IOWA AND GRINNEil NEXT SATURDAY

For State Championship—Iowa Has Won First Contest—
Iowa Team Crippled

The biggest event in the way of true features of the season will be the take place in the Close Hall gymnasium next Saturday afternoon when the teams representing Iowa and Grinnell will line up for the state championship wrestling match. Iowa has defeated Grinnell in the only game of the championship series that the teams have played this year. However, the Iowa men will have to be careful in the exhibition game which was played. Grinnell has had the day of the state oratorical contest, and the form displayed by the Iowa men at that time gives cause for worry on the part of the Iowa players. Two of Iowa's regular players were out of the game, however.

The Grinnell men were to have been played Thursday but the Grinnell match would not play during the week.

Ross Iowa's star forward is out of the city now on the advice of his physician who says he must have a short rest. It is thought he will be in the game next Saturday, however. His absence will hinder the practice of the coming week.

One of the many features of the contest next Saturday will be the game between the girls' teams representing Iowa and Grinnell in the freshman and sophomore classes. This will be played on the gymnasium floor.

Sororities Get Together

The sororities of the University of California held a meeting recently in discussion of ways and means of promoting greater harmony among the Greek letter colleges.

At Stanford, the Pan-Hellenic Association has for years been very successful operation. The principal canon and prime factor of the Stanford organization is the rushing agreement. This provides that no sophomore shall bid a freshman until a certain day in November. This not only gives the freshman ample time to consider the merits of each bid, but also to discover how he will respond to the reports and is actually, as it does away with the fever and haste incident to a short rushing season. It is re- mended that action toward the promotion of similar agreements was taken at that meeting and that the near future will see California in possession of rushing rules similar to those of Stanford.

Mrs. Sarah Brackett has been elected matron of the University hospital. She has had much experience as a nurse and the re- gents believe she has found an exceptionally capable woman.

WANTS MADE KNOWN

S. U. I REPRESENTATIVES BEFORE COMMITTEE

State Shy on Funds and Institutions Must Suffer—Which Will It Be?

According to today's Register report, the State University went before the joint committee on appropriations yesterday and asked for the appropriation of $890,500 for the coming year. The arguments for the appropriations and the explanations of its needs were made by Presi- dent Geo. E. MacLean, Judge Harvey W. H. Bremer of Des Moines, Seth Spangler, chairman of the Register and Leader, and others.

The university proposed $805,000 for the position to receive $275,000 for the additional needs of the university.

The appropriations committee, however, and house are confronted by a system of returns, and the facts are the additional needs of the university.

The appropriations committee, however, and house are confronted by a system of returns, and the facts are the additional needs of the university.

The first active step in the establishment of an educational board of control to take charge of the educational institutions of Iowa and to do away with the system of regents was taken yesterday before the joint appropriations committee.

J. G. Berryhill of Des Moines, who represents the committee, argues in favor of the committee, arguing in favor of the state educational institutions.

Five Meets in Normal

Manger E. L. McCabe and Assistant Eugeen Felling have arranged a schedule of five meets for the track team of the Iowa Normal School.

April 29—Home meet.

May 1—Interstate meet between the normal schools of Kansas, Illinois, Missouri, and Iowa.

Cedar Rapids.

May 14—Dual meet with Cot college at Cedar Falls.

Tulalips.

May 28—State meet at Des Moines.

The state meet will be a much more important affair, the elimination games will be played.

A new quarter-mile track was recently laid down on the athletic field and will be utilized this spring. The track was furnished from the issue orders shortly after the spring season for all men who are aspiring to meet in the meet and who are competing in the track and field meets.

Manager R. E. Spangler an- nounced that the schedule of the outdoor meets will be read for announcement in about a week or ten days.

FAVOR SUMMER BALL

COACH HOLLISTER WANTS SUMMER BALL PREMPT IT

 Says it is a Proper Way for Students to Earn a Summer Living.

Coach Jack Hollister of Beloit college is out, with a defense of summer baseball playing by college men. In approving the action of Brown University in rescheduling the rule prohibiting such playing, the Wisconsin athletic director says:

"It requires money to go to college and some college men must earn their way. They should be allowed to use all their faculties that it is right and proper in earning the money needed for their support.

The Lake Forest Student, commenting on Coach Hollister's remarks, declares:

"If a man goes out in summer as a book agent and fies like a thief to get a few dollars he is respected for his business abilities; if he plays baseball and earns money in pa- ment, he is looked down upon as a professional player. When a man uses his natural or ac- quired abilities, honestly, cleanly, and as a true baseball player, he is respected for his ability. It is just as proper for a man to go into sales as it is professional games."

The affair is yet in an embryo stage, a few members from each chapter have talked it over and have been enthusiastic over it. It is expected that it will be made unanimous as soon as presented to the remainder.

Similar affairs have been conducted in other institutions and have been productive of regular times.

The Irving Program

Standing room was at a pre- cedent, the excitement in Irving Hall. The occasion for the large attendance was the opening of a special musical program by the members of Irving Institute.

The affair was a most successful program and was an evidential of the liberal ap- plause showered upon the per- formers.

The program was opened by a violin solo by August Wotish, who played to an accompaniment by Miss Higley. Mr. Wotrich also played an encore number. Ed. Rule made a hit with his ex- hibition of club swinging and ladder recital very cleverly a couple of selections. C. P. Schenck played a state solo and responded with an encore. The Irving quartet composed of Roy Red- field, Frank Wilson, C. A. Peirce and Fred Moore sang two selections and responded with two encores. It was the first musical of the present session of the organization. Miss Close closed the program with an excellently ren- dered soprano solo and followed it with an encore number. She was accompanied by Miss Hais. One of the highly enjoyed numbers on the program was the "A beautiful Country" composed by Cram and Eckhart. This was also fol- lowed an encore.

Let Them Come

It is to be hoped that the effort of the commercial club toward getting the members of the state legislature to visit the university will be successful. It is certain that there would be no better way to convince the Iowa saviors that the university is in need of funds then to bring them here and let them examine the university.

The trip of the legislators to Ames the other day was eminently successful— from an Ames
