HOME MEET FRIDAY

COACH DELANEY HOPES FOR DARK HORSES

Classes Compete For Chantland Cup—Gives First Reliable Line on Team

The annual home field meet and general try-out of the candidates for the varsity track team will be held Friday afternoon at 2:50 o'clock on Iowa field. The date has been changed from Saturday to Friday on account of the Prom Friday night. The usual admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged with grandstand privileges.

While the individual classes will compete for the Chantland Cup the meet gives the first reliable line on the university's prospect of winning the state meet. Only a few of the old post winners, such as Captain Barker and Russell Young are back this year and the team is more uniform as the absence of the former star gives absolutely no basis upon which to build.

Iowa has always been weak in sprints and this year is probably weaker than probable that a few home records will be broken. Smith has been working overtime for 10 feet consistently and Jeffers is doing better than his former record. Stadfield is also coming along for something in record breaking, though he has 4:20 to beat in the mile.

All entries for the must be handed in by tomorrow night to either Captain Barker or Coach Delaney. The two relay will be omitted unless two or more classes enter teams. The events of the day are the 100 and 220 yard dashes, 440, half mile, mile, two mile, pole vault, high jump, discus, hammer throw, shot put, 120 and 220 yard hurdles.

Burnett Re-Detailed At Iowa

Colonel George R. Burnett of the university installation has been re-detailed as professor of military science at Iowa for more years. The present appointment of Colonel Burnett expired September 15 and his new term of office begins on the following day. The past four years of experience in the coming term, the commanding have been marked by much progress in the university military organization.

FRAT FOR CADETS WILL EXCEL

MILITARY ORDER TO BE INSTALLED HERE

"Scabbard and Blade" Title of Organization—Officers Eligible

A corps of the military fraternity called the "Scabbard and Blade" is about to be established at Iowa Colonel Burnat and other officers of the university batallion are in correspondence with Colonel Taylor of the batallion of the University of Wisconsin in regard to the organization and installation of the corps at Iowa.

The order is a recently established national fraternity having active chapters at Ohio Wesleyan, Purdue, Illinois, Michigan, and Minnesota. Other chapters will be installed in the near future at Nebraska, California and South Dakota. The object of the fraternity is to advance the interest and prestige of the military men and proficiency in drill.

The fraternity is a strictly regimental organization and the various chapters are known as "corps." Only commissioned officers in the batallion are eligible to membership. Eligibility in the Iowa corps of the fraternity will be limited to captains and a percentage of commissioned officers. The insignia of the order is a gold medal similar to the one awarded by congress for valor. The medallion contains an eagle with crossed sWORDS and the ribbon is the color yellow.

The organization is expected to give house parties at the end of the week to the visiting girls. Many foreign men will also be in Iowa to see this event.

Spring Football Comes

Captain MacGowen has issued the first call for spring football. Candidates for all next year's team who are not engaged in any of the spring athletics are re-quested to report on Iowa field every afternoon at 3:30. The practice will be under the direction of Captain MacGowen and will consist in running down punts andcatching the ball.

Baseball Men on First Trip

The varsity ball team left for noon today for its Illinois trip. The team plays Chicago tomorrow, Northwestern Friday and Wisconsin Saturday.

The men taken are: Mcgregor, Homeston, Denslow, W. M. Yosser, Wibe, McDowell, Kent, Johnson, I. W. Williams, and Creegan.

The freshmen and sophomores meet tonight under cover of the white flag in the Armory. Dancing will follow the meeting of the evening, the proceeds of the recent social are being appropriated to defray expenses.

Prom will Excel—Davenport Orchestra Sponsors the Men

The Junior Prom is the biggest social event of the season will be held Monday evening, April 27, at the Armory. The committee in charge have been at work all this week and intend to make it the swell-est Prom ever given at the univer-sity. The decorations will be primarily Japanese in nature and something different than anything previously seen at the Armory.

The committee has decided to make the music the feature of the party and after corresponding with other cities, neighboring cities have secured the Peterson orchestra of Davenport for the afternoon concert. It is comprised of ten selected pieces and will be screened from the floor by palms and other decorations. The committee has expended more money on music and expects better results than any class party in other years.

The number of out of town guests will also be larger than cus-tomary. The various fraternities have arranged to give house parties at the end of the week to the visiting girls. Many foreign men will also be in Iowa for the big party this coming weekend.

The committee in charge have been marking by ing, proving the proceeds of the recent social are being appropriated to defray expenses.
