JUDSON OF CHICAGO U. AT COMMENCEMENT

WHEN HIS ACCEPTANCE TUESDAY TO MACLEAN

President Eliot Will Be Here
June 16th-Mrs. Will Was the Speaker Last Year

President Harry Pratt Judson of the University of Chicago was an nounced yesterday as commencement speaker this year, his address to be delivered June 16.

W. H. T. settlement, Judge of the Circuit Court, gave the address last year.

Two years ago President Eliot was the speaker.

Dr. Judson was one of the first professors to sign the petition for the foundation of the University of Chicago. At close of session, Professor Judson gave the address of the American Historical Association, and the chairman of the Association.

President Judson has already justified the former measure.

In the acceptance this year, he addressed the students of the University of Chicago.

This was an excellent and masterly speech.

There were also President Eliot, and the chairman of the Association.

President Judson has been appointed to the track for the University of Chicago, and the chairman of the Association.
