BASKETBALL TRIP

VARSITY WINS ONE OF THREE GAMES PLAYED

Grinnell and Des Moines Y. M. C. A. Won From Iowa by Close Scores Game Here Saturday

On Friday and Saturday, January 29 and 30, the varsity basketball team played games with Des Moines College and the Des Moines Y. M. C. A. in the capitol city and with Grinnell on the return home.

At Des Moines the games were a stand off. The college boys fell prey to the quick work of the varsity but the Y. M. C. A. won by the close score of 24 to 21. In the later game Ross was the star.

At Grinnell the game was not only close but it was only with great difficulty that either team captured a basket, so fierce was the work of the guards.

According to the scarlet and black of Grinnell, Ross played the star game for Iowa, scoring the only field basket which the varsity made. His opponent, Cole, was the crack player for Grinnell. During the second half Parsons received a severe cut and was forced to give way to Stover.

The score was 6 to 5 in favor of Iowa College. The local team scored two field and two foul baskets, while the varsity scored one field and three foul baskets.

The line-up was:

Iowa		Grinnell
Ross	f	Fillmore
Farrell	f	B. Wilson
Parsons	c	Clark
Stover	c	Clark
Brock	g	Cole
Schenck	g	G. Wilson

Umpire Roy Call

Iowa and Grinnell will meet again on Saturday afternoon at the university Y. M. C. A. The game will be a good one, as Iowa is looking for revenge.

Mrs. Fred C. McCutchen

Mrs. Fred C. McCutchen, the young wife of the former manager of the IOWAN, passed away Saturday morning at Fort Dodge. She had been in poor health for several years.

The entire student body and faculty will join with the IOWAN in expressing the most sincere regret of the misfortune and heartfelt sympathy for manager McCutcheon in his bereavement.

Phi Rho Sigma had an informal dancing party last night.

The junior dents have chosen A. C. Wyant as athletic manager of the class.

J. T. Duncan, M. '03 was operated on for appendicitis yesterday at the university hospital.

Mr Percival Hunt was one of the judges on thought and composition on the oratorical contest of the Iowa State Normal School.

ATHLETIC BALL MUSIC

Committee Selects List of Pieces to be Played at the Ball

The following is the list of music which will be rendered at the athletic ball by Meyer's full orchestra. The dances are not arranged in the order in which they will be played.

The committee are determined to avoid the unreasonable delay which so often occurs in the starting of the grand march and request everyone to be present at nine o'clock. To do this it will be necessary to give hack orders for early hours. The committee announce that on no account will the grand march be held after nine thirty.

Judges Selected

The judges on thought and composition for the home oratorical contest have been selected. They are: Judge H. E. Deemer, Red Oak; Mr. Neeley, Burlington; Rev. Moore, Davenport. The alternates are: Irving C. Richman, Muscatine; Judge Prouty Des Moines; Rev. Marsh, Burlington. Orations must be handed in by February 14. The home contest will be held on March 17.

Submit Question

Messrs. Kemmerer, McCoy and Walker, the Wisconsin debate team, has submitted the following question to the Wisconsin men: Resolved, that under existing conditions in the United States, a system of protective tariff would be preferable to a revenue tariff.

CLASS PLAY REJECTED

WILL NOT PRESENT MERCHANT OF VENICE

Class Does Not Stand by Committee Which Chose the Shakespearean Production for Commencement Play

At the call of President G. E. Greene the Senior Lits met in the assembly hall on Thursday afternoon. The business of the meeting was the consideration of the reports of the play and pin committees.

Caspar Schenck made the report for the committee on the class play. The committee chose the "Merchant of Venice" as the play to be presented and picked a cast for it. The selection of this play aroused much objection and after lengthy and in some cases heated discussion, a motion was carried rejecting the report of the committee. The committee immediately requested to be relieved from its duties and a motion prevailed that the committee be discharged with the thanks of the class for its earnest efforts in the selection of a play and the picking of the cast. President Greene was authorized to appoint a second committee with the understanding that they should attempt to secure a play of lighter vein than the one previously chosen.

