IOWA AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

Rush Medical College Clearly Outclassed

Iowa 17, Rush 0.

Iowa's goal line has not been crossed this year.

It was a very husky team that lined up against our boys this afternoon, in the first of the greater games of the season to be played on our home grounds. Not before has it been made so overwhelmingly apparent to our home rooters that we have this year the strongest team in the history of Iowa teams, and one of the strongest in the west. It was a game that tested the nerve and tried the endurance to the utmost.

When Rush had advanced to within 4 yards of our goal, Iowa made the finest rally ever seen on the home ground—a rally such as saved the Chicago game—and held the giant doctors for downs. They followed the advantage by advancing by line smash after line smash to Rush's 10 yard line where Warner made a place kick. In the second half Rush began to weaken and Iowa had two touch downs and as many goals to her credit. This half was more interesting to the spectators owing to the end runs of Morton and Edson.

To say that it was a good game does not half state the case. Rush has some of the best individual players ever seen on an S. U. I. gridiron. Lack of endurance is their weakness. Our men all played well, Eby, Warner and the backs, especially Griffith, excelling. It was a clean game and the visitors are to be congratulated on their splendid defensive work.

THE GAME.

Farr won the toss and chose the south goal. Warner kicked off 30 yards. Rush fumbled and did not gain. By repeated line smashes they made the necessary gains in downs for some time, until Warner found out how to stop them by tackling the man behind the line.

IOWA BLOCKS THE PUNT.

Rush was forced to punt, but the punt was blocked. Rush however recovered the ball. Rush then kept up her line smashing tactics with good result until the ball was advanced to Iowa's 10 yard line, when Iowa secured the ball on downs.

Rush was forced several times to take out time in order to draw its breath. On the first down Iowa failed to gain and were finally forced to punt, Rush securing the ball on Iowa's 30 yard line. Harris was then sent around the end for 10 yards. They then went through center for 10 more. Iowa then got the ball on downs. She was soon forced to punt, Rush taking in the pigskin on Iowa's 30 yard line. On a fumble Iowa secured the ball.

WARNER MAKES A PLACE KICK.

Iowa then resorted to line bucking good success. After Iowa had made 15 yards it was time for Rush to have a recess—when school was begun again Iowa with the assistance of Morton rapidly approached Rush's goal; the only way Rush could stop them was by calling for "time out." Iowa by repeated line smashes advanced the ball to Rush's 10 yard line. Here Warner tried for a place kick with admirable success. Score 5-0.

Rush kicked off to Griffith who, catching the ball on Iowa's 5 yard line, advanced it 20 yards. Warner then made 8 and Morton 5. Eby then made 3. Seeing that the line was easy Iowa kept right at it. Warner did the star part of the work, never failing to make less than 7 or 8 yards. Time was called with the ball in the center of the field and the score was 5-0 in favor of Iowa.

SECOND HALF.

Rush kicked off to Edson who brought the ball to near the center of the field before he was downed. Iowa then began using her guards for substantial gains. Then the tackles were tried with equally good results. Griffith then made 10 yards and Warner just to show he was still in the game made 10 more. He was hurt in the scrimmage but refused to go out for he wanted to make a few more yards. He did this on the next down making 4 more to his credit. Brockway then made 10 yards and Burrier 2.

Rush then held on downs, but was immediately forced to punt. Griffith securing it on Rush's 40 yard line. Iowa finally lost the ball on downs.

WARNER MAKES A TOUCH DOWN.

Rush was soon forced to punt. The kick being a high one rolled back to almost the place from which it was kicked. Rush, however, secured the ball and held it for just two downs when the quarterback attempted a kick. C. Williams secured it and on the first down it was given to Edson who made one of the runs for which he is famous, about 30 yards. Griffith on a delayed pass made first 10 and then 4 yards. Warner went through for a touch down and then kicked goal. Score 11-0.

Rush kicked off to Watters who fumbles. Rush secured the ball on Iowa's 15 yard line. Here Rush tried for drop kicks. The pass was low and the kicker was downed in his tracks. Griffith then went through for 10 yards. He was hurt and Stratford substituted. Morton made 15 yards around left end and Edson 5 around the opposite end. Morton then made another 10 and Brockway 4. Iowa got the ball to Rush's 20 yard line. Rush again lost her wind and time was taken out to give the Doctors a rest.

MORTON CROSSES RUSH'S GOAL.

When Rush breathed easier, Morton was sent around the end for a touch down. Warner kicked goal. Score 17-0.

After one minute's play time was called with ball on Iowa's 25 yard line.

TENNIS TOURNAY A TIE

IOWA WINS THE TWO MATCHES IN SINGLES—CORNELL TAKES BOTH DOUBLES.

The dual tennis tourney held on the courts of the Athletic Union Friday afternoon, resulted in a tie, Bailey and Walsh winning the two matches played in the singles and Kidder and Ferris, Moore and Tucker of Cornell winning both matches in doubles. It is usually thought among most tennis players that singles are the best test of tennis. However both singles and doubles were played and the honors as a whole were very evenly divided.

NOT EXCEPTIONAL PLAYING.

Of the beaten teams in singles, Moore of Cornell certainly put up a game fight and played fine tennis. In doubles Okey and Clinite played in fine form and only the net work of Kidder overcome them.

