Invitations have been sent out by the executive committee of the general alumni association of the university and the returns so far received, give evidence that the coming reunion of alumni will be the largest in the history of the university. The quarters will be established in the ladies drawing room of the liberal arts hall and an official register will be kept there. All visiting alumni are requested to register at once, to register immediately on arriving in the city. Rates of one and one third round trip have been obtained on all the railroads in Iowa.

The usual annual banquet will be the Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock in the University gymnasium. The list of toasts has not been completed up to date, but Governor Cummins, Honorable John Muir, President of the University, and President MacLean are slated for responses. Stormy efforts are also being made by the committee to secure Mrs. Fairbanks for the occasion. The business meeting of the association will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in auditorium of liberal arts hall.

Unlike former years a large room has been obtained for the banquet and all alumni are invited to attend.

The banquet will be under the management of the Iowa City Woman's Board of Education and the Iowa Band and its orchestra will furnish music.

Reunions of the following classes are scheduled and invitations point to a large attendance: Classes of '80, '85, '70, '75, '80, '85, '86, '88, and '94. The executive committee of the association and from whom all information can be obtained is: J. C. Monnet, Mrs. C. E. Seasore and R. P. Howell.

Irving Men "Jogged"

The celebration of Irving men has last night after the victory over the Zeta led to bad results. Two women were attacked last night in prominent debating circles of the university in an overview of sorts, the last of which disturbed the community of such an extent that many feared the town would be paralyzed had they not been stopped.

After much ado on the part of other members of Irving, including the visit to the home of Mayor Ball and the last of such a nature, the warrant, the men were restored to freedom.

William Vermillion, for many years associated with Irving, met with an accident last night, dying suddenly last night.

Compact With South Dakota

The compact between the South Dakota and Iowa debating leagues has been made and calls for two debates between the two universities. The first three articles of the compact are as follows:

Artical 1 — The debate for the school year of 1905-6 shall be held at the University of Iowa, and for debate for the school year of 1906-7 shall be held at the University of South Dakota. Either or both of these debates may be held at intervening points at the option of the committee of university.

Iowan Election Monday

A meeting of the stockholders of the Daily Iowan Publishing Company is called for Monday evening. The meeting will be held at the Old Capitol and will be called at 7:30 o'clock. The object of the session is the election of a board of directors for next year. The newly elected board of directors will then choose an editor-in-chief and business manager for next year.

The candidates for the leading position in the editorial and business department have not announced themselves. Much secret lobbying is going on however, and the positions are coveted by several men. It is very probable that the editor-in-chief position will go to one of the editorial members of the present board.
