IOWA IS GETTING READY FOR SATURDAY'S BIG STRUGGLE

ALUMNI ARE MARRIED

COAST-KINGSBURY NUPTIALS LAST NIGHT

Beth Young People Well Known Among Students And Alumni

A wedding of unusual interest is Iowa students and alumni was last night held at the Trinity Church in which W. O. Coast and Miss Kaude Debpech were the principals. Both of the young people are recent graduates of the university, both residing in Iowa City, and both are well known among alumni and students. W. O. Coast is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Coast and Miss Kingsbury is the daughter of Mr. W. C. Kingsbury.

The wedding occurred at 7.30 o'clock. The groom was accompanied by the best man, his brother, Preston Coast, stood at the altar while the bridal procession marched up the middle aisle to the strains of Leubenger's wedding music and the actual proceeding was a fine one. The procession was headed by Henry Wolf, the organist of Trinity church. The bridal party then joined in and started for Cleveland Kingsbury. Then the bridesmaids, Misses Alice McGee, Sadie Hess and Ethel Shower and the flower girl, Miss Marjorie Coast, then bide bono to the arm of her father. The marriage ceremony was spoken by Rev. W. D. Williams rector of Trinity church. Then the bridal party filled out following by the members of the Bendo Theta Pi fraternity chapter of the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

The wedding supper followed at the Coast home.

The couple left for a wedding trip in the east at 10 o'clock last night. They were treated to a liberal shower of roses at the Rock Island depot and on to way to West Liberty they boarded their train riding to West Liberty and returning on the train at 12 o'clock. Will O. Coast was prominent in university circles while a student, having been major of the batting and business manager of the Hawkeyes in 1910. He is a number of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Miss Kingsbury was a member of Kappa Delta. Mr. and Mrs. Coast will be home in Iowa City after the wedding trip.

BETH DUNSMORE and Alice Swedish dancer and a Sunlight dancer and Miss Ruth Paxson next Saturday evening.

Miss Dunsmore the leading star making the notes which appeared at the opening show for the New York World's Fair last week, also, the two Swedish artists are beingasured of old gold. She was cheered loudly.

Sigma Xi Lecture

Tomorrow evening at the liberal arts auditorium will be given the first lecture of the year under the auspices of the Sigma Xi, the scientific fraternity. Professor Andrew A. Veblen will give an illustrated lecture upon "Upala University and Some of its Noted Scientists." Invitations have been issued for the lecture, which will be a good one as Professor Veblen has spent much time in studying the surroundings of this Scandinavian university.

The corner stone of the Goldwin Smith Hall of Humanities at Cornell was laid Tuesday. The building is to cost $500,000. John D. Rockefeller contributed $250,000.

The Y. W. C. A. is to be very fortunate this week in receiving the visit from Miss Ruth Paxson and L. A. '98, a national student secretary of the organization. Miss Paxson comes Thursday and expects to stay until Monday. She will address a meeting for all young women at Close Hall Thursday evening at 6:30, and every girl in the university should not fail to hear her. A reception will be given Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nutter, and another meeting Friday night at the home of Miss Marie Widney, state student secretary, will probably accompany Miss Paxson.

Delegates Return

The delegates from the Y. W. C. A. returned yesterday from the state convention, held at Ames, October 20-22. Those in attendance from here were Sadie Holiday, Martha Hutchinson, Miss Grace Lilienthal, Party Battles, Fanne Hayes, Mae Kimple, Elizabeth Hershiser, Alice Wadon, Josie Hudson and Nellie Chase. The report an enthusiastic and well attended meeting. The principal speakers were Dr. Gallic of Japan, Dr. Deland, of Amer, Miss Florence Simms, a National city secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Ruth Paxson, National Student Secretary, who graduated from the university in 1898. The Ames students are coming to Iowa City six hundred strong and will probably be entertained to weigh, Iowa many old scores against Iowa.

Miss Verne Shell '04 has been initiated Delta Delta Delta.

Miss Eda George will entertain many of the freshmen students of the university at a social to be held at her home near by on the evening of October 28. She is a native of the English Lutheran church.

There will be a meeting of the library in the auditorium to prepare for the big Dawson meeting tomorrow night in the armory. The club will act as an escort for Mr. Dawson. Previous to the meeting of the republic club the republican glee club will have a rehearsal in the same place. The club is scheduled to sing tomorrow night.
