RAWDEN'S VALET TELLS OF SOCIAL PLOTTING

Testimony Hard for Crawleys-

Hard Legal Battle In the

Primrose Case

In the case of Crawley v.

Scotty, the cross-examination of Lord Dunn was finished with little weakening in his testimonjaly on a ten day trip for inspections. The next witness called was

C. C. Noel, until recently valet of Lord Crawley. His testimony dus far has been clear and, leads to incriminate the character of the Crawleys. He showed them both as little more than ad venturers in the spiritual world, in motherly instincts, and spent most of their time with the heating in efforts to get money from them. Crawley was usually glooming and grinning. Very seldom did they display any affection for one another, or ever give any solicitude for each other.

There was little or no regard on either in a position. Throughout the testimony was a story of plotting and intrigue, and lack of moral sensibilities.

MARRIAGE VALID

In the case of Primrose v.

Thorhill now on in referee

Hampton's court, the main fight will be on the testimony of Jenkison. Both sides claim the case from his evidence.

On cross-examination, the vicar has testified that he believed her marriage to be for Olivia to be valid.

The marriage certificate was introduced, and Jenkinson testified it was the one he paid for. Olivia was also tes-tifed, that Olivia willingly took part in the marriage ceremony which was performed by father Kelley a Roman Catholic priest. Upon these facts the defense will probably contend that the marriage is valid.

Siggma Nu entertained Miss

Nadine Perryman and Miss

Eleanor McNett, Tuesday evening.

Dr. J. F. Brown left last evening for Des Moines for inspection of public schools. Last week he visited schools at Polk, New Sharon and Monroe.

Professor Samuel Calvin returned from his trip to Vancouver, B. C. Tuesday morning. As this was a somewhat hurried trip, no special business will be, have made no extended observations.

A meeting of the Political Science Club was held at the home of Dean Carrier Monday evening. Dr. Frank E. Horack read a paper on the "Recognition of Delinquency and Independence. Special reference was made to the matter in the Panama situation.

AMUSEMENTS

The Katzenjammer Kids, Blondell and Pennassay's Musical comedy to appear at the opera house next Monday night is said not only to be a very funny show but creates no little amusement to many who try to pronounce or spell the word "Katzenjammer." The latest and most modern style of the word in the way of pronunciation would be, "cats-in-jam-or-Kids."

The Iowa College Glee Club completely captured our city last Friday evening, drawing out to the opera house a large audience of our very best people. The entertainment was indeed fine all that was anticipated, and more. The Glee Club of eighteen male voices was superb each of its charming numbers eliciting rapturous applause, prolonged to encore and double encore.—Mason City Express. At the Congregational Church Saturday, December 16, her services of Congregational Y.P.S.C.E.

The success of the book, "Quincy Adams Sawyer," and the play made from it, to be seen here at the opera house Thursday night becomes all the more interesting and remarkable when it is known that the publication of the novel was the experiment of a young woman, Carro M. Clark, who made $50,000 in one year out of the venture. Her royalties from the play have already reached a very handsome sum. The big production to be seen here is the same one which delighted the New York audience at the Academy of Music. Secure your seats.
