The Judges Chosen - Mayor of 1901... to begin the reversal of affairs this spring. Iowa has any amount of good material, if it is properly taken advantage of. The trainers are willing to do their part and the men to whom the honor of victory will go should certainly be willing to do their part.
Least we forget, we say it yet:
"Get out and train!"

The Iowan has every con fidence in the three young men who are to uphold the Hawkeye banners at Minneapolis tonight.
They have prepared well for the contest with the Minnesota oars men tonight, and there is little doubt that Iowa honor will suffer at their hands. Unfortunately it is Minnesota’s turn to win but all signs fail sometimes, particularly when they bode ill for Iowa.
