IOWA CLUB MEN DINE

FIFTH ANNUAL DINNER HELD AT HARVARD

Forty-five Hawkeye Put Aside

Studies to Toast Iowa—University Men on Program

The fifth annual dinner of the Iowa

Club of Harvard University was held at Hotel Bellure, Boston, January 16, 1904.

The club is composed of about forty-five Iowa men who are in attendance at Harvard. It was the original intention of the Iowa

Club to have their annual dinner december 18, 1903, in honor of Governor Cummins who was to have been in the Business at time to deliver addressness before the Commercial Club of Iowa.

The sudden and dangerous illness of the Governor's mother at that time, however, prevented their gathering and the Iowa club dinner was postponed until January 16, 1904.

The programs for the Iowa

Symposiums, the Great Seal of the State of Iowa is not on the dinner, and

AMUSEMENTS

A tour through the beautiful scenery of Switzerland, the Martinique Disaster, Pope Pius X in the Vatican at Rome, a visit through the City of Jerusalem, and King Edward, and new scenes will be shown by the Brin­ ton Moviable Picture Company next Thursday and Sat­ urday nights. Prices 15 and 25 cents, children 10 cents.

There is much to recommend in the performance of "The Little Christian," which will be given in the city shortly by Charles H. Clarke's excellent company, not the least of which is the fact that it was one of the most delightful performances and successes in Boston. It was a production that was given the earnest personal attention of that wizard of stage craft, Mr. Clark, for months, and it will be seen here with all the freshness and beauty of its Boston performance, on next Monday February 1.

In order that "Much Ado About Nothing" shall be ade­ quately presented to the theatregoers of this city, the manage­ ment announces that nothing has been left undone to enhance the attractiveness of this delightful comedy. Every picture will be given its proper setting. New and elaborate costumes and new designed for this revival. The costuming of the play is on a par with the scenic excellence, while the other appointments, proper­ ties and electrical effects help to place this production among the most notable ever sent on tour.

The Chicago Chronicle of Sun­ day contained a long and inter­ esting article on the society of the University of Iowa. The article was accompanied by pic­ tures of the Delta Gamma and Kappa Kappa Gamma sororities and a fine cut of the Ivy Lawn Society. This is the second ex­ tended article on the University of Iowa that the Chronicle has chosen to publish within the last two weeks.
