RESPONSIBILITY THE LESSON

ATHLETES HAVE IT

President Bradley Preaches Upon the Lessons Derived from Personal Freedom of a Great University

The baccalaureate exercises were held at the opera house yesterday afternoon. Promptly at four o'clock the gowned procession of graduates and faculties emerged from liberal arts hall.

President Dan F. Bradley of Iowa college preached the baccalaureate sermon taking his text from 1 Gen. 26 27, "And God said, 'Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.' So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him." He drew from these words the idea of the responsibility imposed by individual freedom.

He said that in the modern university, men living in freedom learn how to add responsibility to freedom. This is the great lesson of life today and it is learned in the university where the freedom of the individual is great and each one stands on his own intellectual and moral worth. True democracy such as belongs to the university spirit develops responsibility above all and next charity.

This university spirit is that spirit of self-forgetfulness and whole-heartedness which is sometimes seen on the gridiron in the athlete who throws himself headlong into the game.

At the close of the sermon President MacLean addressed a few words to the classes paying a fitting tribute to the late President Schaeffer under whose presidency some of the graduates entered the university. He repeated Dr. Schaeffer's oft-given words so full of meaning to the college man, "As your alma mater honors you, may you so honor her. Be True."

The program was:

JOHN G. CHALMERS SUCCEEDS KNIPE

LAFAYETTE TACKLE AND CAPTAIN UNANIMOUSLY CHOSEN

Resigns Physical Directorship of Franklin and Marshall College to Accept Iowa Position—Has a Great Reputation as Captain, Coach and Physical Director

John G. Chalmers, the new head of the department of physical training and athletics, comes to Iowa with a high reputation and the best of recommendations from well known eastern and western men who have been acquainted with him and his work.

His ability to get a great amount of work out of his men, to inspire them with great zeal and enthusiasm, and a spirit of victory, has been an especial characteristic of his work as a captain at Lafayette in 1900 and as a coach since. At Franklin and Marshall he is higher esteemed than three former coaches, Hedges, now assistant coach at Pennsylvania; Outland, lately physical director at Kansas, and Bull, now assistant coach at Pennsylvania and in '96 coach of Iowa's first strong eleven.

Mr. Chalmers was prepared for college at Delaware Academy, Delhi, N. Y. Here he was captain of the relay team and of the baseball nine. Entering Lafayette in 1897, he made the football, que. Supt. F. T. Oldt and a number of prominent college men at Dubuque recommended him highly. A. D. Chandler, a Lafayette man who was married last month to Miss Matilda Slavata, Ex-03, who played on the Lafayette eleven with Yost, Chalmers and other noted players recommended Mr. Chalmers in highest terms for the position. F. H. Yost, of Grafton, W. Va., also recommended Mr. Chalmers.

The Franklin and Marshall team last fall was defeated twice in ten games played, once by Pennsylvania, 16 to 0, and once by Ursinus college, four of the the F. and M. players on the regular team being out on account of injuries. There are 160 students at F. and M. The other teams played were defeated by the following scores: Muhlenburg college, 69-0; Haverford college, 10-0; Lebanon Valley college, 87-0; Columbian University, 36-0; Guadalete college, 57-6; Swarthmore, 11-10; Jefferson Medical 17-5; Gettysburg 12-6.

baseball, gymnasium and track teams in his freshman year. During his first two years on the eleven, Lafayette was coached by Parke H. Davis, in his last two years by Dr. S. D. Newton, Dr. Knipe's friend who spent the summer of 1899 visiting in Iowa City.

Mr. Chalmers was for two years director of the gymnasium of the Phillipsburg Athletic Club at Phillipsburg, N. J., and for the past year has been director of the gymnasium at Franklin and Marshall college.

Prof. F. A. March, Jr., chairman of the faculty athletic committee at Lafayette, recommended Mr. Chalmers very highly as the best man available to his knowledge, speaking of him especially as a man fully conversant with the latest plays and systems, a hard worker and a man determined to make a success of his work.

Dean J. R. Guthrie, of the college of medicine recommended Mr. Chalmers in the highest terms speaking from what he knew and heard of him at Dubu-

DEAN AT WISCONSIN

Professor H. S. Richards will Head Law School at Badger University

Prof. H. S. Richards, of the college of law, has been unanimously recommended by the committee of the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin for dean of the Wisconsin law school. This recommendation was made after a conference with Prof. Richards in Chicago last Thursday and it will go to the full board of regents which meets in Madison today. The recommendation undoubtedly carries an election with it which means that a signal recognition has been made of the worth and ability as a scholar and teacher of one of Iowa's faculty.

Professor Richards began the teaching of law in 1898 and is popular with both students and faculty.

