ROBERT D. FISHER, Business Mgr.

Iowa City, November 12, 1903.

I was telling you one time last fall about a "hyper business" deal that was being set up in the county. The proposition was to sell "seconds," but what a swindle it was! They were not represented. For example, a department store sold a lot of cheap goods, but the merchandise was not worth $5 or $6 a pair. They sold the manufacturers' sample stuff. I called the thing a "snare and a delusion."""

Don't get fooled and pay a dollar extra for what you buy. Test the goods yourself before you pay for them.

Large Delegations to Annise.
Prof. Paul P. Randels of the economic department conducted a delegation of consuming students to South Annise last Saturday. The delegation numbered thirty-eight and an enjoy-table time was had as a very instructive trip is reported. Several similar excursions have been taken by consuming students this year and all have in-teported been of much benefit to the members of first hand knowledge of the famous colony of economics.

Not to Miss School.
"All talk of moving the medical school is foolish," said Dr. Thomas Lambert of the finance committee of the state board of education here Saturday. "The school will remain where it is. The De magnoli School and the diagnostic classes go before the legislature, I believe they will be
