On Marshall Field.

Iowa's Representative Tells All About It--Odds Against Iowa.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 7--(Special)--Our team lost Iowa City a few minutes after noon and, after a long, bumpy ride, we got to the Chicago Beach hotel at 7:15. Here the football team went into retirement and the boys scattered for the evening. It was very difficult to give an estimate of the outcome of the game. That would be more than a guess.

Iowa players on Marshall Field to-day.

However, a few facts were known and each man drew his own conclusions as to the result.

The Chicago team averaged about 12 pounds to the man heavier than Iowa, while her backs are 15 pounds heavier than Iowa's. They are also very fast. The backfield is composed entirely of men who played last year and they were vultures in Iowa. It was not thought that Chicago would attempt to play two teams. If so, Iowa would stand a first class chance to win. The opinion prevailed that Chicago must use her best men to win and was: play them from start to finish.

It was a sight for gods and men that greeted the players as they came upon the field. The bright, October sun lent added lustre to the array of old gold and maroon displayed by that vast concourse of fair women and brave men, part of whom cheered Iowa, only to be answered by Iowa's supporters. But most of them, buoyant with the joy of life, barked for everybody.

When the Iowa roosters knew by the utter exhaustion of their vocal organs that they had done all in their power to win the day, they paused to see what the team was going to do, and saw their champions lined up with their opponents as follows:

    Chicago took ball on Iowa's 20-yard line. At 2:18 Chicago scored 12 to 0. Chicago makes a touchdown, 14-0. Chicago's kicks, 3-58. Chicago 18, Iowa 0.

    Chicago has ball on Iowa's 20-yard line. Touchdown, 23-0.
    Chicago kicks goal, 3-39, 2-44. Iowa punts ball on Chicago's 20-yard line. Moore carries ball 15 yards. Chicago 23, Iowa 0.
    Iowa punses ball on Chicago's 20-yard line. Moore makes two 20-yard gains and 4:15 Chicago runs 74 yards for touchdown. 9-0. Eckersall scores 36. First half over at 4:18. Chicago, 24, Iowa, 0.

Dr. P. B. Kennedy, of the botanical department of the University of Nebraska, discovered twenty new species of ferns on the summit of Mount Rose a short time ago while in company with Dr. J. H. Church, who had decided the moment to make climatic observations. Dr. Kennedy is now making an examination of the new plants with a view to classifying them and giving them a name. He believes that the new plants resemble a new kind of clover. The majority of the plants resemble sage brush, are hardy, and belong to the lowest class of plants.—Michigan Daily.

Rumor comes from the University of Minnesota that "Miss" Strathfearn, the famous center, will not return to the university to play on the team this year. It appears that six years playing is all that Miss wants of college football. The western colleges are sympathetic with Minnesota in the loss of her All-American player.—Michigan Daily.
There is one justification for existence—that is service. The Daily Iowan recognizes this fact. It can hope to succeed by no other means. For this reason it stands ready to serve.

The mission of a newspaper is to let people know. If you have anything that ought to be known, tell it to The Iowan. If you have an opinion that you want to promulgate, bring it to The Iowan. Don’t hesitate to call us. Our motto is “I serve.”

The columns of The Iowan are yours. Use them. Of course, you will do it right. You will be respectful and fair and will be responsible for what you say. We want every individual and every legitimate organization in the University to feel that The Iowan is ready to serve.

The paper does not exist to exploit any one interested in the institution. It is for the University and nothing less. Don’t hesitate to command, we stand and wait. What can we do for you and yours?

The University of California shows a decrease in registration. Indications point to a smaller freshman class than last year, but the number of graduate students will be greatly increased.

The members of last year’s senior class are planning to fight the suit brought against them by Byron & Willard, the printers of the ‘05 Gophers, who are well advised, because discovery of the $850 will definitely do them from the publishers of the book. A committee consisting of members of last year’s graduating class is at work securing subscriptions for a fund to fight the suit.

The Rock Island is selling tickets to Cedar Rapids and return during carnival week for 50 cents for the round trip. Tickets on sale daily, October 2nd to 7th. This route is unequaled for time, making the run between the two cities in one hour flat.

