PAY FOR ATHLETES

NEBRASKA BUSINESS MEN MAKING GIFTS

The Nebraska Athletic Council Makes Official Disclaimer

(From the Daily Nebraskan)

Following is the official statement of Dr. Clapp, made by him expressly for the readers of The Nebraskan, concerning the raising of money from the business men of Lincoln by students for the purpose of defraying the expenses of athletes in the University:

"University of Nebraska, Sept. 22, 1903.—Inasmuch as rumors regarding the collection of money by students and others from the business and professional men of Lincoln, for bringing prominent athletes to the University and for defraying expenses of athletes at the University, have reached the athletic board, be it hereby resolved that the public be notified that no person is authorized by the athletic board of this University to make any collections; that all such actions on the part of students or others, be condemned; that the business and professional men of Lincoln are hereby requested to refuse to support such subscriptions and to report any such action to the secretary of the athletic board of the University.

(Signed.) R. G. CLAPP,
Sec. of Athletic Board.

The standpoint of the board is very clearly stated and it is hoped that the students as a body will aid in suppressing all and any attempts to collect money which are contrary to these resolutions.

Golf Club

It may not be generally known to the students of the university that an opportunity is given them to play golf by the Iowa City Golf Club, whose links are at the foot of Jefferson street just east of the city. This club is open to the student body. Applications for membership will be received by either Dr. Frank Horack or Mr. John Planck, treasurer of the First National bank. Next Friday afternoon the City Golf Club will have a tournament with the Country Club.

Katherine Switzer teaches at Cherokee.

AMUSEMENTS

"At Cripple Creek," Hal Reid's best play, will be presented by an admirable and evenly balanced company of players at the Opera House next Friday night Oct. 2. The scenes of the play are laid in the heart of the Rocky Mountains and "At Cripple Creek." It unfolds a story of strong heart interest, filled with scenes of pathetic beauty.

"TAKE THE IOWAN" SAYS PRES. M'LEAN

OFFICIAL NOTICES WILL BE PRINTED HERE

President MacLean Says Every Student Should Take the Daily Iowan

"Every student will look for official notices in the DAILY IOWAN, as all official orders will be published there," said Pres. G. E. MacLean at the university assembly this morning.

ALL SHOULD SUBSCRIBE

"I would advise every student to subscribe for THE DAILY IOWAN" continued the President. "I am not getting any commission for saying this either," added Dr. MacLean amid applause.

Pres. MacLean gave his advice to students of the university at the opening assembly of the year. Dr. MacLean read a number of notices which were of importance to students and concluded them with the notice in regard to official bulletins and the recommendation that every student subscribe for the university newspaper.

COL. BLAKE ON THE BOERS

A full house and crowded doorway at the first assembly this morning gave evidence of the popularity of our weekly meetings. After the usual services Prof. Burnett of the military department introduced his classmate Colonel Blake who spoke briefly of the Boer. The colonel praised them from every point of view and stated that murder and suicide were unknown to them.

Saturday night the Y. M. C. A. will give a reception to university men. There will be a gymnasium exhibition consisting of acrobatic work by Messrs. Bailey, Rule, Randall, Brackett and Schenck; a punching-bag exhibition by Mr. Kingsbury of Des Moines; and a basket-ball game between last year's team and five new stars who have entered the university this year.

As men could not be secured to do the work, ten of the university Tennis players armed with seven hoes, two rakes and a fork, attacked the peaceful jungle known as the University Tennis Courts yesterday and in two hours had made the courts fit for use.

Kappa Sigma last night initiated Bruce Hedges L. '06 of Marango, Alexander Moore L. '06 of Missouri Valley, and Frank Will '07 of Des Moines.

Dr. Bessie Casebeer D. '96 of Tipton is visiting her uncle Judge Haddock.

Marjorie Quigely is teaching English in the high school at Detroit City, Minn.

THE IOWA-COE GAME

SECOND GAME PLAYED THIS AFTERNOON

Rain this Forenoon Keeps Down the Attendance at the Game

Iowa played Coe this afternoon before a fair crowd. The rain last night and this afternoon kept a great many from attending the game.

The field was in poor condition as a result of the frequent rains the last few days. This prevented both teams from doing as fast work as was expected.

The Coe squad, 21 in number, arrived at noon and registered at the St. James. They are a fine bunch of players of whom Coe may be justly proud. Coach Bryant, who formerly was a player at Princeton, expressed himself as satisfied that the men are in good condition.

The Coe line up was as follows: Coe. i. e. Ball (Capt.), l. t. Currens, l. g. Chandler, c. Burma r. g. Youll, r. t. Ratsch, r. e. Benson, q. b. Clark, l. h. b. Steincke, r. h. b. Martin, f. b. Roberts.

The score of the first half was Iowa 5, Coe 0.

Dr. Johnson Returned

Dr. Lora Johnson of the College of Homeopathic Medicine has returned to her work after a six months absence in Europe.

Dr. Johnson has been pursuing special work in the medical schools and hospitals of London, having taken a four months course in the "London University School of Medicine for Women," and a course in London Homeopathic Hospital.

In the latter hospital she acted as a clinical assistant in the "out-patient" dept.

Dr. Johnson received an invitation to go through St. Thomas' Hospital, London, and enjoys the distinction of being the first and only woman to have had the privilege. Aside from her work in London she spent about three weeks upon the continent; in Paris; in Switzerland and on the Rhine.

She now returns refreshed and full of enthusiasm reporting a very pleasant and profitable trip.

Tennis Tournament

Twenty men have already entered.

The handicap will begin Saturday. The open the same day. Entries should be handed or mailed to H. J. Brackney, H. W. Brackney, 113 E. Court St., or J. T. Bailey, 314 Brown St.

Notices will be posted on the grounds as far as possible.

Miss Olive Chase, L. A. ex-'05 is attending Oread Institute, a school of domestic science, at Worcester, Mass.

The Zetaganian society assisted by the Hesperians entertained the freshmen in their hall Monday evening.

The excuses that are offered to avoid drill are in the highest sense amusing. Those of whom you would never have believed it, now have conscientious and religious scruples for not wishing to drill. Then the number of those who are physically disabled is alarming. It makes one shudder to think of the way in which the race is degenerating. No one works harder than Colonel Burnett, and to have such flimsy excuses trumped up is disgusting. There are a few, who ought not to drill, but they are few. One of the requirements of the university is drill. Everyone who comes here knows this. And every student should be willing to obey, not alone this rule but every other rule of the university. A person, who cannot do this, is of little value in any social organization.

Beginning next week the IOWAN will have a freshman contest for places on the board. Every freshman in the university can compete, no matter to what college he belongs. Previous experience in newspaper work is not necessary. Merit alone will win the place. Those desiring to compete should consult the editor-in-chief at once.

The Freshman is now the all absorbing topic. Societies, sororities, and fraternities are making his acquaintance; until, in his letters home, he is the most popular person in the university.
