GREAT BATTERY READY FOR OPENING CONTEST
PRESIDENT MACLENNAN WILL PULL FIRST BALL.

Jimmy Barry will be on other end of baseball—Men who will make best announcement.

Great doings are in store for this afternoon at the local baseball yard, where Green's club will meet the past war veterans from One in the opening engagement of the interesting six-team season. President George E. MacLennan will open the season with much flourish and goad something with the ropes. The hope is that a surprise in the direction of "Jimmy Barry" will be on the receiving end of the opening battery. This combination has worked here for years and will consequently be womaned by local enthusiasts. Other opening day ceremonies will include the presentation of a bouquet of flowers to the mayor of Green's his election in the new uniform.

First ball being safely tossed across the rubber by the president's good left arm and received by the veteran Jimmy, the first change in the first inning will be made, West and Henk rushing to points. Then the real business of the day will begin, twenty-two men from One in the role of deadly rivals.

After reviewing the results of the recent series with the Pioneers club and summing up his observations of the work of the man, Maritime Green announced his selections for the batting game. Nish will be behind the bat with the pitcher's follow-through following up to the west, the recent additions to the battery will be the three men originally picked for the opening day, but the leader is in the best form of his career. The batters of the two teams for the past two or three days having batted their worst.

The initial will be made up at the stadium to begin at 2:30 P.M. The after game season, with Hansen, Stewart, and Chadwick covering theCircle and Bryan--heading around short. Should in right, Wright in center and Wright in left, the way the outfield will look.

The preliminaries will begin in a little after three when the band will strike the initial. Then the game will get into the swing of conflict, where the usual yearly statutes will be gone through with and the new batter will be presented to the new batter. After 2:45 the game will be essentially the thing.

Another thing for the loyal fan to remember is that this is the last day of the season ticket sales. It is the time of the game they may be put in the stadium always. Whatever's store auction, or at the box office, but after that whoever wishes to get in the game will have to be charged the full price per game.

Just what class there is to the "Jimmy Barry" will be a deep mystery here, no reports having

New Novel by Whistler

To the reader of magazine buffs of P. G. Wodehouse is doubtfully familiar. The short stories have appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, Collier's, Cosmopolitans and many of the leading magazines. Now comes the report that W. J. Watt & Co., of New York, will publish Mr. Whistler's first long novel in April. The title will be "The Intruder of Sunday." Will Grolf will be the illustrator, with numerous character drawings.
