T. M. C. Caucus Trip Sunday
The second annual caucus trip of the T. M. C. A. was taken Saturday morning before breakfast. A party consisting of about forty men to the beat heading at 6 o'clock and proceeded up the river about a mile. The boys were linked together and the barefooted ones for the return trip. Rev. H. F. Martin of the Lutheran church addressed the men upon a subject appropriate to the occasion. Owing to unfavorable weather conditions, the number going was smaller than expected.

Morrison's FINE JEWELRY STORE
We are showing a great deal larger assortment of Jewelry, Silver Novelties, and such like than ever before. An inspection is invited.

The La Velleine Necklace is now very popular and the designs especially charming. We have a good many different kinds and we know such a gift will be appreciated.
