Preliminary Meeting Held This Morning—Mass Meeting Coming Soon

Iowa, university students of Republican faith are going to convey their efforts toward increasing the influence of their party in the state. The officers of the Republican ticket, in a preliminary meeting of the reorganized Republican party, has been held this morning in the hall of liberal arts and a committee in apposition to make arrangements for the organization of the Republican clubs of the state in the interest of the Republican club of the state.

The committee appointed consisted of Frank R. Wilson chairman, Harry E. Buxton and B. A. Hulb. The committee is holding another meeting this afternoon and completing plans for the first mass meeting which will be held Thursday night.

The officers of the Republican National committee have communicated with some of the more enthusiastic Republicans in school and plans have been made to get the Republican club of the state in the interest of the Republican club of the state. The officers of the Republican National committee have communicated with some of the more enthusiastic Republicans in school.

It is planned that the club now being formed shall assist in the reception of Senator Fairbank, the Republican candidate for vice president, when he visits this city next week. The membership of the club will march to the street meeting and assist in the demonstration.

The initial meeting held this evening was attended by most of the class in political parties and by many students of the university. The meeting was presided over by J. A. Smith, editor of the Iowa University of Chicago and was attended by about twenty students.

Iowa Graduate Honored

V. Lyngby of Cedar Falls a Graduate of the Iowa University college of law has been appointed Danish vice consul for Iowa for life by the king of Denmark.

Iowa graduate has been considered the best of the Danish vice consulates in the northwestern states and Mr. Lyngby was one of the youngest men ever appointed to such a responsible position, being only 34 years of age. He is at present the vice consul for the University of Copenhagen and at the school of that institution.

He came to this country eight years ago and for a time was an embryo lawyer in Shelby county; which is one of the states of the nation.

Lyngby then studied law at Harvard and attended the university at that time taking an American law course and going on to Harvard for admission to the bar in 1900.

Buster Brown

To add something every day, to do it always a little better and then to do it better still—that's how I have grown from a small cigar store to the largest and best stores in Iowa. Today my immense buying and selling power enables me to sell Cigars, Pipes, Tobaccos and Cigarettes at prices that is possible to obtain in any other way. I call this real business building and one of my business builders is the Buster Brown cigar, made in three sizes—Club Cigars, Triangle Cigars and London Mixture at 50 cents each.