The pin committee then submitted its report which included cuts for six pins of varied design. After some harmonious discussion by the adherents of the several designs, the committee was instructed to have two of the cuts executed into pins, these two to be submitted to the class for adoption. Of the two designs most favored, one is of the same general pattern as last year's senior pin but of somewhat different proportions. The other design, the one desired by most of the young ladies, is the black "I" mounted upon a background of a three pointed shield. The class numerals are on the "I". In fact the latter pin is a counterpart of the former except for the background. The meeting then adjourned.

Horace W. Rose

The first article in the Intercollegians for February is an eulogy upon Horace W. Rose who was general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in 1896-97. It is entitled, "Horace W. Rose ambassador of Jesus Christ to the court of the individual heart," and in referring to Mr. Rose it says, "No man has ever risen from the ranks in the colleges of Canada in the United States who in such brief time made as deep an impression on student life.

Ben H. Chamberlain and Wm. F. Bushnell leave tomorrow evening for Chicago where they will attend the grand chapter meeting of Phi Rho Sigma.

DEAN ON WASHINGTON

Gregory Speaks before Daughters of American Revolution and Other Societies

Dean Gregory addressed the Daughters of American Revolution and their invited guests, the members of the other patriotic societies at the home of Mrs. Arthur Cox on Saturday evening.

The subject of the address was "The Unconventional Washington," and dealt with the little known side of the character of the Father of His Country.

Dean Gregory also compared the efforts of Cromwell and Napoleon with those of Washington in founding an enduring empire. Prof. Gregory spoke entirely without notes and kept the keen attention of his audience for an hour.

John W. Bailey, M. '05, is confined to his room by illness.

Dr. Seashore delivered a most interesting address before the university assembly last week.

George P. West, L. A. '05, has left the university to engage in business at his home in Souix City.

Miss Elva M. Dunham, formerly matron of the Homeopathic Hospital, has again entered upon her old duties.

President Harper of Chicago University in an address to the Senior College Council pointed out the need of more singing among the students.

All orations for the Home Oratorical Contest must be submitted not later than Saturday, February 14. They may be handed to Professor Gordon's office.

As part of the Valentine Festival tonight at All Souls', there will be given 45 stereopticon views of celebrated love scene in art from all ages. The Greeks, Romans, Romantic times, Shakespeare themes, Gibbon's, Christie's,—quaint, comic, serious. For 10 cents, at 7.45 o'clock.

Dr. MacLean Better

President MacLean who has been confined to his bed by illness for the last two days was sufficiently improved today to get up and attend to the most urgent of his correspondence. It is hoped he will be able to be out by the last of the week.

Of Michigan's championshtp team Dan McGugin, the star guard has accepted an offer to coach the Western Reserve University team, and ex-Captain Weeks has practically decided to coach the University of Kansas team next year.

The Class Play

We learn on good authority that the senior class, in rejecting the report of the play committee, did so because of the play chosen and was in no way influenced by the more personal phase of the question—the cast picked to present it.

The cast was undoubtedly chosen carefully and with the best advice of the department of public speaking and probably comprised the greater part of the theatrical talent of the senior class. Were such a play to be presented the persons chosen for the several parts were as well fitted to present them as any in the University.

We hope those who were to have had parts in the "Merchant of Venice" will not take the matter personally and will be willing to help to the best of their ability in whatever play may be chosen for presentation in June. We are certain that the entire class will now pull together and present a creditable play in spite of this temporary discord.

In the DAILY IOWAN, of January 21st, is an article showing wherein so many waste their freshman year by not entering immediately into the society life and becoming interested in the literary and business life of the school. Be anxious for the first opportunity. Then you stand a better chance of making your mark among your fellow students.

—Drake Delphic.

Among the several secondary school papers which reach our exchange table, two of those most deserving of favorable comment are the "High School Review" of Boone, and the "High School Item" of LeMars. Both are replete with interesting news, intelligent editorials and witty stories.

Oldest College Daily

The Yale Daily News is the oldest college daily. It started in 1878 and was followed in 1879 by Harvard Echo, which was afterward consolidated with the Harvard Crimson under the latter's name. The Cornell Daily Sun was the third college daily, appearing in 1880. The Princetonian was organized in 1876, but did not become a daily for several years. The Pennsylvanian started as a weekly in 1885 and became a daily a few years later. Brown University was the next to have a daily as the Brown Herald originated in 1891.
