UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB.

Yesterday afternoon the men chal­lenge for the University Glee club met. These had been chosen by a compe­titive test from large number. Dr. H. J. Prin tread the tests, and will be director of the club.

Plans are being made for the Glee and Mandolin clubs to make a six or eight-day tour over the state during the holiday vacation.

In order to attain in this excellence, was decided to meet five days in each week for practice. The team will round into shape rapidly. University people know of Dr. Prin tread’s skill as director of glee club work from his success last year.

The officers elected are: Presi­dent, John C. Parish; secretary and librarian, H. E. Dow. The selection of a business manager was considered a matter of the utmost importance to the success of the club. It is desired to get the best man in the University for that work. Accordingly, a com­mittee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Webber, Buffom and Dow, was appointed to try to secure who is the best available man for work, and report to the club. Anyone who could and would wish to become business manager of the club should communicate that fact to one of the members of this commit­tee.

FORMAL OPENING OF THE GYMNASIUM.

On next Tuesday at 4 p. m. a program will have a program which will inaugur­ate the season’s Flane. Madison-Coe gym, officials: Princip­al Ham of Waterloo, master; Owed; Iowa, referee.

In the first half Iowa had the ball mostly the entire time. In two min­utes they had made the first touch­down. Long runs were made by Sim­mons, and Schwan, and McDowell made long punt by his great kick­ing.

These runs were continued and the line was scratched for the first ten yards' gain. This was contin­ued through the first half and one and touchdown and goal and followed up until at the end of the first half the score was Iowa 15 Normal 6.

Twice Iowa witnessed a near na­tionial play once in the first half on a female. Captain Elfrid made a 60­yard run and was forced by Davie on Iowa's two-yard line. Then when the game was nearly over Normal got the ball when Iowa attempted to punt and made a touchdown.

The Iowa team played around all the Normal men but had the advan­tage in weight. Iowa's touchdowns came late and often in the last half while Normal made first down once in the game.

Final score: Iowa 41; Normal 8.

Zets Inaugurate a New Era.

Repeal Famous Food Amendment Which Was Adopted Eighteen Years Ago.

Last evening the Zets removed the famous fraternitv clause from the constitution. This clause was insert­ed about 1887 and has been a bone of contention ever since. Almost every year it has been debated and repeti­tionately the society has voted to prohibit fraternity men from joining. Now any good man may enjoy society work regardless of his outside relations.

A SOCIAL SUCCESS.

Freshman Dents Entertain Royalty at Majestic Hall.

The ladies of the University who spent last evening with the student body students of '06 extend their heartiest congratulations to that club for forcing them one of the most enjoya­ble functions of the season.

The intrepid and fearless freshmen in entertaining it they are so unfortu­nately classified in the University catalogues. The social plans that home to the University ladies at Majestic hall. Mr. Carter and Mr. Morton in the reception line greeted each guest with real cordiality, and made every­body feel like old friends with every­body else. Their brother dentists fol­lowed suit and gave every lady the impression that he was the most price­less touch, and the pleasure was all theirs. The concert by Dallule's orchestra was musical treat.

Although there were eighty cou­ples present when the dancing began the floor was never uncomfortably full, and not a lady there experienced that awful feeling of a wall flower. The music was perfect. Eight o'clock was gone. Everybody was glad to be there.

SOCIETIES.

Zeta initiated the following: Gep­son, Smallippe, Jones, Kelly­berry, Johnson.

Irving initiates: Griffith, Strubbe, Bryan, Denis, Henley, Perrine.

Philosophical Society, A. H. Hyver, Clark, Philomathes elected as members DeClarck, Olg, D. J. McDonald, Stillier.

WHITNEY SOCIETY.

The Whitney Society will meet Monday evening, October 30, at 7 o'clock. Members are requested to be in mind the change in the hour. Prof. George T. Foss will read the paper of the evening. His subject will be "Steffens with Special Reference to the Info-European Bulletin—1."

The senior class at Nebraska uni­versity had quite a stormy session at their recent class election. The junior­ors stole the ballot box, while the election was taking place, and de­stroyed the votes. The seniors will hold another election.
RAISE THE STANDARD!

A new athletic association has just been formed at the University of Indiana, whose purpose is to send Indiana up among the leaders of the "Big Nine." The new association will control all athletic teams and engage the coaches. It will also organize an extensive alumni association for the purpose of securing "prep" school athletic stars for the Indiana teams.

A special feature of the new association is the effort to control the political battles between the "frat" and "barb" elements. The constitution provides that the offices shall be equally divided each year between the "frats" and the "bars.

The State University of Iowa is not getting her share of the "prep" men who enter "Big Nine" schools, and until Iowa gets better men from the other schools of the state, and should do so on her merits and standing, Iowa has no chances of getting first place in conference. The high school is the "Big Nine" championship is another thing. Iowa has not been near the top since 1899, when she sent upon all the other teams of the west. Let every loyal alumnus and every student get together to help the man to Iowa. "On, to another championship," should be our slogan next year.

There may be better plans than Indiana's, and we must get the best. At any rate we want men. More athletic material means a better team. More men means a larger enrollment, larger support, larger school spirit, and still two birds with one stone.
