Who to Payments

New students and old as well frequently ask themselves where they shall trade. We recommend our advertisers to you. They are substantial, and honest business men. They will treat you fair. They have helped many a student publication and enterprise. It is up to you to help them. Patronize the business men of Iowa City, who are loyal to university enterprises.

Farewell to Fudge

An edict has gone forth from Michigan that there shall be no more fudge. Can it be possible that even a cold blooded intellectual faculty could think of such an action. A fudgeless university is no university. What do we come to school for anyway? In the words of the immortal "Give us fudge or give us death." Take away fudge and you break the only tie that binds us together. Without fudge what could we find to do of an evening? The old custom of holding hands has gone out of date in student society, so what could we do?

Should this Carrie Nation crusade become general, we predict that only the basis will wag the silent flight through the classic halls of learning. Michigan we sorrow with you, and rejoice that Iowa fudge is a part of the curriculum.
