambrose McDermott,
John McGee and Howard W. Power.

The production Friday night was fully up to the excellent standard of the preceding night, although the audience was not quiet as large. About $400 was cleared by the two productions. To Manager Howard Power's indefatigable energy is due a large part of the credit for this extremely satisfactory showing. The management was all that could be desired and one of the most successful in years. The thank of the entire student body and of every one interested in athletics is due to all the performers who worked toiled perseveringly through the hot August weather. A committee composed of Howard Powers, the business manager, Max Maye, and P. C. Coast will credit the bills and present a report early next week.

University Enrollment.

The enrollment to date is 150 ahead of what it was at this time last year. Dean Currier is confident that within ten days it will exceed the entire enrollment of last year, which was 1350. There is a gain of about 30 in the law department and 40 in the medical. The exact figures at present are:

Collegiate	609
Law	206
Medical	233
Dental	127
Homeopathic	62
Pharmacy	50

The Passing of the Class Scrap.

One of the best signs of the new era in the University's history was manifest last Thursday afternoon when the Freshmen held their first meeting with absolutely no Sophomores present or in the neighborhood to molest them or make them afraid. This first meeting of the babes the Sophomores have ever before endeavored to break up. And the more or less good natured "scrap" ensuing, always colored and exoggerated by the daily press, has done the University great harm in the way of lessened public and legislative esteem. Happily this is to occur no more.

The desuetude of this custom of breaking up the first meeting of the Freshman class is directly due to the efforts of President MacLean, who convinced the Sophomores at their meeting the first of the week to adopt the course of non-intervention. By this action the University was undoubtedly raised in the esteem of the people of the state and of sister colleges and Universities and the case which the University will be able to make before the next legislature will be stronger than ever.

Not only is credit due to President MacLean for this, but to the Sophomore class. The courage which they showed in departing from established tradition is most commendable. Their resolution was to them a regular self-denying ordinance and as such may it receive due credit.

It is to be hoped that no extra zeal on the part of the Freshman class will disturb the present status. "Freshmen need good tempers," said President MacLean in his talk to the class last Thursday. And we believe that the 1903's will show that they have good tempers. Look well to yourselves, O Freshmen!

Prizes for Women.

The Rev. Miss Elinor E. Gordon, of Ouroy, Col., offers the following prizes for young women in the literary societies.

Fifteen dollars to the side winning the debates, the amount to be divided equally among three the winners:

Ten dollars to the young woman doing the best, her place in the debate being taken into consideration.

Each society shall appoint one judge and the one who awards the prizes shall appoint one.

NEW CLASSES MEET.

JUNIOR LAWS AND FRESHMEN COLLEGIATE HOLD MEETINGS TO ELECT OFFICERS.

JUNIOR LAWS.

The laws of 1901, the largest class in the history of Chancellor McClain's department, met in the law lecture room Thursday afternoon and proceeded to effect an organization. Ferguson of Tama City was elected temporary chairman. On the ballot for permanent president, H. B. Noland was elected, Ferguson and Gleason also receiving votes. Mr. Ferguson was chosen vice-president, with scattering votes for other candidates. Guy T. Struble was elected secretary, M. L. Ferson, treasurer and Messrs. Foy and Saunders, sergeants-at-arms.

The president, vice-president, and secretary were constituted to draft a constitution. Another committee was chosen to formulate a class yell, after which the class adjourned.

FRESHMEN COLLEGIATES.

The first meeting of the class of 1903 at Close Hall, Thursday afternoon although fairly enthusiastic in itself was remarkable as the first meeting of a freshman class even the memory of Katisha; running not to the contrary, wherein the sophomores showed no interest. The enthusiastic actions of brawny patriots around Close Hall on such occasions in the past was still in the memory of many old men who lingered in the vicinity of Close at 4:30, with half-hope that they might again witness the annual "class scrap."

Fifty girls and as many boys constituted the Class of 1903 which, no member of the class forth coming, was called to order by President MacLean, who wished to give the class some bits of advice and sympathy.

He said that a new era had dawned in Iowa's history in which scraps and hazings were to give the University bad repute no more. In this new era the class of 1903 will stand as a marked class. It will be hard for you as the first class to overcome tradition. On this account particularly Freshman need good tempers. The president believed in the self-government class organizations and wished the class to appoint a special envoy to act between the class and the administration.

Following this, the temporary officers were elected: President, the President of the University; Secretary, G. W. Shorrett.

A number wanted to make the temporary organization permanent, but the presiding officer politely refused to entertain the idea. Nominations for permanent president being in order, the names of Henry McClain, Ed. H. McCoy, Chas. Foster, Geo. C. Tucker, and H. D. Spangler were put forward by friends. Foster withdrew.

The class decided to postpone the election of officers and to elect a nominating committee who should endeavor to find the fit and suitable sacrifices. The committee was elected as follows: Chas. Foster, chairman, Shannahan, Henry McClain, Miss Leona Letts and Miss Florence Seerley.

After several motions to draw up a con-

Mr. Plaster of Paris.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you." When France saw "Mr. Plaster of Paris," an exhilarating farce comedy all France laughed. And so will all laugh when it beholds the many delightful amusing situations a clever author has supplied in the cleverest farce of the year. Local theatre-goers will have an opportunity of meeting "Mr. Plaster of Paris" at the opera house, Wednesday evening Sept. 27.

The New Classes.

stitution had been voted down, an animated discussion ensued over the adoption of Robert's Rules of Order. They were adopted.

A motion to appoint a committee to arrange for a sociable met a sad fate upon a member's stumbling upon the fact "you can't have a sociable without money."

A motion that the class act on the defensive and on the offensive with reference to the sophomores met with some opposition. McClain sounded the tocsin. "The class has already been attacked!" Kemmerer thought so too, and so did the class for the nays prevailed.

Miss Gladys Whitley, chairman, Miss Marguerite Hess and Ward Cassady were appointed a committee to make a class yell. Upon which the class adjourned to meet on Thursday, Sept. 28th, at 4:30 p. m.

The class was in very good humor, laughing heartily at its own mistakes and at some of the motions when explained by the president. A rush to the door occasionally interrupted the proceedings, the freshman heart giving bold to conflict when the sophomores came not. Although the class cannot be congratulated, as can former classes on being able to hold its first meeting itself, it gives considerable promise of attaining self-government in the near future.

Fall Field Meet.

The annual fall field meet will be held Saturday, Sept. 30. This date has been selected owing to the fact that on that day there will be no football games hence the track men on the football team will be given an opportunity to compete. All those interested in track work should turn out, for the fall meet always has great influence on the regular season's work. The new men at that time become known as track men both with benefit to themselves and the team. All of the men who made such a record for the team last year will compete next Saturday. There has also been a number of new men entered who if hearsay is to be relied upon are liable to push the old men for places. All those desiring to compete should hand their names either to C. A. Brown, captain or J. R. Griffith, manager.
