Ghosts Run Riot.

Irving and Erodophians Commune With Spooks And Talk About Them.

Irving-Ero hall was the scene of much festivity last Saturday evening. Promptly at half past seven in the "dim religious light" from candles and jack lanterns, the Irvings and Eros assembled to hear a program given by ghosts. The opening number was a cornet solo by Miss Barry. Ghost Branson gave a most interesting account of the origin of Halloween. Miss Showalter's "Medley" was especially appropriate for the occasion.

The debate, "Resolved, That ghosts are visible at midnight upon Halloween," affirmed by Ghosts Knerr and Shedd and denied by Ghosts McNeely and Lawson, was handled in a very clever manner. Such reliable authorities as Mr. Stearns, Mr. Goodwin and Hamlet's father were quoted to prove the existence of ghosts.

Miss Olive Chase read, in a very pleasing manner, an original poem written by Alice C. Wilson, and Miss Mildred Price very interestingly reviewed "Old Time Superstitions." The violin solo by Mr. Vincent and the piano solo by Miss McKnight were heartily endorsed.

The remainder of the evening was spent in peering into the future by sailing walnut shell boats, blowing candles, paring apples or by the help of the witch fortune teller. Refreshments, appropriate to the occasion, were served.

IOWA PLAYS BEST GAME OF THE SEASON.

Varsity Shows Fine Helping Spirit, and the Iowa Machine is in Fine Working Order.

Grinnell came, she saw, she was conquered. With band playing, streamers flying and rooters yelling, the Scarlet and Black enthusiasts came, but in the stillness of defeat, they departed. It might have been worse than 45 to 0.

It was a great, glorious game. The Iowa team has at last reached its real form. Iowa always gets better as the season progresses. The way seems open now to an unbroken line of victories for the rest of the season.

Kent Shows his Prowess

Kent so far out-played Valerius that there was no comparison between the two. Kent directed the team's plays against the heretofore impregnable line of Bergen's team, until it crumbled to pieces, and then circled the ends at will. Valerius and Kent were both candidates for sub-quarter last year, and Kent won out. Valerius was nettled, and left the university, going to Grinnell. Valerius showed himself Saturday as not being in Kent's class at all.

The Old Gold Team.

It is a team to be proud of. It has a coach to be proud of, and it has a school backing it to be proud of.

Grinnell played its best ball, but the onslaughts of the Iowa team were irresistible. Every man played football and helped in every play. The line held like a stone wall. "Germany" Schwinn showed that it was "hard to pull a good man down," even if they did tackle him around the neck around the body and hang on to both legs. "Cresco" White and Streff are star ends. No Grinnell man got around them. "Andy" Chalmers played a great game with a "game" foot. Allen and Tupper are hard to stop.

What Heston Thinks.

"Willie" Heston, Drake's coach, witnessed the game Saturday and said all kinds of good things about the Iowa team. In an interview he said that he believed Iowa would win from Ames again this season. "Cresco" White is playing a great game for Iowa," said he. "Chalmers, Allen and a good many others are good on the offense and the whole bunch is built for football. Schwinn, I think, is their best groundgainer. The big left tackle would have no trouble in making the team at Michigan and would help their squad materially. Iowa is in fine shape now and I think will keep on improving. I would rather not predict the result of the Drake-Iowa game. We will do our best to win."

Minnesota Down And Out.

For the first time in several years Minnesota can lay no claim to the western championship. The Wisconsin "Badgers" certainly did things. Melzner, an old Iowa man, won the game by a drop kick and "Pat" Donovan, another old S. U. I. boy at Wisconsin, helped batter down the Gopher line.

Freshmen and Iowa City.

The Iowa freshmen may play the Iowa City high school next Saturday as a curtain raiser to the Iowa-Des Moines game. It will be a good game.

Ames and Grinnell.

A great many eyes will look for the result of the Grinnell-Ames game next Saturday. A number will go to Grinnell from here to witness the contest.

BIG NINE PEOPLE NOT ALWAYS SQUARE.

A prominent member of the faculty made the following remark:

"When one reads the expose of football methods practiced by the great universities of the middle west, which appears in the current number of Collier's Magazine, there is some consolation in not occupying one of the foremost positions in the 'Big Nine.' We can better afford to listen to the epithet 'poor old Iowa,' and to submit to similar gibes from our sister institutions than to be convicted of the practices described by Mr. E. S. Jordan in his article on 'Buying Football Victories,' in the above mentioned magazine."

Teacher in history—"How long was Xerxes in Greece?"

"Bright boy—"About two pages."—The Radius.

ZETAGATHIANS AT HOME.

They Entertained the Hesperians Last Night.

The Hesperians extend to the Zetagathians their hearty congratulations for having given one of the most successful social functions of the season, at the Majestic hall, last night. Dancing was the most important feature of the evening. About eleven o'clock the Zets were sent into one room and the Heps into another. Each one drew a card upon which was a number. After each had drawn, they then matched the numbers on the cards drawn by the Zets with the numbers on those of the Hesperians. Having found their partners they repaired to the Burkley Imperial where a three course luncheon was served. After the luncheon all returned to the hall and resumed their fun. About 12:30 each Zet drew a card upon which was written the name of a Hesperian. This meant that he was to escort her home when all was over. Frolic and fun reigned supreme until one o'clock, when all went to their respective homes, feeling glad that they had been there. The Heps desire to congratulate Messrs. Frank Meyers and Clarence Lambert, who in behalf of the Zetagathian society, planned and carried on this exceedingly enjoyable entertainment.

