Iowa's Football Eleven will Clash with the Cornhuskers Tomorrow at Lincoln

Varsity Scored Three Times on Scrambles in Thirty Minutes—Bender Feared

The varsity football team left this morning at 4:50 for Lincoln, arriving there Saturday afternoon. The trip was a hard one but the men will have plenty of time to rest up for the game. Only a very few rookies accompanied them back and their return tomorrow will be meager. Every man, however, had that quiet determination this will count in the game.

The open practice last night was straety. The Varsity lined up against the guards for one 30 minute period. At times the Varsity's offense was elegant, carrying the ball down the field. Eight yards at a clip. At other times their gains were few and their throws back for losses. Jones and Griffith were not in the scrimmage at all and Chalmers was down for a few minutes of play. In the run of play the varsity made three touchdowns against one for the guards. Brown got the ball in for two of the touchdowns and 80 yards for a touchdown. The gain of the varsity were mostly through the line, their red zone being stopped. Captain Tupper of the second team made several good gains around the varsity ends.

The Saturday of Saturday's game is very much in the air. Nebraska playing Minnesota practically to a tie last Saturday and obviously a long forgotten. Iowa will go into that game with the type of team that Jones is capable of. Jones will in all probability not play at all and Griffith is not sure, so the Cornhuskers center, Tom Jones puts on a good game as they did against Wisconsin. Iowa's band, which has not been heard of on the road, has been learned to be a real terror for the Cornhusker band.

For Nebraska, Bender is especially feared. He will play tailer and besides running the ball well is one of the best guard galleries in the country. He was responsible for Nebraska's victory over Iowa last year. His understanding coach has invented a style of 75 yard plays and has Jones running a lot of these. That the Iowa-Nebbraska game last year should have been a tie will show the kind of players both teams have. Nebrasaka's victory over Iowa last year is understood that Coach Kearney has invented a style of 75 yard plays and has Jones running a lot of these. That the Iowa-Nebbraska game last year should have been a tie will show the kind of players both teams have. Nebrasaka's victory over Iowa last year is understood that Coach Kearney has invented a style of 75 yard plays and has Jones running a lot of these.

The Daily Nebraskan adds editorially: Tomorrow afternoon the Iowa team is expected to arrive in Lincoln. For several years now an intense rivalry has existed between the Hawkeyes and the Cornhuskers, which has occasioned a lack of court espy and hospitality to the teams from either university visiting the other. The Nebraskan believes this spirit is not strongly evidenced in this year, but in order to fully demonstrate the hand at the depot to welcome the visitors, while we intend to defend them in the game, their visit in Lincoln should be one they will remember with pleasure in the future. Nebraska has made many good friends by her hospitality—here is a chance to make another.

NEBRASKA TIED SUCCESSFUL

P. E. Edinger Wins For President by a Decisive Vote

After a warm campaign the junior, class of the college of liberal arts met yesterday afternoon and chose its officers for the year. The election was decided for the Zeta-Hesperian Engineers combination against the Irving Rotchelian ticket. The vote on the head of the ticket stood 43 to 25. P. E. Edinger was elected president over W. E. Coolter.

The remainder of the successful slate is as follows: Lurenson Watson, vice president; Watts Jones, secretary; E. J. Hemmer, treasurer; W. J. Cuttlewell class representative.

President Thompson of the State University of Ohio notes in the city today.

Frank R. Wilson will leave tomorrow for Lincoln. Tomorrow's Iowa will contain a full story of the Iowa-Nebbraska game.

Dec. 16 Seems To Be The Most Probable Date Other Plans

At a meeting of the members of the sophomore cotillion committee yesterday afternoon the preliminary arrangements were made for the big sophomore cotillion dance which is one of the biggest social events of the university year.

The committee which will have charge of the event is composed of the following: members are John Daily, Joe Burgess, H. Jayne, Harold Voblen, A. J. Tyler, C. A. Underwood, W. D. Sanford, Don Miles and Frank Wilson. At its meeting yesterday afternoon Frank Wilson was elected chairman of the committee. Sub-committees were appointed to look after the details in the arrangements for the cotillion.

It is probable that the party will be held on the night of Dec. 16, if the action of the committee succeed. This will be just one week before school closes for the Christmas holidays.

