Senior Play June 12th.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"A RUSSIAN HONEYMOON" MONDAY NIGHT

Final Rehearsals Being Held This Week—Cast of Extraordinary Excellence

Reserved seats for senior class play to be given next Monday night will be placed on sale at Sunnyside at 10 o'clock. Every seat in the house will be reserved except the gallery. The many advance orders for reserved seats received from alumni give evidence that the graduating class of the collegiate department will present their annual play to a crowded house.

The title of the play is "Russian Honeymoon," a live, three act comedy, dealing with the love affairs of a Russian nobleman and the taming of his abashished wife. Rehearsals have been conducted for the past week under the supervision of Miss Everya and Professor Gordon and the lines of the amateur actors have been thoroughly learned. The final dress rehearsal will occur Saturday afternoon in the opera house.

Melie Call, who has the management of the play in hand, stated today that everything was in readiness for the presentation and that the actors had mastered their parts some time ago. All the costumes and the additional scenery have been made and some used in the remaining rehearsals.

The play will conclude the senior class day exercises.

The cast is as follows:

Alexia Petrovich Max Ermont (afterward Mrs. Max Ermont)
Count Woroffski
Polesa Max Alstrand
His wife
Barones Vladimir
Ivan—A master Premier
Bay Fries
Michelle—His daughter
Koutlief-Drevetlof
Arthur H. Wright
Intendant of the Family
Woroffski
Osip—A young peasant
H. C. Anderson
Guards, Peasants, Ladies, Rec.
talors, etc.

Iowan Election Postponed

The annual business meeting and election of officers of the stockholders of the Daily Iowan Publishing Co., announced for last Monday, was postponed indefinitely, on account of the absence of the representatives.

The present staff will continue in control until their successors are elected.

Jerry Delaney has been called to his home in Worcester, Mass., by the death of his father.

Senior Play June 14th.

SENIOR FUNCTION TAKES PLACE WEDNESDAY

Music Will be the Feature—Number of Out of Town Guests to be Large

The four years' series of dances and parties given by the present senior class will be culminated next Wednesday night in the Senior Hop. Preparations are already well under way for the preliminaries having begun early in order to realize the aim of the committee in giving the best and prettiest party of the year and of the last four years.

The music feature will be the orchestra of the sophomore class, Myers' orchestra of Cedar Rapids having been engaged months in advance with the intention of playing for the party and not doubting the function will be one of the best attended of the year.

The committee which has the charge in charge of the function is: Earl Bache, chairman, R. E. Finkbeiner, I. A. Ryholte, Max Bins, H. L. Borquett, D. W. Griffith and J. E. Goodwin.

Zeta Epsilon and Debate

At the final meeting of the Zetaphian society the following officers were elected for next fall: G. C. Albritton, president; P. E. Ingling, vice-president; Robert Harb, secretary, V. E. Poston, treasurer. Besides Bay Fries and W. T. Briston, D. P. Payne was elected third man on the Minnesota, provisional and Wm. Reily, G. C. Albritton and H. R. Cleveland for the next two years.

Bush Goes to Harvard

Stephen H. Bush, for the past four years assistant professor in Russian at the university, has been granted one year's leave of absence by the board of regents. He has studied French and the Romance tongues and during that time is giving the degree of Ph. D. His success will be continued.

The final freshman party of the year took place in Smith's armory Tuesday night.

The Closing of the Spring Athletic Season

Iowa Claims Championship in all Sports, Track, Baseball and Tennis—Chalmers and Delaney Responsible

With the victory over Cornell Saturday the varsity ball team closed the present season. The game was one of the closest played this year and was won in the last inning, first by a score of 2-1, and second by the same. The Iowa team was composed of key men and the majority of the bench. The game was one of the closest played this year and was won in the last inning, first by a score of 2-1, and second by the same. The Iowa team was composed of key men and the majority of the bench.

Without doubt the past season has been the best since the days of the football team. The team has made a splendid showing and is certain to be remembered in the history of the university. The team is composed of a number of good players and is certain to be remembered in the history of the university. The team is composed of a number of good players.

The former was taken by the a.nd tennis, track and field team, which was composed of key men and the majority of the bench. The Iowa team was composed of key men and the majority of the bench. The game was one of the closest played this year and was won in the last inning, first by a score of 2-1, and second by the same. The Iowa team was composed of key men and the majority of the bench.

Coach Chalmers, general director of athletics, is largely responsible for the present success of the team, having had the men in charge since the opening of the season. The one thing which was obvious throughout the season and in which the team excelled their opponents was the clever base running and fielding. Several games were won on good field work alone and the first tricks of the game taught by Coach Chalmers.

The 8-0 Track Season

As in baseball Iowa also claims state championship in track athletics. The meets were scheduled, one with the State Normal and the other with Ames. The former was won by the Old Gold athletes with ease, the latter was won by the Iowa State University team. The team which took second was Iowa State University. The team which took second was Iowa State University.

Athletes Take Notice

At the meeting of the ineligible committee of the Western Conference held at Chicago last week particular stress was placed on the rule regarding the rectangular shape and the decision of the problem. The rule has been adopted by the Conference.

Irvings Win Sophomore Debate

The sophomore debate between the Irving and Zetazahagian societies was won by the Irving team with unanimous decision of the judges. Cunningham, Riley and Pius represented Irving Insititute and Bowman, Heron and Stoesz comprised the team for Zetazahagian.

Roy A. Cook, ex-LL'04 is attending Florida for the summer. The board of regents of the university meet next week. The contract for the gym will be let and the faculty state will be made out.
