THE BADGER MATCH

A CROSS-BOARD MATCH WITH FACULTY

Wisconsin Correspondence Match Begun—Successful Meeting Saturday

The arrangements of the Iowa-Wisconsin Correspondence Chess Match have been completed. Forty-eight hours is allowed as the maximum time limit for each move. Mr. Johnson, the chess editor of the Chicago Tribune has again been agreed upon as referee.

Six boards will be played. Each side will have three offensive and three defensive games. The games are to be played by each individual without consulting any other member.

In the following enumeration of the Hawkeye Chess Club's representatives the first three play on the offensive and the latter three, on the defensive.

Wisconsin	Iowa
A. H. Taylor	R. G. Davies
V. G. Marguissee	C. H. Coyle
C. E. Inbusch	Paul Dorweiler
E. D. Angell	P. M. Payne
R. F. Herdengen	H. A. Naberhuis
K. L. M. Pray	C. W. Rink

The cross board match with the faculty will be played Saturday evening. Each side will have six representatives. Both an offensive and defensive game will be played by each member. In the following manner the players are matched:

Faculty	Hawkeye Chess Club
Prof. Byers	Rink
Dr. Andrews	Coyle
Mr. Bush	Dorweiler
Prof. Van Steenderen	Naberhuis
	Rink

	Dorweiler	Payne
Prof. Smith	Davies	Naberhuis
Prof. Barlow	Payne	Davies

The students mentioned in the first column of the Hawkeye Chess Club will play the whites and those in the second column the blacks.

The last meeting of the club was the most successful this year. Several new men were out among whom were some promising freshmen. The club is now conducting a home tournament. The games in this are played at the usual Saturday afternoon meetings.

A meeting of all men interested in spring athletics will be held in the old capitol this evening. The plans for the winter training will be discussed and the individual cups now on exhibition in Mayer's store window will be awarded to the successful contestants in the cross country runs.

W. J. McGee, head of the department of Anthropology at the World's Fair, will lecture before the Iowa Society of Archaeology and the Iowa Society of Anthropology, February 13. The subject of the lecture will be, "The three stages of Human Progress, Fire, Knife and Wheel."

THE HOME CONTEST

IN THE OPERA HOUSE TOMORROW NIGHT

Modern Subjects Will be Heard Contestants Are Well Prepared—Program

The opera house will be the scene of another university contest Thursday night. Eight ambitious students of oratory will strive for the honor of representing the "old gold" at the annual contest of the Northern Oratorical League which will be held at Ann Arbor in May.

The preliminary promises to be an interesting one. Each contestant has completed the construction of his oration and is now developing his delivery. The contestants are striving to bring honor to their society as well as to themselves individually. All the orations, to be given tomorrow will be on modern subjects.

The following is the order in which various numbers will appear on the program:

"The Onward March" C. P. Frost of Zetagathia.
"The Invincible Civilization," J. E. Savage of Philomathia.

"Alexandar Hamilton," J. O. Johnson of Zetagathia.

"Triumphs of American Diplomacy," E. R. Johnston of Irving.

"Unrestricted Immigration," R. E. Jones of Irving.

"A Problem for America," H. D. Hunt of Zetagathia.

"Labor and Capital," C. E. Moffitt of Philomathia.

"Alexandar Hamilton," H. G. Walker of Irving.

Rhodes Scholarship Candidates

Twenty-two candidates for the Rhodes scholarship available next fall have filed their applications. Of these candidates two are students of the University. Nearly each of the standard colleges has one or more candidates. The following are the candidates whose applications have been filed:

Iowa—Carl W. Ross '05 of Des Moines and Jacob Van der Zee of Orange City.

Grinnell—J. G. Wallesea.

Parsons—G. W. Gearhart.

Western—J. E. Elston.

Drake—W. Williams.

Simpson—A. A. Fullerton and R. J. Picken.

Des Moines—Thos. E. Latimer.

Cornell—A. R. Kent, R. A. Smith, E. C. McDale and G. J. Van Buren.

Coe—C. C. Ball, H. R. Watkins, C. R. Steinke, J. W. Hawley, J. T. Oxley and H. B. Clark.

G. H. Beal of Clarinda and C. G. Throckmorton of Chariton have filed applications but not designated their colleges.

S. H. McCrory and Roy C. Hardman are taking a civil service examination today.

TWO MORE GAMES

ILLINOIS AND DRAKE TO PLAY IOWA

Compact With Illinois Provides For Alternation of Place of Playing the Game

Two more games have been added to the already splendid football schedule arranged for Iowa. On top of the news that we will play Chicago comes the news of games with Illinois and Drake. The Drake game will be on October 8, and that with the Illini on November 19.

The Illinois game will be played at Champaign. Iowa's contract with them, provides that the place of game shall alternate each year. This will make a big game for the home grounds next year.

The Drake game may be played here, but Drake and the Iowa alumni of Des Moines are anxious to have the game in that city. The game will go to Des Moines if Drake can get suitable grounds for such a game. Drake is banking much on a new athletic field, which she hopes to have by that time.

Middletonian Special Memorial

A special memorial program for Dr. Harriman was held by the Middletonian Society in the auditorium of liberal arts last night. The numbers had been so selected that all parts of the College of Medicine were represented.

Dean J. W. Guthrie, speaking as an associate, gave some touching incidents pertaining to the student life of Dr. Harriman. He spoke most highly of the proficiency in anatomy which Dr. Harriman had attained. Of all his characteristics most prominent were his manliness and nobility of character. "Words at a time like this are empty and unavoidable" said the speaker. "If there is a better world he lives in bliss, if there is not he made the most of this."