FRESHMAN LAWS ARE OUT FOR A GAME

IOWA CITY, IOWA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1904
No. 30

Have Extended a Challenge To The Freshman Collegiate Class for Game

Class football may be resumed at Iowa University if the desire of the members of the freshman law class comes to anything. The freshman laws have prepared a challenge which will be extended to the members of the freshman collegiate class asking the collegiates to engage in a football contest as certain raiser for the Grinnell-Iowa game won in tomorrow. There is every possibility that the challenge will be accepted as the freshman collegiates have no reason to be greatly ashamed of their football material.

Providing the contest is arranged it will mark an important step here. Class football used to be a university institution here was an injury which finally resulted in the death of a player several years ago. There are very few clubs except the freshman. If the action of the junior laws comes to ought class contests may be permanently established.

The athletic management has consented to the freshman game and all that is now necessary is the acceptance of the challenge by the collegiates. Regular team men and substitutes will be barred from the game in question. All other men the will be allowed to get in the race for positions on their respective teams. Parsons will most likely be captain of the law eleven. His name was mentioned yesterday during the meeting Thursday afternoon.

Could Badgers Beat Iowa?

Register and Leader: "It won't do for Iowa's football team to meet Wisconsin this year," said C. L. Wise of Milwaukee yesterday. "While of course we went down under Michigan there won't be anything farther doing in the defeat list for Wisconsin after this. If we had a game with Iowa we would have no trouble, we are getting another feather for our hats in the game won because the men are all comers both in speed and skill.

Announcement was made Tuesday afternoon that Charles P. Laumis of Los Angeles, Calif., secretary of the Archeological Institute of California will lecture in the liberal arts building here on Dec. 10. This lecture will be on the subject of "Archeological Remains of the Southwest United States." The lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon views. In addi-

CHANCE TO GET EYES

The Daily Nebraskan says: After Nebraska played and defeated Iowa last year our team was booted off the field and small boys urged on and abated by students of the Iowa University. University home patients were shot at the football field to the hotel, Illinois complained of the same treatment at that time. This of course, has been long forgotten, and is mentioned only to bring to the roarers to play even. No one ever got the better of Nebraska if we know it. We will have Iowa here Saturday; we'll have our own crowd and their backing. Wouldn't this be a good opportunity to get even.

Woul'dn't this be a good opportunity to meet the Hawkeyes at the train, surround their omnibus, cheer them to their hotel and show them Nebraska's class to her guests, as we did the Illini last year.

Games Will Be Played

Chicago Marathon: The games with Wisconsin and Michigan will not be cancelled this year. This statement was made by a prominent member of the athletic board. He said that he reported concerning the difficulty which had arisen between the three great colleges was true and that unless a settlement was arranged the outcome would be more serious.

The trouble is based on the request or refusal of Michigan and Wisconsin to take on themselves the liability for the accident which occurred during their game on Marshall Field in 1902. At that time a grand stand constructed by the management of the game from materials shipped from Madison collapsed and forty or fifty persons were injured, one dying a week later.

Old Grad Wedded

A marriage took place in Cedar Rapids on Wednesday evening which will interest many students here. Park W. Tourtellot, a graduate from the college in '06 and Law in '08 was united in marriage to Miss Helen Charles, of St. John.

Since leaving the university Mr. Tourtellot has practiced law in Cedar Rapids. He is the junior member of the firm, Richel, Crockett and Tourtellot.

The Literary Societies

The debate at the Philomathian program tonight will be upon the question of combining district schools into one central township school. The participators will be Vesta, Corbett, Baird and Donvan. Drowery will make a speech.

At the Irving program this evening Andrews and Heus will deliver, respectively, a speech and an address. The debate which is upon the question of the German system of liquor selling, will be offered by Oliver and Hutchinson and denied by Leonard and Aller.

Zetagathian program consists of a declamation by Rink and an oration by Linggester, together with a debate upon the compulsory primary election law, participated in by Champion and Meyers for the affirmative and Bormann and Johnson, for the negative.

Iowa students turned out en masse last night to hear the scholarly addresses of Senator William B. Allison and Congress man Robert Cousins at the armory. The republican glee club sang and made another hit, being compelled to respond to an encore. In his opening Senator Allison made a reference to the university, expressing his pleasure in being in its midst. He also paid a tribute to President MacLean.