One of the most successful plays to be presented in our city this season is "Under Southern Skies," which will appear at the Colleen on next Tuesday evening, October 16. "Under Southern Skies" is one of the largest and most expensive dramatic companies now traveling, as the company numbers twenty-seven people, twenty-three of whom appear in speaking parts, and every bit of the scenery used in the productions is carried with the company. "Under Southern Skies" is now in its fifth season having had four phenomenally successful seasons in the east. "Under Southern Skies" is from the pen of Lottie Blair Parker, who also wrote "Way Down East," and it is as true and interesting a picture of the south as that now famous play is of New England.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There was a large and appreciative audience present at the Philomathian meeting last night. The question for debate, "Resolved That the nationalization laws of the United States be made more stringent," was well debated, though the decision was in favor of the negative. Mr. Vestal gave an oration which showed much careful work.

At the business meeting, Shiel, '07; Vasa, '07; Pennington, '09; Vestal, '09; were initiated, and Harry Smith, '09, elected to membership.

Irvins Institute gave its regular weekly program last evening before a good sized audience. The opening and closing numbers consisted of music. Messrs. Grant and Randall defending the negative of this question, "Resolved, That the constitution should be so amended as to give the federal government exclusive control of divorce," was a unanimous decision over Messrs. Royal and Crawford, who upheld the affirmative. The remainder of the program comprised a declamation by Archie Harnard and a speech on "Roosevelt and Peace," by William B. Gordon, both of which were above the average in quality.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

Last night the President and Mrs. McAllister gave the annual reception to the staff of instruction. The receiving line was made up of the new members and reached around two sides of the parlor. The guests enjoyed themselves greatly and almost all of the faculty and assistants were present.

STUDENTS IN FIERCE FIGHTS.

Wisconsin Soph's Throw "Freshmen" Into Lake Mendota—Storm Stairs and Wreck House.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 5.—Student rowdies broke loose again last night at the University of Wisconsin, and surpassed all records for this year. In spite of the appeal and warning of President Van Hise and the fact that the annual class rush is but forty-eight hours away, a crowd of sophomores went to such lengths that action by the faculty and course is probable.

Compelled to do Stunts.

After capturing a dean freshmen and compelling them to do stunts on the porch of the Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity house and throwing into Lake Mendota one who refused, the crowd marched to the home of Mrs. Marsh, 439 Lake street, and demanded that three freshmen rooming there come out. The freshmen refused, and ladders were placed to the window and the freshmen smashed in, although Mrs. Marsh lay ill upstairs.

A fierce battle with chairs and came followed, but the sophomores, storming up the stairs and breaking in the doors, finally overpowered two of the freshmen named Bassett and Jergens, of Milwaukee. These finally were dragged out of the windows taken to Lake Mendota, and thrown in.

Other Raiders Get Busy.

In the meantime another hand captured several freshmen, who also were treated to cold baths. The sophomores then marched about the city with torches, yelling and daring the freshmen to appear.

Cooler heads among the sophomores apologized and paid for all damage, but the injured freshmen say they will be avenged.

The class rush will be held Friday afternoon on the banks of Lake Mendota. Student and faculty committee will endeavor to regulate the affair, and have issued orders forbidding any attempt to hoist flags and banners on the university buildings.

Elkton, S. D., Oct. 6, 1905.

Daily Iowan,

Iowa City, Iowa.

"Gentlemen—For the past week there has been an irregularity about the arrival of the Iowans that truly makes me homesick. It is so much like the service that I used to get when I was in the University.

"And now I have word from Minneapolists that this paper has been coming out there, by spams, to my old address at the office. Here I am out here among the prairie dogs, and depending on the Iowan for football, news, and other items of interest, and I get perhaps one or two copies a week, and never a Saturday paper or any write-up of a game.

"I have read the editorials and all the plans of the management for consideration, and patience of the patrons, with the new order of things, and I must say that such requests are not out of place. I have all kinds of conditions to keep in a patron, with what appears in the Iowan. If only I could get my hands on the brevity sheet, with any sort of regularity.

"Now you have my address, and there is no excuse in the world for sending the Iowan anywhere else. If I get the paper, I will pay for it. If I don't get it, I'm hanged if I will.

The Daily Iowan ought to take better care of its annual subscription roll.

"For the love of Moses, get a sys tem of country circulation that circulates. We want the news. I don't even know what the score of the Mon month game was, yet. I know we looked 'em, but how bad?"

"Yours—B. A. Moffatt, '04.
