MacLean Song Prize Awarded To-day
John G. Parish gets Honor in Close Competition. Three Other Songs of Almost Equal Merit

At the university assembly this morning the committee appointed to award the prize of twenty dollars offered by President Maclean for the best university song presented by April 1, submitted its report and the prize was given to John C. Parish, a senior of the college. The three other songs were recommended as worthy of mention but the names of the composers are not made public. Following is the report of the committee:

We have examined the seventeen songs which were submitted. The songs have come from near and far and represent widely divergent interests, and points of view. All breathe a spirit of healthy and enthusiasm for University life. In some it is a poetic thought, in others it is a rousing rhythm and music. In others it is the free expression of the will which conceives the opposite. We sent all these forces, each in its place, and it is difficult to compare them. Your committee has sought for a song which expresses the true university spirit in words and music that would have survival power. We have recommended the award of the prize to one and selected the others for honorable mention.

The following three are selected for honorable mention: Iowa, Alma Mater Iowa, Hail to Iowa.

The prize was voted to Old Gold.

It is the work of the non plume "Carl" which was found to be John C. Parish.

By John C. Parish.

OLD GOLD

A worded the Maclean prize, April 3, 1905.

O, town and calm and secure on thy hill
Looking down on the river below,
With a dignity born of a dominant will
That makes thee Iowa, Iowa.

O, hear of the glory of pioneer days,
The eagle-spirited town of the West,
That made Iowa, Iowa.

For thou shalt find blessing and honor and praise
In the daughters and sons of Old Gold.

The shall sing and be glad with the days as they fly
In the time that we spend in thy halls.

And in sadness we'll part when the days have gone by
And parting comes away as we walk.

Till the waters no more in thy river shall run
Till the stars in the heavens grow cold
We'll e'er meet and stand on the old foundation.

And the love that we bear for Old Gold.

Shall this song live? No one can tell. It depends upon two things especially. First, does it possess enough merit to stand the test? That is, has it taken hold of a vital sentiment? Is that sentiment expressed in words that give pleasure and have the power to move? Is the selection of the time fortunate? Responsibility and honor for the second factor which determines whether or not the song shall live, rests with the student body. That is, shall we sing it? Shall we give it a real trial?

Unfortunately it is not possible to publish the music of the three songs which were submitted and should make known to the student body by the student body in some way.

The results of this contest are very encouraging. We have and we shall have not only songs of this type but songs for various events such as entertainment of university life. Owing to the interest stimulated in part by the generosity and timely effort of President Maclean, we now have a good nucleus. A hearty reception of these songs by the student body and the public will make the university life the more enjoyable.

The committee which has managed this contest refuses to be dictated to. It is a standing committee to which songs may be sent at any time with the reassurance that the contribution will be given appropriate hearing and trial. If, "Let me write the bullets that are fired," says the state's attorney, and I care not whether he or she is right, there is always a high prize awaiting.

Owing to the lack of space, the three songs which received honorable mention could not be published today but will appear in tomorrow's Iowa.
Newman Meeting

The members of the Newman society held a regular bi-monthly meeting in the society room last evening. After a short business session a literary program was given which consisted of a recitation by Roy Sherman, an oration by John Vaughn, a biography by J. Pinpuckard and a debate, the subject of which was—"Reformation Protestantism has been a benefit to Christianity." The question was decided in favor of the affirmative which was upheld by Frank Murphy and D. M. Kelly.

Prof. Florl Reads Paper

"A Classification of the Scandinavian Languages on the Phonology of the Modern Dialects," was the title of Professor George T. Flom's scholarly paper which he read before Rode last Saturday evening.

Prof. Flom defined the relation between the Scandinavian and the English and German languages. He then outlined the changes that resulted in a Danish-Swedish dialect branch. He then discussed modern Danish as representing South Scandinavian and classified and characterized Swedish and Norwegian dialects, both of which, the speaker said, are more closely related than either is to Danish, today. West Norwegian dialects, however, together with Icelandic and Faroese represent the most archaic form of Scandinavian, On the basis of the phonology of modern Scandinavian languages, Professor Flom then classified the whole group into four divisions, the west, north, central and south The northern branch, which includes the northern Norwegian and Swedish, the central, the dialects of Middle Norwegian and South Central Norwegian. This branch includes also the literary language of both countries, South Scandinavian, comprising lower Sweden, and all of Denmark.

The lecture was received with great interest.

Prof. A. A. Veblen gave a voluntary report on "The Consular Crisis in Norway and Sweden.

FAMABELLA

We do not believe there's a cigar on the market that has “taken hold” faster than the Famabella Havana Cigar.

“The Perfection of Blends.” Its success has been due solely to the cigar itself, and to our way of handling our trade. There has never been any “band wagon” advertising or gift enterprises connected with Famabella, but rather on merit and they’re making a bigger hit every day, at The Clinton Street-Smoke House.

CHANGE IN GREE CONCESSIONS

New Date Announced for Girls Glee Club

The date of the Girls’ Club concert was changed from March 1st, by the idea of Miss Celina Wilson, who announced last week that on account of the many engagements in the schedule of the Girls’ Glee Club this concert was necessarily postponed to May 4th. Miss Wilson states that a large number of reservations have been received for the new date, and that the committee have given her services in charge of the affairs of the club as yet appeared prepared to have a fine spring season. The new date will be of considerable interest to the fans of the Glee Club.

Work in Progress

The contract for the aforementioned new Science Hall has been let, and with proper planning of the design the building will conform to the partition and planning. The stone cutters have already started on the new building, and will commence work as soon as the weather will permit. The work will be of the best quality in the country, and will make the new Science Hall a real credit to the college and the institution.

The senior class, who dominate the floor in the debate on the partition, will have their work cut out to furnish the necessary labor. The future members of the college will need a large amount of work, and the committee have ordered that the students in the class be made to furnish the necessary labor. The students have been urged to furnish their best work from the college, and the committee have ordered the students to furnish the necessary labor.
