NOW FOR ILLINOIS

UNIVERSITIES TO MEET ON THE FORUM

Contest at Champaign—Iowa Men Well Prepared and Hope To Win

Iowa and Illinois will clash upon the forum at Champaign tonight.

The three Iowa representatives Paul Dorweiler, '04, E. R. Jackson, '04, and H. E. Dow, '06, all members of the Philomathian literary society left yesterday afternoon for Champaign. They have trained long and faithfully for the event and are in shape to give the Illini all that is coming to them. A member of the team stated that they were not filled with confidence but were rather determined.

All of the members of the Iowa team have had more or less experience in debating. Dorweiler was a member of the team that lost to Illinois last year. Jackson was a member of his sophomore class team, and Dow took first prize last year in the freshman oratorical contest.

The men composing the Illinois team have had even more experience. The three members of the team are F. H. Doeden '04, A. B. Dorman, '04, and L. H. Moeschel, '05. Dorman participated in the Illinois-Missouri debate last year and the other numbers have also been on important contests.

The question to be discussed is: "Resolved, That the closed shop policy of trades unions is detrimental to the best interests of organized labor." Iowa will affirm.

The judges are to be Professor Grey of Northwestern; Dean Reinhart of the Indiana university law department and Professor Hatfield of Chicago University.

The members of the Iowa team expect to return home tomorrow.

Shakespearean Treat

The university students of Shakespeare were admitted to a rare treat yesterday through the presence of Mr. John Griffith the well known Shakespearean actor in the city. Mr. Griffith appeared in Macbeth at the opera house last night in a very satisfactory performance. The members of the upper classes in the English department were given the opportunity of hearing Mr. Griffith discuss a few of the disputed points of Shakespeare in the liberal arts auditorium yesterday afternoon. He dealt particularly with Macbeth.

It was reported from the university hospital this afternoon that Dr. John Harriman is growing much weaker. It is said that his condition is less satisfactory than it was several days ago.

IOWA WINS AGAIN

DEFEATS GRINNELL IN AN EXCITING GAME

Iowans Now have Valid Claim to State Championship—Des Moines Tonight

The Iowa basketball team won from Grinnell yesterday afternoon in one of the closest hardest fought games Iowa has ever played. Grinnell went into the game for revenge, and Manager Clark had said that his team would beat Iowa. Iowa's team was in the best condition possible and went into the game equally confident of victory. Both teams played their best every minute, as the detailed score shows.

At the end of the first half, the score stood, Iowa 10, Grinnell 9. At the end of the second half the score was a tie 18 to 18. In playing off the tie excitement rose to the highest pitch. Both teams were nerved up to their greatest effort, with the result that after several minutes' play, neither team having made two points over the other at once, the score was again a tie 20 to 20. Another ten minutes play and Schenck juggled the ball in from the middle of the field, making the winning basket in the game which gives Iowa the state championship in basketball.

The line-up was as follows:
Iowa Grinnell
Ross Forward Fillmore
Newton, } Forward Wilder
Kingsbury }
Parsons, Capt. Center Clark
Brock Guard Beldon
Schenck Guard James
Iowa plays the Des Moines Y. M. C. A. team tonight and Highland Park tomorrow night, both games at Des Moines.

