OMAHA COULD NOT PUT UP GUARANTEE

High School Boys Talked of Doing it—Failed to Make Good With the Money

The Iowa-Nebraska game will be played on Iowa Field.

That is the outcome of moving the game to Omaha which has been in progress for the past two weeks.

SOME BOLD PROMOTERS

The attempt to change the game to Omaha was the attempt of two high school boys with credit limited to their week's allowances to play the part of the bold promoter.

TWO CHOICE SPIRITS

Out in Omaha, there are some 2,000 high school students. The superintendent frowns on athletics and at the last big football game in which Omaha high was engaged, eleven tickets were sold among the students. But there are a few choice spirits in the school that keep things going despite the odds. The two choicest are H. H. Putman, halfback on the football team and George Thompson, who plays left tackle. These are the men who sell the tickets to the Omaha public and keep the high school treasury not too deep in the red ink at the bank.

Securing some sort of an option on a race track at Omaha, Putman and Thompson went to Lincoln a month ago to induce Manager Buckner of Nebraska to play the Haskell Indians on their grounds. Buckner told him to go after Iowa. It is a longer trip from Lincoln to Iowa City than it is from Lincoln to Omaha.

The managers of the Omaha high school athletics thereupon printed letter heads bearing the name of the "Omaha Driving Park Association" and corresponded with Manager Spangler. They offered him a certified check for $3500 as a guarantee and only wished ten per cent of the receipts for ground rent. W. J. Burgess, manager of Boyd's theatre, also opened up negotiations with Manager Spangler.

CERTIFIED CHECK WAS SHY

The dream is dead. The certified check was not waiting Manager Spangler when he reached Omaha. In its stead Messrs. Putman and Thompson proffered "the guarantee of the Omaha High School Association, which is just as good as a certified check." Mr. Burgess would not give a guarantee satisfactory to Iowa. Omaha does not look like a football town and Iowa cannot risk going their this year without a guarantee.

So the game will be played on Iowa field.

Polygon met last night with Miss Florence Odell.

THE HOSPITAL CLINICS

Doctors who Will Conduct the Different Clinics at the Hospital

Dr. William Jepson who was elected to the chair of surgery in the University a year ago, conducts a steadily growing clinic on Monday and Tuesday of each week.

Dr. James R. Guthrie, Dean of College of Medicine, and one of the best and most favorably known physicians of the state conducts a clinic for the diseases of women on Tuesdays of each week.

Dr. W. L. Bierring conducts a clinic on internal medicine on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Dr. L. W. Dean conducts a clinic on Monday, Wednesday and Friday on diseases of the ear nose and throat.

Dr. J. B. Kessler conducts on each Wednesday a clinic for diseases of the skin and on the same day Dr. J. W. Dalbey conducts a clinic for diseases of the eye. Clinics for physical examination are also conducted on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week by Dr. Mueller.

Senior Girls Election

The Senior girls held a meeting yesterday afternoon and elected the following officers, Lulu Moulton president, Lulu Miles vice-president, Martha Patti secretary, Lela Blaine treasurer. A committee was appointed to choose a name for the society,

The Senior girls held a meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers. Lulu Moulton was elected president, Lulu Miles, vice-president, Martha Pattie, secretary, and Lela Blaine, treasurer. A Committee was appointed to select a name for the organization.

Prof. F. E. Bolton leaves tonight for Council Bluffs, where he will have charge of the Round Table on Child Study, at the Southwestern Teachers Association. He will also deliver an address upon the subject. Dr. Brown and Prof. Ansley will also be at the meeting.

The Inter-collegiate Bible Study Institute is being held today at Coe college, Cedar Rapids. Many of the principal college Y. M. C. A. are represented at the meeting. Secretary Carrol W. Smith of this city addressed the meeting upon the "Means of Doubling the Enrollment."

The Philomatheans and Octave Thanets have recently placed a new moquette carpet, draperies and some minor improvements in their hall. With a cheerful home in a cosy hall, the election of several strong new numbers and the pledges of several more, these two societies anticipate an unusually successful year.

INDETERMINATE TERM

Article by C. W. Wassam '03 in Last Bulletin of Iowa Institutions

The recent bulletin of Iowa Institutions contains an article on the "Indeterminate Sentence" by Clarence W. Wassam '03. Mr. Wassam, who is scholar in sociology, has collected and reviewed the reports of the various institutions were the indeterminate sentence is in use. He has also carefully traced the development of the idea from the appearance of the first leading article in the London Review in 1830.

"The indeterminate sentence," he contends, "would reform our prison system making better prisons, better officers, and better discipline a necessity. It would protect society by keeping the hardened criminal continually incarcerated. It would be a financial saving to the state, one trial being sufficient for the determined criminal. It would save thousands of young men for a useful career, who are to-day dying in our poorly lighted and poorly ventilated prisons. It would replace the barbaric idea of retribution by the hopeful thought of reformation."