RICHARDS ON HIS CHANGE

In speaking of his acceptance of Wisconsin's offer, Professor Richards said, "Wisconsin now receives $500,000 annually for her support fund, has a very strong alumni backing, and every citizen of the state seems to back the university.

"Iowa is a greater and richer state than Wisconsin, but so far the university has not received the support and backing of the state that it deserves. A large number of people of the state would rather believe falsehoods than the truth about their university. I hope that this will change. It ought to. But just now I thought I had better not wait."

WHEN AND WHERE THINGS WILL BE

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK

Governor Unable to Review Battalion Senators Hoar and Allison will Speak at Alumni Dinner

Class day exercises of the liberal arts class of '03 are being held this afternoon on the steps of the liberal arts hall. A handsome mahogany reading desk with the names of the class engraved on a silver plate on the top is being presented to the university as the class memorial.

This afternoon at four o'clock occurs the annual governor's review of the battalion on the campus. Governor Cummins was unavoidably detained in Des Moines and will not arrive in the city until tomorrow morning.

At eight o'clock this evening the senior class will give "The Rivals" at the opera house.

Tomorrow is alumni day. The headquarters for alumni is in the drawing room in the hall of liberal arts. The alumni of the college of pharmacy will hold a business meeting at 11:00 a. m. in the pharmacy lecture room. At two o'clock they will meet at Close Hall to listen to the annual addresses.

At 2:00 o'clock p. m. the business meeting of the alumni association of the university will be held in the general lecture room of the hall of liberal arts. The annual alumni dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock. Senator Hoar and Senator Allison will both speak on this occasion.

The classes of '73, '78, '83, '88, '93 and '02, have planned reunions for tomorrow. The class of '83 will meet at the opera house at 12 M. and precede to the Country Club where they will sit down to a class luncheon.

Commencement of all the colleges will be held Wednesday morning in the tent, beginning at 10:00 o'clock. The address will be given by Senator Hoar who will be introduced by Senator Allison.

The president's reception will be held in the drawing room of liberal arts hall from four to six in the afternoon.

The last thing of the week is the senior hop which will be held at Smith's armory Wednesday evening. The grand march will start at nine o'clock.

Let the Cause be Known

The Waterloo Times-Tribune has the following to say editorially of Dave Brant and his attacks on the university.

"Ever since coming to Iowa City, the seat of our state university, from Clinton, Dave Brant the editor of the Iowa City Republican has attacked the university and its management at every turn of the road. The student publication, the Iowan has stood his attacks without much comment or resentment until the present time when with much force and truthfulness it tells the reason of Brant's feeling toward the university. The feeling of cowardly opposition which Brant has toward the university is caused first by his not being recognized as a council of the board of regents of the school and second by one of the members of the board of regents, Joe Lane of Davenport, recently placed on the board, being an old time political enemy of Brant's in the second district. Lane succeeded in causing the defeat of Brant as a candidate for the nomination of lieutenant governor a couple of years ago. Now Brant is taking his revenge not on this man nor on the board of regents but upon the school which is supported by the people and is for the people of Iowa. By attacking the State University of Iowa Dave Brant not only attacks the school and board of regents but he attacks every person in the state. * * *

It would be well for the editors of Iowa to let the people know the cause of the attack on the university by the Iowa City Republican and the stories printed in other papers throughout the state. The Iowa university is attended by as good and clean a lot of young men and ladies as any school in the country and should be the pride of the state. The regents are chosen from Iowa's men and they are well able to care for and do so care for the needs of the university. Brant's attacks on the school are to say the least foolhardy and should be given credit for in proportion to the amount of love that Brant shows for the school and state.—Waterloo Times-Tribune.

THE Burlington Route has just issued two publications of great interest to homeseekers.

"Nebraska" is the title of a 48-page book descriptive of the agricultural resources of the state, profusely illustrated with farm scenes and supplemented with an accurate sectional map.

"Big Horn Basin" is an illustrated folder telling all about the rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. The Big Horn Basin contains wonderful openings for small ranches along good streams, with a million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States land laws.

THE CAPITAL CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE
F. M. C. A. Building, Des Moines, Iowa
 Is the largest and most successful commercial school in the west. Nearly one thousand students attend it each year. There are sixteen members in the faculty. The school has a national reputation and is everywhere regarded as a leader among business training schools. It occupies a position among institutions of this character similar to that of Princeton, Harvard and Yale among the leading colleges and universities. It has become famous throughout the western states by reason of the thorough work it is doing in the way of fitting young men and women for active commercial pursuits. Hundreds of our graduates are today occupying responsible positions in the principal cities and towns of the west. Call for our elegant new catalogue. It contains detailed information relative to the work of the various departments. Address, W. H. McCauley, Pres., Des Moines, Ia.