The match in doubles between Bailey and Shaw for Iowa and Moon and Tucker was marked by the strong Lawforts and the good judgment of Bailey, the fine net work of Tucker, and the steady all around work of Moore. Shaw was manifestly out of form. The match in singles between Marsh of Iowa and Yoran of Cornell developed no great tennis. Yoran will have a good first serve when he develops it further; Marsh won through being the older player.

THE MATCH OF THE TOURNAY.

The singles between Bailey and Moore undoubtedly finished the best tennis of the afternoon. The features of the match were the remarkable brace by Bailey after losing the first set, and Moore's steady good form.

THE SCORES.

Singles: First Match—Bailey of Iowa, defeated Moore of Cornell, 3-6, 6-0, 6-4.
Second Match—Marsh of Iowa beat Yoran of Cornell, 6-0, 6-3.
Doubles: First Match—Kidder and Ferris of Cornell beat Clinite and Okey of Iowa, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3.
Second Match—Moore and Tucker of Cornell beat Bailey and Shaw of Iowa, 6-4, 8-6.

Wisconsin-Yale Football.

The second great contest of the West against the East for football honors occurs today in the meeting of the Wisconsin eleven with Yale. This time the struggle takes place on Eastern grounds and its outcome is awaited with even greater interest than was that of the Chicago-Cornell game in Chicago last Saturday. Here's hoping! Tear 'em up Wisconsin!

The City Library.

Though a comparatively young institution the city library has outgrown its present quarters over the C. O. D. Laundry. It is proposed by some that the east wing of the City Hall now occupied by the fire department be fitted up for library purposes. Probably no one supporting this proposition supposes that such an arrangement could be other than temporary. We believe it would be the part of wisdom and true economy for the city without more ado, to erect at once a new library building. And it should be no mean structure either. Quite the contrary, it should be handsomer and more commodious than any other similar building in Iowa. Of course by such action the city would involve itself in added indebtedness. It would be an indebtedness, however, that no one having the true interests at heart would criticize. For, even leaving out of the consideration the inestimable value of such a building to the city as a city and to its residents, such a building would be an investment that would yield golden returns. Iowa City is the home of the University of Iowa. Biennially its people through their representatives seek the appropriation, for maintenance of the University of many thousands of dollars, every cent of which is spent in this city. This year the University is asking for appropriations in its interests greater than any ever before sought. The people of the state and the present administration of affairs at the University are engaged in herculean efforts to make of the University of Iowa in fact "The New University," the peer of any institution of learning anywhere. Whether these efforts shall meet with success depends almost entirely on the degree of liberality with which the legislature meets the demand for appropriations: The liberality with which the legislature shall meet this demand depends largely on the impression it receives of the University, its work, and its environments. This impression will be formed of fragmentary facts gleaned from every corner of the state. These facts will be contained in the letters and speech of students and of the traveling public, of press dispatches, and of rumors that travel no man knows how. In no other way could Iowa City as a city so happily demonstrate to the state that it appreciates and is worthy of the honor of being the home of the University, than by the erection of a graceful, substantial and commodious library building and by the accumulation of a library that would be a credit to the city, a source of gratification to its citizens, and of enjoyment and advantage to all students, whether belonging to the University or not. The Library should be built. It is needed. The indebtedness that would be incurred could be well be excused on the ground that it is not for the purchase of a luxury but of a necessity, and that at once a necessity which on investment, that would yield an hundred fold.

Photographic Supplies.

Those interested in amateur photography will find it profitable to call and examine Boerner's line of supplies. Mr. Boerner has taken great care in selecting his stock and is constantly adding to it. He has recently put in an entirely new stock of fine card mounts. Photographic material purchased here may be relied upon. You will find that by patronizing the Boerner Pharmacy you received none but first class material at reasonable prices. Remember the place. Boerner's Pharmacy, Washington street.

Amusements.

The management of the Opera House is pleased to announce the engagement in the near future, of the popular romantic actor, Mr. Robert Mantell, who will appear in his latest success, "The Dagger and the Cross."

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Well it seems as far as the Uncle Tom's Cabin business is concerned, that everything lies in the name of Stetsons. Since the present tour of Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co opened, they have met with a succession of packed houses, for one can always count on witnessing a first class entertainment under the trade mark. Will appear in its entirety at the opera house Tuesday evening.

Very True.

The great surprise of the season so far was the showing made by Iowa against Chicago last Saturday. Never before has such a team of all-around tacklers been seen on Marshall Field. Their team work showed good coaching, and one or two of their plays were quite originally effective. If Iowa keeps on improving as she has since last year, she will soon have to be taken into account when Western championships are talked over, and then first-class football will have taken another stride westward.—Uni. of Chicago Weekly.

The Freshman Sociable.

Notwithstanding "Jimmie's" vigilance, the Freshman sociable of Thursday evening, turned out very unfortunately for '03. By means of a package of crackers and a fictitious schedule card two Sophomores were allowed to enter South Building. A window was opened by them and a dozen more 1902 men entered and together they charged the stairs leading to the society halls. The stairs were blockaded with chairs and the landing defended by eight or ten Freshmen; but the Sophomores climbed over the chairs, overcame the men and entered the halls.

Five gallons of punch, a bushel of apples, a bunch of bananas and a punch bowl and glasses were the involuntary contributions of 1903 to 1902. After an hour's celebration of their victory, the Sophomores allowed the Freshmen to proceed with their sociable.
