The fortunate holder for a special attraction. By special arrangement they have secured for lovers of motion pictures

"The Fall Round-up"

These pictures ran for 13 consecutive days in the Chicago Columbia and 18 days in the famous Broadway Theatre N. Y. to packed houses the entire time.

At the Arcade, Wednesday and Thursday, April 13 and 14.

Sensational Wild West Scenes, taken on the Miller Brothers' famous 101 Ranch, Blue, Okla. Most thrilling pictures of ranch life ever produced, including the round up of 5,000 Cattle in One Herd

The spirited action of the cow-boys and their sports and pas- sions. Bill Pickert is shown jumping from the back of a run- ning horse, and a stunt which he throws to the ground, as an act originated by him on the 101 Ranch and which has never been duplicated.

"The Fall Round-up" is the Real Wild West Picture of the Age.

Nothing like it ever presented before in moving picture theatres. Every foot of pictures at absorbing interest.
