SOPHISTICATIONS has made the Junior order of the Iowa City. The periodical "The Horoscope," is to be issued by the Iowa City Press to advertise the weekly horoscopes and other astronomical happenings. The periodical will be published on a weekly basis, and will be mailed to subscribers on a quarterly basis.

The Iowa City Press is a weekly newspaper serving the Iowa City area. It is owned and operated by the Iowa City Press Association, which is composed of local businesses and organizations.

The newspaper covers local news, including sports, events, and community happenings. It also features news from around the world, including international news, and political news.

The newspaper is available for free at local businesses and organizations, or it can be purchased for a small fee.

The Iowa City Press is one of the oldest and most respected newspapers in the Iowa City area, and it continues to serve the community with quality news and information.

The newspaper is available online at the Iowa City Press website, and it also publishes a weekly newsletter that is mailed to subscribers.

The Iowa City Press is committed to providing accurate and timely news and information to our readers.
There is considerable standing among medical society people, he said, among many there is an agreement to work along the line of these fellows.

The College of Medicine.

Yesterday, the Daily Iowa published an authorized interview with Dr. W. Kline, dean of the College on the various aspects of the college.

The students at Iowa are not only in the front line of the college, but also in the front line of the country.

"The students," he said, "are the first in the line of the college, the first in the line of the nation."

The Boys With Fence

The "Kids" who hang to the fence with one toe in the knot hole in defiance of the patrolmen are often the people who get the most pleasure out of the great American game. They are interested in the work of the diamond artists or they wouldn't put up with what they do to see these two opposing nines beat the atmosphere to shreds. It's the same way with the best dressed men you know. Many of them have had a hard climb cultivating their tastes to guide them safely away from the rocks of eccentric styles and uncoordinated combinations. But these men have once found out the secrets of a good appearance they stand out among their associates with just distinction.

"Wear reasonable clothing and wear clothes which are offered to you by one who has a reputation to maintain," they say. We could not afford to sell you a poor suit of clothes or one out of style or in bad taste. Our business is built on a basis that won't stand such trade. Don't you think you better see what we have in reasonable offerings in suits and old fashions? Now's the time.