Dr. Albert, an alumnus of the College of Medicine, after giving a high tribute to Dr. Harriman's ability said "We miss Dr. Harriman also on account of his quality of manhood, frankness and integrity. In his death the state lost a loyal and efficient man and all of us lost a most excellent friend."

E. T. Crane M. '04 and C. W. Ellyson M. '05 spoke in behalf of the student body of the medical college. These speakers emphasized the effect which the frankness and simplicity of Dr. Harriman had upon the students who came in contact with him.

E. R. Jackson, Fred Buckley, E. A. Rule, A. E. Miller and Jno. Dunn have been appointed on the committee to nominate the Y. M. C. A. officers for the ensuing year.

DENTAL BANQUET

VISITORS BANQUETED AT THE IMPERIAL

Old Acquaintances Renewed At Reception—Dental Alumni Officers

The faculty of the College of Dentistry fittingly closed the session of the Alumni Clinic by a banquet at the Burkley Imperial last night. A general reception was held from 8 to 9 o'clock, at which the old "Dents" renewed former acquaintances and made new ones. The large dining room of the hotel was very comfortably filled with old students, faculty members and guests, who enjoyed the elaborate seven course banquet which was served. At the close Dean Hosford introduced President MacLean as toast master, who called for an informal program of toasts from Dr. R. M. Fullerton, the newly-elected president of the Iowa Dental Alumni Association, Dr. Clack of Clear Lake, Dr. E. F. Talbot, of Chicago, Dr. Chase, of the Dental and Medical faculties; and Dr. Cook, D '90 of the University of Illinois.

Sincere thanks were expressed by the speakers for the hospitality of the college, and hearty wishes for similar clinics in following years, together with many hopeful words for the future of the Alumni Dental Association, organized yesterday.

The officers of the new Dental Alumni Association are: President, C. M. Fullerton '89 Cedar Rapids; Vice-president, J. B. Pherrin '96 Central City; Treasurer, C. M. Work '95 Ottumwa; Secretary, E. A. Rogers '92 Iowa City. The committee on Constitution by Laws consists of R. S. Bardy, '91 Tipton; W. S. Hosford '92 and F. T. Breene '88.

Y. W. C. A. Officers

The Young Woman's Christian Association held its annual meeting and installation of new officers yesterday at Close Hall. Instead of the usual annual committee reports, the retiring president, Madge Young gave a report reviewing the work of the association for the past year, which has been unusually successful in most respects. For the coming year the sub-committee system has been adopted which, it is hoped, will be found practical. The new cabinet is as follows:

President Nellie Chase; Vice-president, Martha Hutchinson; Treasurer, Cecile Long; Recording Secretary, Glenn Ogden.

The committee chairmen for the ensuing year are:

Bible Study, Nellie Sebern; Devotional, May Crane; Membership and Fall Campaign, Martha Hutchinson; Social, Augusta Brown; Missionary, Mary Griffith; finance, Cecile Long; Inter-collegiate, Etta Williams.

Modern Themes

The participants in the oratorical contest tomorrow night are to be congratulated upon their choice of subjects. The audience will not be wearied by listening to the discoursing upon past problems or to the eulogizing of dead heroes whose lives and works have little or no bearing upon the present or future. The orations in tomorrow's contest treat not of subjects upon which there is no dissension of opinion but they consider the dominant issues of the present time. This selection of modern themes and the introduction of the new method of marking in which the interpretation of the oration is primarily judged are factors that tend to raise the standard of this oratorical contest.

Attend Preliminary

A large number of the people upon whom the success of the University ultimately rests have their opinions moulded more by its oratorical interests than any other single function. To raise the standard of forensics means aiding the University both directly and indirectly. Those who attend the oratorical contest tomorrow not only will be aiding the Oratorical League but also by advancing the forensic interests they will help mould a higher opinion of the University.

EXCHANGE

Cornell pensions her professors at the age of seventy with $1,500 a year. Four professors will come under this condition this year.

Although Chicago offers prizes amounting to almost three hundred dollars only six contestants have appeared in the N. O. L. preliminary.

The Honor System was found to be a failure at Cornell University and has been abandoned. The students were required to sign two conditions, one, that they would not give or receive assistance from any one, and the other that they would report any one they saw cheating. The students were all willing to sign the first condition but so many refused to sign the second that they had to abandon the whole system.

HANFORD ADDRESSES SHAKESPEARE CLASSES

Tonight's Appearance the Fourth For Hanford in Shakespearean Roles

Mr. Charles B. Hanford, who will appear at the opera house tonight in "Much Ado About Nothing," makes his fourth appearance in Shakespearean roles in this city. In 1892 he played Julius Caesar, in 1898 Merchant of Venice, and in 1902 Taming of the Shrew. The enlargement of the stage makes it possible for Mr. Hanford to properly present his production, a thing that has not been possible in the past.

This afternoon at the invitation of the Shakespeare class and Dramatic Club of the university, he spoke in the auditorium.

Mr. Hanford described the Players Club founded by Edwin Booth in New York. Booth and Barret have always tried to lift the actor socially and this club has stood for this. For this Shakespeare worked, for in his times actors were knaves and rogues.

"A national theatre," says Mr. Hanford, "is a thing of the future. From this theater will go out companies, that will make universities their local centers. Every large university should have an oratorium sufficient for such productions, and after a production they should be made the subject of critical study."

Mr. Hanford gave two selections from Shakespeare, both of which were warmly applauded and as an encore, he recited the Star Spangled Banner.

Mr. Hanford will always be greeted with friendliness and appreciation by the students of Iowa.
