NATURES OWN REMEDY

Fry's Pure Colfax Water

In bottles or jugs. Shipped only by D. C. Fry & Co. from the Original Fry Mineral Springs located at Colfax. Iowa. Henry Lough, proprietor.

New York Bottling Works Agents for Iowa City have the water fresh from the springs always on hand and will fill all orders promptly.

Because the Weather Is Bad

Yes, the weather does keep wet and cold but that does not stand in your way of "warming up" to some of the new fashions that have just come in and released a place in the stock of this store. We have exercised our best judgment in the selections we have made to suit every department and wait on you for your approval.

The heavy patronage thus far accrued in our autumn line leads us to believe that again we have met the tastes of the buying public.

Spring Colors in Neckwear

Keiser neckwear is a specialty with us. It is always to be on its best here with a complete showing of the new four-inch bands and the late ideas in bow ties. Price 50 cents to $1.50.

Look at the new Manhattan and Lenox shirts. Also the new negligee suits for the warm weather. Where style is the main thing we have it and it always goes here at the price others charge for the ordinary.

Houses its ladies room at the Hall of Natural Science and conducted yesterday at noon. Friday afternoon we was taken up with the reading of papers and a short business session. Friday evening, Prof. Samuel Colhoun, the widower present, gave an address. Prof. William A. Lugar of Northwestern University also be­ came. Following the evening's pro­ gram, a reception was tendered the guests by the members of the Triangle club. Yesterday morning the reading of papers continued, after which the members of the Academy enjoyed a luncheon at the Burnham hotel. Papers were read during the two day session by the following: D. W. Morehouse, Ellis H. Br双ter, Guy West Wilson, C. D. Hearn, L. H. Pommel, Charlotte M. Knight, B. H. Slocum, Robert B. Pyly and Thomas H. Metcalf, W. R. Hinde­ man, J. B. Sand, Rodfa J. Hartall, Harry Woodrow, H. W. Norris, Albert Kosta.

The meeting was well attended by the scientists of the state, all the leading institutions of Iowa being represented. A letter of invitation has been addressed to the members of the Academy by Ames and Grinnell, to meet at our re­ spective colleges, but it is not as yet certain when this has been taken. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:

Cover Common Sense with a Willner Hat

Wherever you'll find a good, level headed man—who appreciates style, quality, and appearance—that man will be wearing a Willner hat. There are plenty of Hats on the market, but hats with "real" swagger style, and the quality that lasts are found only at Willner's. Selling your hat once, doesn't mean much to us—for it is our aim to fit every head and every purse so cleverly that your hat satisfaction will always bring you back to this great store. For your choice we suggest—

A splendid assortment of Willner special hats in all the new colors and shapes, a regular 2.50 full hat at $1.90