Sophomore Cotillion

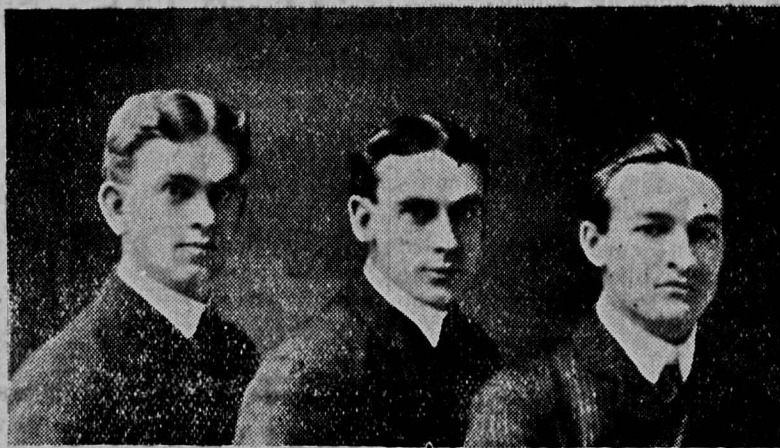

The Sophomore Cotillion at the Armory tonight promises to outdo everything else of a social nature for the year. Everything has been arranged upon an elaborate scale. The decorations are unusually beautiful and the music will be the best that Meyer's orchestra can produce. The program of dances consists of twenty-four numbers to go with the latest popular and catchy music.

The Patronesses have been announced as Mrs. Thomas H. Macbride, Mrs. George E. Burnett, Mrs. Max Meyer, Miss Gregory and Mrs. George E. MacLean.

The cotillion committee consists of Fred Moore, John T. Illick, Horace W. Gregory, Robert W. Fullerton, W. H. Hubers and Brock E. Cohoon.

The Baseball Situation

It is a matter of congratulation that the baseball outlook among the Iowa colleges is so promising. The reports from all of the various college representatives assembled here today are extremely encouraging. Most of the schools are assured of strong teams for the season soon to open and the generally friendly relations existing between the schools gives promise of well arranged schedules. It is to be hoped that the little controversy between Ames and Grinnell over the possession of the silver championship bat can be settled without any bad feeling.

The stand against professionalism in baseball circles taken by the Board of Athletic Control here should have a wholesome influence toward the purification of the sport in Iowa schools. Surely there can be no objection to baseball as a college sport as long as the professional feature does not figure any stronger than it does at present.

Iowa interests will be well represented on the forum at the University of Illinois tonight. Win or lose, the Iowa debaters may be depended upon to bring credit to the school.

The lively contest now going on for a place on the Board of Regents from the Ninth District is indicative of the deep interest of the people of that part of the state in the future of the university. Any one of the candidates who has thus far announced himself would be a credit to the board.

USING ONE'S JUDGMENT

When it comes to the buying of the home needs, is essential, but one must weigh carefully each feature, must consider goodness as well as cheapness for it takes a proper blending of these to make a value, to render the purchase desirable and economical. We back our judgement by our guarantee, and first of all we think of quality and then a price that swings at worth, that makes it a tempting proposition to you. These offerings are along such lines:

LEAGUE MEETING ON SILVER BAT CONTROVER-SY UNSETTLED

Arranging Spring Baseball
Schedule — Many Good
Games Assured

Button, button, who'se got the button?

The silver bat controversy is no nearer settlement than before. The representatives from the schools composing the Iowa Intercollegiate Baseball league met here today to decide the possession of the bat but up to 3 o'clock had come to no decision. The claims of both Grinnell and Ames were hashed over but they brought to light nothing new. The evidence submitted by one exactly contradicts that of the other. Manager Spangler stated this afternoon that there was little possibility that the bat would be awarded through any merit either way but that it would probably be voted to one of the contestants tonight just for the sake of disposing of the matter.

The delegates to the league meeting are C. E. Cole and Manager Clark of Grinnell; C. E. Wilson of Ames, Don Rathburn of Cornell and Manager Spangler of Iowa.

A meeting of all of the baseball managers of Iowa schools was also called here today. Besides those of the league A. G. Reid of Simpson and Manager Johnson of State Normal are here. The delegates are now at work on a schedule for the coming season. The task has not yet been completed but a few provisional dates were put down as follows: May 7, Iowa at Ames; May 14, Iowa at Cornell; May 20, Grinnell at Iowa; Decoration Day, Ames at Iowa; June 10, Iowa at Grinnell; June 14, Cornell at Iowa.

Drake has no representative at the meeting today which is taken to indicate that she will have no baseball this year.

There will be no meeting of Irving tonight.
