FRANK W. RUSSELL
NOTED ALUMNUS AND SCIENTIST DEAD

His Work Enriched the Museum and Brought Honor to His Alma Mater

The sad news reached this city Saturday of Frank W. Russell at Kingman Arizona, where he had been hoping to recover from ill health due to re-municipal service. Mr. Russell came from Ft. Bodego Iowa, and entered the University of Illinois in 1898. He received his bachelor's degree in science in 1892 and his master's degree three years later. The following year gave him a doctor's degree and soon after he took up the professor of anthropology.

At Iowa he was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa and of the university literary society. He was also associate editor of the "Hawkeye" the first annual published.

In 1891, while yet in school, he began what has been the interests of the university, and here he conceived the idea of an Arctic expedition. Upon his return the board of regents approved the plan and he was sent to the north. Three expeditions were made, in 1893, 1894, and 1895. These expeditions were educational methods of the interests of the university, and he was satisfied. The story is English department at Iowa has published in 1898. Especially study this that Professor Foster

FRANCE CATHEDRALS

Professor Andre Michel to Lecture Here in January

Prof. Andre Michel will lecture before the students of Iowa sometime in January. He is curator of the Louvre Museum of Paris, and has been professor of Fine Arts in L'Estoile since 1896. "He is the greatest living authority on French Art," says J. J. Jussarand.

His lecture will be illustrated by stereooptican views. The subject of his talk will be "Les Grandes Cathedrales Francaises; Notre Dame de Paris, d'Amiens, Chartres, Reims et de Bourges."

TO INSPECT IOWA

Member of Moseley Commission to Visit English Department

T. Gregory Foster, professor of geology at the University of London, is expected here to visit the University of Iowa. He has been invited to address the assembly which on that account will be held on Thursday. He comes here in the interest of the Mose-ley commission consisting of the leading educators of Great Britain whose object is to study the University of the United States. The wide reputation of the English department at Iowa has attracted the attention of the commission, and it is chiefly to study this that Professor Foster comes here.

Y. W. State Convention

This week occurs the annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Associations of Iowa at Ottumwa. Miss A. R. B. Strong, president of the State College at Ames will be a prominent speaker. Miss Mary Dunn of the city department, and Miss Frances Bridges, of the student department of the American Committee, will be present as well as Miss Mary Hill of Cedar Rapids. The Bible lessons will throw much light on Old Testament customs. All of the Iowa colleges will be represented. The University of Iowa will have a delegation of eleven members.

Miss Harriet Holt, assistant in French is ill at the university hospital.

Prof. W. C. Wilcox read a paper entitled "Two Conventions," before the political science club last evening. The club met at the home of Professor Holton.

The University of Iowa has a denominational society held an informal reception Saturday night in honor of H. R. Hadley of Chicago. The young people were visiting in the city. Mr. McCoy was with them much of the time giving the visiting gentlemen a short address.

WALKER WINS OUT

GETS FIRST PLACE IN HAMILTON CONTEST

Iowa Preliminary Held Saturday—The Contest at the Other Colleges

At the home contest for the Hamilton Club prize, H. G. Waller '04 won first place receiving three firsts from the judges on thought and composition. Professor Loos, of St. Shambaugh and Dr. Cadby, and one from the judges of the University Press. President Maclean, Professor Maitland, and Miss Everts. Mr. Bryson received two firsts on this decision. This decision entitles Mr. Walter to represent the University. His ornatus will be printed and sent to the Hamilton Club at Chicago by November 15. Here it will be judged on thought and composition with orations from the Universities of Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, and Chicago. Northwestern University and Knox College. The authors of the four highest of these orations will be selected to address the Hamilton Club on January 11. This Club defrays the expenses of the four contestants and offers a prize of $100 for first place and $50 for second. The winner also receives membership in the Hamilton Club.

The contest at Chicago has but two contestants for the Hamilton contest. Northwestern has none as yet. The conditions published by the club states that on the program shall be drawn from orations that either Chicago or Northwestern shall have first place. At Wisconsin there is considerable discussion as to whether John Marshall is a contemporary of Hamilton. One of the Wisconsin contestants has chosen marshall for his subject and Wisconsin authorities fear he may be debarred on that account. There are contestants entered in the preliminary, which will be held tomorrow night.

The Illinois contest for representative for the Illinois chapter of the National Competition Club was held Saturday night. There were five contestants. G. H. Gallaher of the University of Illinois won first place, F. Niedermeyer sec-tend first and T. H. F. Smith third.

Prof. Shimek's botany class spent Saturday inspecting the flora at Hills.

R. G. Cushion '04, has left for his home in Extras, called there by the death of his father.

The date of the holding of the convention of the Central Iowa Homophelic society in this city has been fixed for December.

M. W. J. Teeters, who has been in the university hospital for the past nine weeks, is much improved and has been taken home on the west side.

DIE GERMANIA INITIATES

Frank W. Russell

There is sorrow at Iowa for one of her sons, whom Death has taken away. From Arizona, last Saturday came the news of the death of Frank W. Russell. Broken in health, he was compelled to give up his work at Cambridge last June. He had hoped to gain strength in the west, but his almost superhuman work, for his beloved science, has undermined a mind too rugged constitution, and the structure fell.

Among the most highly honorated graduates of Iowa was Frank W. Russell. Among the young men of science none ranked higher, and in his chosen line, of anthropology, he was a leader. A brilliant scholar, an upright man and a courteous gentleman, he made hosts of friends at his alma mater. Forced by circumstances to win his education by hardest work and privations, he never faltered until he reached his goal, a doctor’s degree from Harvard. His love has ever been for his alma mater, and although other institutions and societies banded honors upon him, still his thoughts were for Iowa, and the love of his hands enriched her.

A tablet to his memory is inscribed on specimens after speci men in the museum. Nearly every specimen that is valuable, care, or difficult of attainment is his gift.

At the untimely end of a life filled with such promise, we can but ask and question, why? To his sorrowing ones we can offer but our sincere sympathy, for he was one of us, and the loss is ours.

AMUSEMENTS

Manager Colleen has booked Stieen's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" for the opera house tonight. It is a well known fact that the Stieen company is one of the best that has ever presented this great play, and this season will but add to its popularity with young and old, for it is even better than what it has been, if such a thing can be possible to so good a company. New features have been added and old ones given a better interpretation. The musical part of the program has been greatly increased. It is said to have the heaviest scenic equipment of any company traveling.

Miss Stella Lowman, '02, teacher in the Tipton schools spent Sunday at her home in this city.
