THE PRELIMINARIES

FOUR HOME CONTESTS HELD THIS YEAR

Members Representing Various Societies in Preliminaries Have Been Selected

ILLINOIS DEBATE

Iowa will this year have four preliminary debates. The first of these will be the Illinois preliminary which probably will be held November 6. The debate will be among the members of the Philomathian society on the question: "Resolved, that the general assembly of Iowa adopt a state-wide compulsory primary election law."

H. E. Dow, E. R. Jackson, and A. C. MacLane will appear for the affirmative and J. W. Meyer, C. E. Moffit and Paul Dorweiler for the negative; From these contestants will be chosen the final team, which debates the University of Illinois at Champaign, Ill. January 15.

NORTHWESTERN CONTEST

The Northwestern preliminary on the second Friday in January will probably be the next contest. Here the Hammond Law Senate will meet the Forum for the purpose of determining the representatives of Iowa in the Iowa Northwestern debate held later in the year. The winning society will place two representatives on the inter-university debate and the losing society will select the other member of the team. In the preliminary the question "Resolved, that the direct personal property tax should be abolished in the state of Iowa" will be affirmed for Forum by C. R. Sutherland, E. A. Schiefelbein, and S. D. Whiting and denied for Hammond by B. A. Humphrey, J. F. Kirby, and J. E. Cross.

WISCONSIN—MINNESOTA DEBATE

The Wisconsin and Minnesota preliminaries will be held between Irving Institute and the Zetagathian Society. Neither have the dates been fixed nor the questions selected for these contests. They usually are held in January or February.

In the Iowa-Minnesota debate, Iowa will deny the question "Resolved, that the United States should now adopt a tariff for revenue only." A similar question will likely be chosen for the preliminary in which Zetagathia will be represented by R. C. Quigley, F. F. Randall, and Ray Files and Irving, by J. D. Lynch, A. C. Gordon, and O. R. Davis.

The question for the Iowa-Wisconsin debate is to be submitted, this year, by Wisconsin which yields to Iowa the choice of sides. In the preliminary Irving Institute will be represented by R. A. Redfield, J. F. Kunz, and Henry Walker and the Zetagathian Society by W. T. Brinton, F. E. Suedicor, and Purley Rinker.

Nebraska and Iowa Ready For the Big Game Tomorrow

The Iowa and Nebraska teams will probably line up tomorrow as follows:

IOWA		NEBRASKA
Coulthard	le	Benedict
F. Buckley	lt	S. Mason
Donovan	lg	Cotton
Johnston	c	Borg
Schwinn	rg	Leah
Magowan	rt	Robertson
Watters	re	Wilson
Griffith	qb	Bender
Jones	lb	Eager
Allen	rb	Bell
Gibbs	fb	G. Mason

Weights of teams—Nebraska 168, Iowa 165.

Officials—Ralph Hoagland, of Princeton, Russell C. Marks of Yale, Linesman, Frank Pixley, Omaha.

Place of game, Iowa field, Saturday 3:00 p. m.

BOOTH HAS A GOOD TEAM

"We have a good team this year, a bunch of bright, willing, fine-hearted Nebraskans," said "Bummy" Booth, the old Princeton center who has coached Nebraska since 1900, this noon.

KNOWS NOTHING OF RESULT

"Of the result tomorrow, I have nothing to say, except that the game should be a good one," continued Coach Booth.

"Nebraska has played some fine games this year, and again

it has played some that did not come up to expectations; We played a good game against Denver, and a fine game against the Haskell Indians two weeks ago;

LAST YEAR'S NEBRASKA TEAM

"Two weeks ago, I thought I had a team this year, that equalled last year's Nebraska eleven. Now I do not feel so sure about it. Its a hard matter to tell about such things, anyway."

NEBRASKANS PRACTICE

The Nebraska eleven practiced on Iowa field at 2:30 his afternoon. Prof. Chalmers gave Coach Booth full control of the field for as long as the Nebraskans wished to practice, and the gates were guarded by Nebraska substitutes.

The Nebraska team left Lincoln at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. They arrived in Iowa City at two o'clock this morning. They will return in their private car, which is side tracked in the Rock Island yards, leaving Iowa City at 11:44 Saturday night and reach Lincoln at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

IOWA PRACTICE

The varsity practiced on Iowa field at the usual hour. The practice was secret, as it has been since Wednesday. Only light signal practice was given to the team.

BOOTH ON FOOTBALL

SAYS IT MAKES MEN AND COLLEGE SPIRIT

Winning not the Best in Football, but the Development of Manhood.

"Winning—winning—winning is that all there is in football?" asked Coach Booth, of Nebraska this noon in talking of the football game played and to be played in the west this year.

"I would not coach a lick if I thought winning was the object of my coaching. Victory is all right, but it is not the best thing in football.

THE BEST THING IN FOOTBALL

"The best thing in football is the development of spirit, the development of spirit, the football feeling in men. It's the making of a college spirit, the uniting of all the students and alumni and friends of a college, that's what counts in football. Welding all the elements of a college, making all things count together for the college, that is what makes coaching seem worth while. Developing the best in the men under our training, making big-hearted, whole-souled fellows, making men out of boys, that is the best in football and it's what is keeping a lot of us in the coaching business year after year when we ought in justice to our futures to be doing something else.

