A few days' work on the new building has improved the appearance of the Kirk Works. A large number of men have been employed in laying brick and putting in the foundation. The progress is rapid and the building will be in a reasonably good shape in a very short time. The Kirk Works are now a part of the cityscape and will add to its charm.

LOCAL DEBATING TEAM DEFENDS TATER BUBO

UNANSWERABLE QUALITY GIVES JUDGES

Port Fred and Oder D.实力口, who defended at Cedar Falls, was represented by Raymond Easton, Rob Wills and Max Casmann, who debated on the affirmative side.

The debate was conducted by Port Fred's President, which issued a challenge to the opposing team to debate on the floor of the school. The debate was held in a room on the second floor of the school, and a large audience was present.

The judges, Dr. Albert M. Donahue, Sr., of Dubuque, and Dr. Edward L. Clark, of the University of Iowa, were present, and a large number of students were in attendance.

The debate was a close one, and the affirmative team was able to hold its own against the opposition. The affirmative team was represented by Port Fred's President, and the opposition team was represented by Cedar Falls.
