RULES ARE ADOPTED

COLLEGES MAKE ATHLETIC REGULATIONS

Iowa Conference Decides to Enforce Most of the Big Nine Rules

Since the meeting of the state faculty athletic conference at Grinnell last week, Iowa will in all probability sanction the proposed amendment to the "Big Nine" constitution which provides that any member of a conference team shall have been in residence at his college at least one year before competing in any recognized athletic sport. Iowa's prior objection to the rule was that it would work hardship to both the better equipped state college teams which did not observe the rule. The state committee, however, ever adopted the rule unanimously and hereafter no first year man shall represent any of the state colleges. It was the idea of the members of the committee that this rule would prevent men from coming to college solely for athletics and partly athletics to that extent.

Professor A. G. Smith, Iowa's representative, returned from Grinnell Saturday where he had attended the meeting. Representatives from all the colleges in the state belonging to the association were present except from Central and Tabor. All the action taken by this committee will be referred back to the various athletic associations for ratification.

The much mooted question of what constitutes professional athletics was also settled. The conference rules prohibit anyone from participating in athletics who has ever received remuneration for his athletic services. The trouble rises chiefly in summer baseball playing. After much discussion it was decided to adopt the rule but not to make it ex post facto. "Tank Brown," the Ames pitcher will therefore be allowed to play with amateur standing as well as all other players in this respect.

More trouble arose over the so-called "four year rule." Professor Bryant of Coe desired to include basketball and tennis with the other sports. Professor Smith and other members of the committee objected to this but were quieted by a compromise which provides that a man may play on a conference team for one year and then if he wishes to return to conference play may do so at the option of either of these teams but this exclusion from one team by the expiration of the time limit shall not bar a man from the other sports.

Other rules of the conference were adopted without discussion. These rules have been observed previously by all the colleges in the state.

TWO GAMES PLAYED

IOWA WINS,' FROM COE- LOSSES TO LEAGUE

Coe Game Slow—Cedar Rapids Leaguers Too Fast For

The Varsity

Iowa won a rather laxy game from Coe Saturday by a score of 7 to 2. The varsity found Baylor too much for eleven hits, while Payne and Cretzmeyer held the visitors to six. Costly errors in the first and ninth innings combined with unfortunate hitting by the "Rabbits," cost the game. However the Coe team played out and out and at all stages of the game. The image has had the advantage in experience and training their cleverness in putting the runners cut on several runs.

Johnson pitched five innings allowing as many hits while Yesler allowed but two hits in the remainder of the game. For Cedar Rapids, Rager and Hall ind the Iowa batters at their mercy during the entire game. Thaneyville men secured their one score in the fourth on an error, a stolen base and a single.

The professional team scored two runs in the first on a base on balls and a single and a single run in the ninth on two errors and a two bagger.

A feature of the game was two pretty double plays made by the Iowa team.

The Iowa line-up was as follows:

Irvind Erolphian Farce

The freshmen of Erolph and Irving presented two excellent forces in St. Brendan's Hall Saturday night, "An Open Secret" and a "Bachelor's Banquet." The cast of the former consisted exclusively of Erolphian players, while Irving's group took part in the latter. Both productions were interesting and funny, and the parts were well carried out. Miss Edith Bell and Miss Hula were in the leading part in "An Open Secret." John Parish, Will Hans, and Miss Leona were in the background and did a satisfactory job.