"The two sources of opposition to the indeterminate sentence to-day are: First, the hardened criminal, as he knows it will mean life for him; and the second class is the criminal lawyers who hope to lessen the sentence of the criminal."

"When the intelligent people of our country realize who the opposers of this movement are, then, we will have taken a long step toward its adoption."

Delta Gamma Initiation

Ada Ragsdale and Laura Walker of Des Moines; Margueret Raguet of Davenport; Henriett Plock of Burlington; Beulah Bissell of Independence; and Grace Crockett of Iowa City were initiated into Delta Gamma last evening. The initiation, which was held at the home of Mrs. Frederick B. Sturm, consisted simply of the taking of the mock ritual. The final initiation will be this evening at the home of Miss Mabel Swisher.

Will Coulter L. A. '06 is pledged to Sigma Chi.

The first meeting of the political science club will be held at the home of Professor I. A. Loos on Monday evening, October 26. Dr. D. H. Ward will read the paper.

The Central Iowa Homeopathic Medical association will hold a meeting in this city probably on December 16 or 17, the date not yet having been definitely decided. President W. L. Bywater is now beginning the preparation of the program which will be announced in a few weeks.

Even class election contests have a place in university life. They prevent any one class from gaining control, but more, they arouse student activity and interest.

One indication of life and growth in a university is the number of student organizations. A number of new ones have been organized this year and several old ones brought back to active life.

One of the great factors in college life is the college paper. To make it of the greatest value requires active support. Support means not alone financial but moral. It is a good plan to hand in news now and then. They will appreciate it. One thing that makes a paper possible is the support of its advertisers. The merchants of Iowa City are the friends and supporters of student enterprises. Give them your help. Trade with them, they will treat you right.

Next week the Order of the Eastern Star will meet in this city. They will be the guests of the university at the assembly Wednesday. Many of them have friends and relatives in the university. The student body will give them the courteous treatment which they accord all guests. Yet we can expect some livid stories with heavy head lines and garbed editorials from some little country weekly with a 200 subscription list. The fact, that the university students come from the very best families of the state and are ladies and gentlemen seems to bother some people.

The Sophomore class at Michigan University, last year, drew up a set of rules for the Freshmen. These rules forbid Freshmen to smoke a pipe on the campus, or sit in the first five rows at the theater, or to enter certain refreshment places or to wear silk hats, and required them to wear Freshmen caps.

At a meeting of the Senior society, Michigamma, this week, it was decided to support these rules and to aid in their enforcement.

It is the opinion of Michigamma that by establishing permanently such customs here, college spirit will be strengthened and so they have determined to act in the matter this year and will decide extreme cases.

The University of Minnesota gives a few new "stunts" in undergraduate rushes. The sophomore dents and fresh medics recently decided to settle class supremacy by choosing individuals to represent the class in various contests. After a series of boxing and wrestling matches the sophs won out by a score of six to one.

PRESIDENT.

"Our colleges turn out some pretty good men nowadays," remarked the elderly gentleman.

"Yes," replied his son, gloomily "our college turned out the man who was sure to have won the hundred-yard dash for us next year—just because he didn't pass any of his examinations."

President Harper told the women of Chicago University that parents are hesitating about having their daughters live on the Chicago campus because of the evil of "rushing." About 20 per cent of the freshman girls failed last autumn, and to prevent a similar percentage of failures this fall, severe measures will be taken to stop an excess of social engagements for freshman.

If you wish to secure a position to teach, write to James F. McCullough 639 Fine Arts Building, Chicago.

Does it pay to advertise? We have found that it does because we always do what we advertise. Many merchants think it does not because their advertisements mean nothing. We have given you just two price announcements. The second one brought bigger crowds than the first. We knew it would because you cannot refrain from telling your neighbor about the bargains at the store. This ad. will bring bigger crowds still. Join them and go to the store where the bargains they are talking about, are to be found : : : :

59c for Ladies Black or Colors in Kid Gloves. Our Chicago buyer was especially fortunate in picking up this lot. They are a regular $1.00 grade, but the lots are broken. This price should set the whole city talking. If you want a pair don't hesitate for there are only 25 dozen and they'll go quick.

$7.98 for fine Kersey Cloth Jackets, satin lined. When you are looking at this particular garment bear in mind the $10.00 goods from other stores.

59c for choice of 15 dozen Ladies Black Mercerized Sateen Petticoats with 11 inch flounce and ruffle and two mercerized sateen bands. Compare them with the best $1 skirts you have seen.

49c for choice of a large lot Men's Work Gloves. You are in the habit of paying 65c to 75c a pair for such as these

29c for late style, straight front Corset. This was a most fortunate purchase and the equal of these corsets cannot be found for less than 65c. Colors: Pink, Blue and White.

Spend your money where it goes farthest. Don't judge our goods by the price. Investigate and try and prove our assertions untrue—we'll take all chances.
