HERITAGE OF TRUTH

FOURTY-FOURTH BACCALAUREATE AT IOWA

The Rev. W. M. Kincaid of Monona, addresses the Graduates of 1904

"Self seeking is moral suicide," said Rev. W. M. Kincaid, D.D., of Honolulu, Hawaii yesterday in the baccalaureate address to the graduating classes of the University of Iowa.

Rev. W. M. Kincaid, who delivered the forty-fourth baccalaureate sermon at Iowa, is an old Williams College chaplain to President MacLean. His theme was taken from Corinthians 1, 15. It was "Your Heritage."

Some of the thoughts of the sermon were, "All things are yours. All truth is one. All truth is yours. Truth is no dogma. Truth is your heritage. Truth is the greatest thing in the world and to search for truth is to find God. Truth, where ever found is yours, not to use for your own purposes. The world is yours, and the brevity of your time is that you may use the more fully exhaust the Now. True life, large and noble life is the result of faithfulness. The past is God's. You cannot change it. But the present with its duties and the future with its possibilities is yours. Ye are not your own. You do not belong to yourself. You belong to God, you belong to the world that awaits your help."

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Epstein have given $100 to the University hospital in loving memory of their late son, Master Epstein, who was killed in the war, in the war.

Professor Veblen lectured before a large audience at Iowa Field, on "Patrician Life," in the Valdris dialect last Friday and Saturday nights.

Die Germania has elected as officers for the first term of next year: S. E. Stiley, president; H. C. Anderson, vice-president; Carrie Watts, secretary; and Stella Wakefield, treasurer.

Miss Pattee, a senior in the college of liberal arts, has been obliged to give up her school work on account of a serious prostration. She left for her home at Storm Lake last week.

The Zetagathian society held a reception in their society hall at the Y. M. C. A. for their old alumni members who are visiting the university during commencement.

The Board of Directors of the Iowan Publishing Company held their annual meeting this morning for the selection of an editor-in-chief and business manager for the year 1904-05. Mr. H. M. Pratt was elected editor-in-chief and Neil Jackson business manager.
Ross's Chances Increased
Iowa's Rhodes Scholarship at the University of Oxford in England now lies between Carl W. Racs of the University and J. G. McLean of Grinnell. News has been received that these were the two successful candidates of the five who took the examination. To whom the scholarship will finally be given is to be determined by the Iowa committee consisting of the five presidents; MacLean of Iowa, Hall of Drake, McCormick of Coe, King of Cornell, and Bradley of Grinnell. This committee will meet to select the state representative shortly after commencement.

Dr. Lambert Honored

Dr. Chas. I. Lambert, B. S. '93, instructor in pathology and bacteriology in the College of Medicine, will leave next week for New York City, where he has accepted a position in the New York Pathological Institute, as an assistant to the eminent scientists and pathologist, Dr. Alfred Mayer. Dr. Lambert has made an enviable record in his own department, and also as a subsidize lecturer in anatomy during the latter part of the present year, and his departure will be regretted by students and faculty. His call to this honorable position in the east is a compliment to the medical department of the University and Dr. Lambert's ability as a scientific man.

Ida M. Grilles Visits Sioux City

A Snap on Pipes

(1) If you're selling or buying pipes. Just that. If you're going to sell pipes, don't. If you don't have enough pipes to make a deal, don't. If you have too many pipes to make a deal, don't.

(2) The pipes are half and half. They are all first-class pipes. They are not all the same. They are not all the same. They are not all the same.

(3) The pipes include every style and make. From the cheap black and white pipe to the expensive gold-plated pipe. It is an exception to our usual price. If you are buying a pipe, don't forget.