"So when you talk of a football coach as a being manufactured for the express purpose of winning, you talk of a person you know little about. There are lots of things in the way of winning, but if a coach makes men out of his players and, after he has been at a school for three or four years, can see that he has brought the students and alumni together through his efforts, has united college spirit, and made the university mean more to the students and alumni than it did when he went there, I say he has been a big success, and I don't care whether his team has won or lost its games."

Beginning with Wednesday, November 4, and continuing until May 1, there will be given a course of lectures on "The History of the Scandinavian Languages," hour 11-12, credit 1½ hours. The course will lay special stress on the relation of these languages to German and English. Open to graduate students in the language departments and to especially qualified juniors and seniors. Those who desire to take this course and have not already registered for it should consult me immediately. The hour may be changed if necessary. GEORGE T. FLOM.

Mass Meeting—Liberal Arts Auditorium 7:30 tonight.

Look on this Picture; then on that Puzzle--Where is Purity?

THIS PICTURE

N. W. MacChesney and C. G. Roe of the University of Michigan, in a sworn affidavit, say Walter Eckersall, the University of Chicago quarterback, confessed to them that the University of Chicago offered him free board and tuition, $40 a month for one hour's work a week keeping books, and a coaching position when he graduates.

THAT PICTURE

Prof. A. A. Stagg of Chicago denies these affidavits and says that MacChesney offered to pay every cent of Eckersall's expenses if he would attend the University of Michigan.

Prof. Stagg says that Mr. MacChesney is in no position to throw stones at Chicago, because Eckersall chose Chicago instead of Michigan.

Walter Eckersall himself says that he never confessed anything to MacChesney, that Stagg never offered him anything, and that the reason why he attended Chicago was because he admired it very much for its scholastic advantages.

Sororities Initiate

Wednesday evening Kappa Kappa Gamma initiated to membership, Florence Berry of Iowa City and Pauline Crouse of Waterloo. Pi Beta Phi initiated Hazel Higley of Iowa City, Sadie Holliday of Burlington and Mignon Maynard of Council Bluffs.

Edda will meet next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Geo. F. Flom, 609 Summit street. Mrs. P. C. Coast will render selections from the Norwegian composers Grieg and Sinding.

Jastrow Coming

Professor Joseph Jastrow of the department of psychology at Wisconsin University will lecture here next week, Wednesday and Thursday. He will speak before the philosophical club Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 on the "Sub-Conscious." In the evening he will give a lecture on the Psychology of Speech. The public may attend either lecture.

Cross Country Contest

It is very important that every class elect a cross country captain at once. The captain should at once see that every member of his class is in the run. The first competitive run will be November 5. There is still time to do some good training. The honor of your class is at stake, save it.

Nonpariel Second Regents

The Nonpariel says, in its editorial columns, after looking over President MacLean's biennial report to the governor:

"President MacLean is right in his statement, 'If we do not get the financial support asked for by the regents other universities will continue to rob us of instructors and students.'

"There is no doubt about it. Iowa has been somewhat penurious with its state university and where other states not so able to give have contributed hundreds of thousands Iowa has appropriated but tens of thousands. The State University of Michigan has an annual social support fund of $700,000, the Universities of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska and Missouri, lying on our borders, have annual support funds of $400,000 or more while Iowa's institution has but $240,000. As a result if Iowa's university campus and buildings were set down beside those of other states the contrast would cheapen our school tremendously. As a further result, the attendance at Iowa has grown practically none in the past half dozen years, while those of other state universities has gone forward by leaps and bounds.

The state can no longer afford to allow the reputation and standing of its leading educational institution to suffer in this manner. In its general resources Iowa is the richest state in the union and its people are the most happy and prosperous, its school system is its pride, and yet its university is really cramped and hampered by the lack of funds. Iowa should be ashamed of itself.

The Whitney society will meet next Monday evening at 7:30. Prof. C. W. Eastman will give a paper on "Hebbel."

AMUSEMENTS

Don't forget that the society event of the season will be the engagement of Miss Valeska Storbeck. At the opera house next Tuesday, November 3.

A new melodramatic production with a somewhat sensational title "A Hidden Crime" will appear at the opera house next Monday. It is a four act comedy drama depicting life in the far western state of California, and covering a wild field of action from the palaces of the wealthy to the slums of Chinatown, San Francisco. The production is said to be mounted in a sumptuous manner.

Hampton & Hopkins' beautiful production of "Sandy Bottom," which comes to the opera house Friday night, October 30, is one of those plays which will live for years because there is nothing vulgar, crude or coarse in its construction, nor filled with melodramatic clap-trap. It is simply a wholesome, heartsome play, a story from life in which the characters are natural and human, which, when coupled with faultless presentations by so capable a company of players makes it a play that every one should see.

The national Association of Collegiate Alumnae will hold its annual meeting at Milwaukee, November 5, 6. Dean Alice Young will attend as the delegate of the Iowa Chapter.

Every professor and instructor in the University should have an Oliver Typewriter. Nearly every one would have it, were its advantages known. It costs nothing to find out. J. T. BAILEY, Telephone D. 6. 314 Brown St.
