The old question of how Iowa university can get out a more creditable annual is again agitating the minds of the members of Hawkeyes board. Not that the annuals gotten out here are not creditable or that it is not the intention of the present annual board to get out a good compilation, but the experience of the present members of the board is that the good ballots would be possible to get out a year book here far ahead of what is now gotten out.

Their solution comes in the following plan: raising the price charged for the annual. It has never been customary to charge more than one dollar for the books but all of those who have any connection with the college compilation seem to be in favor of raising the price to $1.50.

They argue that by charging a rate of this kind they would be enabled to undertake the work on a better grade and that in the long run the purchaser of the book would be the gainer.

One of the members of the present board in speaking of the matter said that the board had been compelled to omit a great deal of the material which was easily accessible simply because the information chosen from the books would not warrant its use. This was particularly true in the case of excessive amount of art, music, and the drawing submitted being forced out because of getting the cuts made would be greater than the gain.

It is not the intention of the present board however to make excessive development of the line of Hawkeyes board. As one member of the board said, it will be wisdom for future classes to bear these conditions in mind.

Drake university dedicated her new medical building last night. The building however has been in use for some time.

AMUSEMENTS

Alan Dale, the best known of the more severe critics in New York, is said to have praised only one actress without qualifying his homages. This fortunate individual is Miss Ida Werner, who has been selected by Charles H. Clarke to play the leading part of Eleanor in “The Little Christian.” She is said to give an excellent account of herself with this new responsibility. Seats now on sale.

Great as Mr. Hanford’s personal popularity is, he has never permitted it to stand as an apology for deficiencies in the mechanical details of his productions. The costumings he displays represents a small fortune in silks and satins and it has been his pride to present to every city he visits a strictly metropolitan production. Mr. Hanford’s company too has been selected with so much care, that there is no danger of their being overwhelmed by the magnificence of their surroundings.

Miss Marie Drobotch his leading woman has won golden opinions for her excellent work the past two amusements.

MUST young people select their life partner and their occupation on a sentimental basis rather than by deliberate judgment. The best profession is

1st. That which renders the greatest service to humanity.
2nd. That which is accompanied by a good income.
3rd. That which provides the opportunity of using his own employer.
4th. That has reasonable office hours, leaving time for self-development and recreation.
