M. Y. HISTORIANS ELECT SHAMBARGER PRESIDENT

ASSOCIATION HONORS UNIVERSITY OF IOWA PROFESSOR.

President Elects Will Be Named Before ConventionNext Monday.

Iowa's oldest history professor was elected president of the University of Iowa Historical Association at the annual meeting of the organization.

Beginning will be preceded by reception on Monday evening at Everson, 60.

By unanimous vote, the historian designated the highest honor upon the organization's official body.

It was considered a fitting recognition of the many hours devoted to the study of history and the encouragement of students in the field.

The historian was also named a member of the executive committee of the United States Historical Society.

Other officers elected:
- President-Andrew H. McCleary (Wand V)
- President Pro Tempore-Professor Amos Charles Calvert
- Secretary-Treasurer-Carl W. Stowell
- Executive Committee-James L. C. Cooper

The historian addressed the audience, and the historians' annual meeting was held in the fall of 1911.

H. S. Sondern, Treasurer; Laveli Slabbet, Secretary Frank E. Horace, and Roy B. F. Shambaugh—members of the state historical society of Iowa for the purpose of meeting jointly with them for their entering efforts of the past month to increase the known of both meetings, and for the widespread publicity given to our mutual work.

In the second session the position second another run while the stories failed to score. Dakota was scored in the third, but in the fourth, fifth, and sixth innings the modi she only one run in each inning, giving the score. In the fifth and sixth innings the stories only one run in our district cases which apparently gave them the game. With the bases full and 3-4 inches.