DR. SEASHORE LECTURES.

Tells Political Science Club About Hypnotism.

The Political Science club met last evening at the home of Judge Emlin McClain. The paper was read by Prof. C. E. Seashore, on the subject, "Hypnotism." Prof. Seashore has made a careful and exhaustive study of hypnotism and associated lines of abnormal psychology, and his paper set forth strongly and clearly some of his conclusions. Those who last summer heard his lectures on suggestion, dual personality, hypnotism and thought transference, consider him one qualified to speak with authority on these subjects.

FRESHMEN CALL POLICE.

Freshmen at Syracuse university called the police to protect them from the wicked sophomores on the occasion of their banquet. Now they have lost favor with faculty and upper classmen too.

In speaking of the affair, the chancellor condemned the freshman class for so violating the college precedents in the matter of police officers and stamped the act as lacking college or class spirit.

The seniors by resolution demanded that the president of the freshman class apologize publicly on behalf of the class to the authorities and to the student body of the university at chapel.

The University of Colorado is organizing a graduate school.

Can Play Ball.

The Boys And Chalmers All Right, They Say.

The following telegram was received by Mr. Max Mayer after the Iowa Grinnell game: "Grinnell, Iowa, Nov. 4, 1905. Mr. Max Mayer, Iowa City: 'Show me the man that said John Chalmers was no coach.'"

"E. C. Harris."

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were passed at the last meeting of the medical faculty:

"Whereas; Dr. J. C. Shrader has presented to this faculty to hang in the University hospital a photograph of the old faculty of the College of Medicine,

"Therefore be it resolved, that we hereby accept of his generous gift and also express our esteem and appreciation of his act.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this faculty and published in the college and daily papers of the city."

RANKIN'S TALK.

Hon. A. C. Rankin spoke to the young men Sunday in Smith armory. His lecture was a strong one. He carried his audience over the scenes of his childhood and explained how the old "swimmin' hole" prepared him for his future dive in Spirit Lake, Iowa. His ideas were clear, and were presented in such vivid and striking ways that everyone was interested. His gestures were unique and forceful and he presented the truth of the Bible in convincing terms.

EVIDENCE IN CASE AT KENYON COLLEGE, MT. VERNON, OHIO.

Buried beneath a culvert, two hundred feet from the spot where Stuart Plerson, a Kenyon college student, was killed by a train, the authorities have found three lengths of blood-stained rope and a wad of absorbent cotton, also saturated with blood.

County Prosecutor Stillwell expresses the firm belief the boy was chloroformed, the cotton saturated and bound across his face, and that then he was tied across the tracks as a part of his initiation into a college fraternity.

Authorities believe the cotton was removed later and the boy left stupefied. On these grounds the prosecutor will carry the case to the grand jury on Nov. 13.

President Spaulding of the American Amateur union has decided to rule out the records of Arthur Duffey. This will make Fay Moulton, who made the 100-yard record here in 9 4-5 seconds in 1899, world's amateur champion. Moulton is now located in Kansas City, and will probably do some coaching on the track here next spring.—Kansan.

IT WAS WORTH WHILE.

Saturday's game has been pronounced the only real football game that has been played here this season. The alumni game looked well till this one came to take its place. Every element was present. The only fault was the inability of Grinnell to put up a good fight against her opponents. But this was because of Iowa's strength instead of Grinnell's weakness.

But the spirit is the thing worth while and of that there was plenty. Grinnell people are the right kind. They are thoroughbreds. They came down here hoping to win; hoping against hope, knowing the tendency of history to repeat itself. They had counted probabilities, and had looked the matter square in the face. They knew they had been defeated nine times out of thirteen. This did not frighten them. They were going to win that game or lose it gloriously. And they did the latter.

The Grinnell rooters were the ideal kind. They cheered the team in the face of defeat. They kept their tempers sweet, and their courtesy never failed. People that are all right when being defeated are always all right.

There may have been some betting but it was largely on the quiet and was not a feature of the game in any sense. The game was played for the sake of the sport and this kind of thing is worth while.

When two colleges come together on the terms of friendly rivalry, such as existed here Saturday, both receive good, the defeated no less than the victors.

FIRST WOMAN LAWYER IN IOWA.

The late James C. Savery has bequeathed to the Iowa historical society the graduating diploma of his first wife from the State university law department. This diploma was the first one issued to a woman in the state in the legal profession. Mrs. Savery was nearly forty years of age at the time of her graduation, taking up the work late in her married life. The heirs will make the presentation of the diploma soon in accordance with the bequest of Mr. Savery.—Des Moines News.

The following resolution was passed at Illinois:

"The faculties and students of the University of Illinois, in convocation assembled, extend to the faculties and students of the Russian universities most cordial greeting with hearty congratulations on the triumph of constitutional principles recently achieved by the great empire. With added liberty must come an added sense of responsibility and the academic bodies will surely do their part to secure for the new order liberty without license. Long live the czar and Russia."
