JACOB VAN DER ZEE SELECTED
Secures Rhodes Scholarship and Will Represent the State of Iowa at Oxford University

The second representative of the state of Iowa to study at Oxford as a Rhodes Scholar will be Jacob Van der Zee, of the University of Iowa. This was the decision rendered yesterday afternoon by the committee in charge of the matter, after a session of several hours, during which all the evidence in favor of both Mr. Van der Zee and Mr. Shortridge Hardesty, the candidate of Drake University, was carefully considered.

The standing committee, which awards the scholarships, consisting of President MacLean, of Iowa, chairman, and Presidents Bell, of Drake, Bradley, of Grinnell, and Stookey, of Coe, met in President MacLean's office yesterday morning at eleven o'clock. Only a short session was held at that time, but after being entertained by President MacLean, the committee again met. It was found that in many respects the claims of Mr. Van der Zee and Mr. Hardesty were almost equal. Both had been interested in, and had done, athletic work while in college, but neither had established any records along this line. Both, too, had done excellent work in their respective fields and literary pursuits, and both were popular among their fellow-students. The committee decided, however, after thorough discussion, that the claims of Mr. Van der Zee were the stronger, and that therefore the scholarship should be awarded to him.

This is the first time that a representative of the university has been able to secure the coveted scholarship, the honor having been awarded last year to J. F. Wallester, of Grinnell College, over Carl W. Ross, Iowa's candidate. Mr. Wallester is now at Oxford, and, when Mr. Van der Zee has joined him, there will be two Rhodes scholars from Iowa in residence there at the same time.

Mr. Van der Zee, the fortunate candidate this time, is a native of Holland, having been born at Friesland, in that country, in 1884. He has chosen to take a course which should make him a representative of the university in the future, for he has lived in the United States. He obtained his preliminary training at the Iowa City High School and at the Northwestern Classical Academy, at Orange City, Iowa. He entered the university in 1901, and will be graduated next June. While here, he has been prominent in almost all student activities.

His scholarship is exceptionally high, as shown by his being one of only four young men elected to Phi Beta Kappa from the class of 1905. He has done considerable athletic work, and has been a prominent member of the Irving Institute, having been its vice-president during the last term. He has also carried on original research work in connection with the Iowa Historical Society, being the author of a scholarly article appearing in the current number of the Iowa Journal of History and Politics.

At Oxford two lives of study, graduate and professional, are open to the Rhodes scholars. When seen by a representative of the Iowan this morning, Mr. Van der Zee stated that he had not yet made a decision as to which line of work he would pursue, but that he was considering both. He expects to sail for England some time in September.

The final trials more than a dozen men will fight it out. The leading candidates are Davis, Coyle, Barker, Benedict, Hamilton, Rood, ridge, Wyland, Young and Domelstein. During the entire scholarship competition the candidates, who have covered the distance in less than 10.8 seconds, have not run against one another. Each of the candidates, who have been selected by the committee, has run each of the races in recent weeks. The former is devoting his attention to those events in which he has not worked enough to be sent to the field.

John Shaw, the basketball player is proving a surprise in the half mile and is lighting hard with Young for the premier position. Both have run trials in 2.18 and in a race the past week Young won by a yard in 2.15. Mr. Barker have covered the distance in less than 55 seconds.

Young and Davis have never run against one another. The former is devoting his attention to those events in which he has not worked enough to be sent to the field.

The awarding of the right of the greatest tangible privilege of study at an English university. It means that the person so chosen is a well-rounded man, developed in many ways, a student who will not only be a success against a most able opponent, but also, give him prestige and power among his fellows.

It is this sort of honor that Mr. Van der Zee has attained in being awarded the Rhodes Scholarship for Iowa. And not only has Mr. Van der Zee been awarded a personal honor; he has also, by being worthy to receive this honor, cast honor upon the university. In the state of Iowa this year only two colleges, Drake University and our own, had candidates pass the qualifying examination. And when it came to the final choice, the university is glad to say without boasting, that its candidate was successful against a most able opponent.

There is no doubt that Mr. Van der Zee will prove himself a man of power at Oxford. But, meanwhile, there must be other men preparing to represent the university in the same way. When Iowa's present representatives have completed their work in England, others must take their places. Why should not these others be students of this university? We have won the prize once; we ought to keep on winning it.

Pompeian Massage Cream

Cleanses Where Soap and Water Fail

Washing with soap and water makes the face look clean, but it cleans the surface only. It does not clean out the impurities in the skin that make it muddy and sallow. Pompeian Massage Cream goes through the surface. It sinks into all pores of the face and loosens all foreign dirt and impurities that lodge the pores. It is the only facial cream free from grease and that keeps the face free from it. Does not—cannot—promote the growth of hair on the face. Contains no poisons and $1.00 per jar.

"FAMABELLA"

We don't believe there's a cigar on the market that has "taken hold" faster than the Famabella Havana Cigar."The Perfection of Blinda." This success has been due solely and entirely to the quality of the cigar itself, and to our way of handling our trade. There has never been any "hand waving" advertising or give-a-way season connected with Famabelles. They've won outstrictly on merit and they're making a bigger hit every day, at The Clinton Street Smoke House.
