STUDENTS ORGANIZE MISSIONARY CAMPAIGN

Will Seek to Get Many New Students for Next Year

The Plan

The students of the state university of Iowa have inaugurated a missionary campaign for students. The movement is an echo of the work begun by Miss Ethel Elliot, as the students at the time the fact of the university was in the hands of the state legislature. It was conceived at that time that the state and the church should be more closely united. The organization of the alumni was begun in Des Moines shortly after that, and will be completed here in June. The organization of the students is now hatched.

The student movement began a week or so ago when a meeting of the alumni class presidents of the college of liberal arts was called. The subject of the meeting was also included in the first meeting. This committee was then formed, which includes representatives from the various school organizations. Monday night the final meeting of the committee was held and it was attended by the presidents of all of the classes of all the colleges of the university.

It was decided that the students should be organized here in the county clubs, and H. E. Speegle, who presided over Monday night's meeting was given power to appoint a preliminary committee of representatives from each county to see that the students from that county become organized.

At the meeting Tuesday night a number of school committees were named to facilitate the work. Prof. Harry Plum was named chairman of the committee to keep in touch with the State Alumni Association. Monday night the DAILY IOWAN was named as press committee, and Prof. A. O. Smith and T. P. Walker were named a committee to work among the students and faculty members at the coming state meet here.

MADELINETTE MAY 20

MISS ETHEL ELLIOT TO GIVE RECITAL

Gilbert Parker's "Madelinette"

Miss Ethel Elliot will give a reading in liberal arts hall May 19. The recital will be given under the auspices of the Oratorical League, and was composed of the five men's forensic societies. This organization under considerable expense is sending three representatives to the Anamosa court and treats by this means to partly replenish the treasury.

Miss Elliot is a member of last year's class and is at present studying in the school of expression. Within a short time she will complete the three years course entitled her to teachers diploma. The first two years of her work were done in the department of public speaking.

At the coming recital "Madelinette" one of Gilbert Parker's short stories will be rendered. Miss Elliot has been heard in public recitals this winter in Boston, Cambridge, Newton and many other towns.

Hamilton Preliminary

The contestants of the Hamilton preliminary work Saturday to make arrangements for the coming contest. This year's preliminary will be held June 6, which falls on the Thursday preceding the commencement.

The judges on thought and composition are: E. E. Lake, Sabih of Des Moines, an alumnus of Iowa, R. E. McDermott head professor of English at Drake University. The judges on public speaking in the University of the liberal arts building is Claude B. Davis, professor of oratory in Drake University. The judges on delivery will be selected later. They probably will be members of the alumni present at the commencement exercises.

One For Iowa

One of the games in Wisconsin correspondence Class, is Schott's "Michigan League," which is composed of the states except Michigan by default. To complete the games before the close of the year it is necessary that Missouri be answered promptly. The Wisconsin player, P. L. M. Pray, repeatedly failed to respond with the time limitation. C. W. Rink his opponent, placed the situation before the Wisconsin alumni, who decided in favor of Iowa. Mr. Rink used the Sicilian defense in the game and at the close received the decision he had both piece and positional advantages over his opponent.

B. J. Lamberti is again meeting his engineering classes after an attack of tonsillitis.

Oratorical Social

While it may seem advisable to undertake an oratorical venture so late in the season yet it is just this activity between sessions that is fundamental for victories in contests. The oratorical league of the University is in debt and the cost of sending her representative to Michigan will also be considerable. To reduce this debt and thus advance the oratorical interests of the University this league has under taken the coming rental by Miss Elliot who has kindly offered to aid the organization.

It now behooves the members of the organization to see that she is given a big audience and oration. Three of the literary societies have agreed to take as many tickets as their number of members. Let all others follow this example. The program will be one that will be of interest to all.

A Snap on Pipes

I am selling not my stocks of pipes, but that I possess and shall continue to do so, that is, any pipe in good working order and then you can have it, not that I have no pipes, we are all first-class smokers who never go out in public without a pipe and then you can see how many there are in the house. I am selling them at a reduction; they range from $1.00 to $500.00 or more, and maybe any day I may sell you in St. L. and my store in the Home. The pipes are always ready and made from the choice cloths and round pipes in the size, and we are ready to supply you with them, and I have a very good stock of pipes from which you can select. We are not going to forget your pipe for a day.
