The eligibility committee of the Western Conference stands out as the high tribunal in questions regarding parity in athletics. From a long series of zany and moderate regulations and fair decisions this committee enjoys such prestige that its judgments are no longer disputed. The object of the conference assembly of athletes in the meet, held at Chicago each year, is to bring the large universities of the middle west together in a contest which is governed by an established code of rules, and for which qualifications are similar. Iowa University has been represented in the conference for many years. Iowa has adopted the conference regulations and applies them to all branches of athletics. At a recent meeting of the Intercollegiate Conference committee, entries from two other Iowa colleges were rejected because they did not observe the rules pertaining to professionalism. The natural deduction then is, that Drake and Ames, however good teams they may be, cannot meet the teams from the larger universities until these rules are adopted.

The entertainments given by the university band and glee club to the high school athletes brought to the largest crowd seen on the campus this year. These concerts concluded a very busy day for the visiting athletes.
Annual Homeop Banquet

The annual banquet of the college of homeopathy was held Thursday evening at the Opera House.

The principal toast, "Reminiscences of Dr. Hahnemann," was delivered by Dr. J. Young, of Clinton, in all probability the only man who was treated by the great Hahnemann. The remainder of the responses were:

"The Beginning of the End," Lester Hoyes, Des Moines.

"White Caps," Harrell Rich, of the nurses, attended.

"Plugging," Dr. Roseo H. Volland.

"Dinosaurs in Homeopathy," Dr. Royal, Des Moines.

Elect Dr. Jepson President.

At the business meeting of the Iowa State medical association in Des Moines, Dr. Jepson was elected president of the organization for the ensuing year, and Dr. Hierring one of the delegates to the general council of the American medical society.

The medical alumni of the university held a banquet at the Chamberlain hotel Thursday night, President Brockman presiding.

C. W. Ramseyer and C. M. Miller were selected as the forum's representatives for the mock trial which will be held in the law department next year.

C. A. Brown, of Ida Grove, former captain of the varsity track team and now coach of the Ida Grove high school team, spent the last few days in the city looking after the interests of his province.
