IOWA SOCIAL SEASON

FORECAST OF WHAT IS TO COME

The University Band Makes a big Hit as do the Iowa Rooters. A Good Time

The Glee Club is Back

Glee Club on a Lark

Clash With Mayor of Peacefulburg and Come Out Victorious in the End

Political enthusiasm on the part of a crowd of state university students composing the Republican glee club clashed with the religious faith of the residents of the peaceful little village of West Branch last night and scored the political enthusiasm of the students came out on top.

The Republican glee club went to West Branch and paraded before some political bulletin at a big Republican rally. Mayor of Peacifulburg was a Quaker community and as soon as they struck town began whooping it up with tin horns as big as Gabriel's trumpet. They were eager in their desire to get out a big crowd at the rally and they succeeded. But it was not until after the mayor of the peaceful little burg undertook to make them stop bellowing from the tin bands of auditors. It played on way over to their depot. The Kimball Hotel and after dinner gave a short concert, in the lobby of the Kimball. Then it led the line of march to the hall in which the speech making took place.

The Davenport people seemed unable to believe that all the members of the band went east. Director Mobberly received many compliments upon the manner in which he has gotten together this year.

Poor Cornell

Cornell College is still calling attention to itself by the excellence of its team.

The football game between Iowa and Cornell was played on the Cornell ground last Saturday.

The Cornell back field was started definite by those in authority and has proved welcome news to the students, faculty and friends of the University.

There is an unavailing battle against the effect that the Athletics will lead the social season this year, giving their Ball as soon as the gymnasium opens its doors. However, there may be a doubt whether the athletic old-grind or the sophomore silliness will be the first, the social banner has no reason to suspect that any gayer season has ever been enjoyed by the Little University world than will be the result coming in this winter of 1904-05.

Iowa and Normal Battle for Supremacy on Iowa Field Today

IOWA BEATS NORMAL

Iowa's Team Is Badly Crippled

The Play and Lineup

Of Both Teams

Iowa and Normal lined up on Iowa field this afternoon at 2:14. Normal got the ball and chose to defend the north goal. Normal kicked off to Chalmers who returned 10 yards. Iowa made three downs in rapid succession by short ends and line back. Mcgowan, Chalmers and Jordan carried the ball for the most part to the center of the field. Moore went out. Jordan circled left end for five yards and Mcgowan made 3. Iowa lost the ball on downs on Normal's 40 yd. line. Normal forced to kick. Chalmers made 4. Jordan fumbled on second down and was downed around right end. Normal tried place kick but failed.

Normal kicked off to Murphy who returned 25 yards. Iowa forced to gain and Kent kicked 30 yards. Normal fumbled and Jordan fell on the ball on Normal's 35 yd. line. Mcgowan made 5, and Chalmers 5 more. Time for first half called with ball on Iowa's possession on Normal's 20 yd. line.

Time of play 35 minutes. Second half to be 30 minutes.

Iowa was strong on straight line but weak on end runs. Normal soddin made her downs by line smashing, but made good end runs. Iowa kicked off to Murphy who returned 25 yards. AMUSEMENTS

Par and away the most musical comedy of several years is a "Chinese Honeymoon", which will be heard at the opera house tonight. One of the most attractive features of the performance is the sitting group of girls who appear as the eight bridesmaids. They are said to represent the scene of feminine grace and modern dash. All told the organization numbers seventy-five people and is considered the most expensive of all the Shubert attractions.

If the stage was devoted more to romance than nonsense it would be an educator as well as a source of amusement. Many who do not have the time to study history would in three hours of enjoyment become acquainted with the doings and atmosphere of the middle ages, and imbibe knowledge of events which marked the evolution from barbarism to civilization. Play the role of a "sister" are in infintie value to the refined mind and intelligent gossp for the parlor or drawing room where often the weather and baseball are discussed for want of more interesting themes at the opera house, next Monday evening.

Attend Miss Montgomery's Dance School and Assembly this evening. Dancing School at 7:30. Assembly at 9:00.

IOWANS ARE VICTORIOUS AT CHESS MATCH

Will Entertain State Chess Association Meeting This Year at Iowa City

The Hawkeye Chess Club which enjoyed such a successful year last year has started out this season in a very auspicious manner. The latest practice of the members of the club was held this afternoon at the club rooms. There was a good attendance and a lively interest manifested.

The Hawkeye Chess club has two things upon which to comment itself. It has been declared the victor in its correspondence match with the club of the University of Wisconsin and it had been the recipient of the honor of entertaining the next meeting of the Iowa State Chess Association. Last year's meeting was held at Des Moines.

The Iowa players, however, were not successful in their contest with the University of South Dakota. The South Dakota players consisted of both students and faculty members.

The meeting of the State Chess Association this year promises to be filled with interest. Prizes to the value of $20 will be awarded to the winners. The first prize will be a handsome set of genuine English Shannon chess men valued at $10.

In addition to entertaining the State Association Iowa will likely have correspondence matches with the universities of Nebraska and Minnesota this year.

The officers are as follows: C.W. Rink, president; P.M. Payn, secretary and treasurer; H.G. Davies, referee.

Republicans to Meet

There will be a big mass meeting of the republican students of the university in the general lecture room, hall of liberal arts at 7:00 o'clock to prepare for the coming Dawson meeting which will take place at the armory Wednesday night. Mr. Dawson will read the principal address Wednesday night. A number of songs appropriate to the occasion will be learned tonight and given at the Wednesday night rally.

The Republican Marching club will act as an escort to candidate Dawson.
