TICKETS ON SALE

AT TWO PLACES TODAY

Students Can Have Money by Buying Season Tickets

The season tickets for the football games will go on sale today at Secretary McCready's office and at Westmore's drug store. The price of the ticket for this year is $1.50, and it is good for the three games which will be played at Iowa City. Proceedings in the first game, Purdue versus Minnesotta, and the second game will be the third option.

The purchase of a season ticket means a saving of 15 cents on the price of the three games will be $1 if the tickets are purchased separately. Manager N. C. Melling expects to dispose of at least 2,000 of the tickets before the week is over. It is believed that practically all of the students and many of the townspeople will be anxious to secure the tickets.

The tickets will be reserved at some of the games and the season tickets will be good for reserved seats without further charge. One of the greatest strengths in the history of the Lions is the fact that they are good to the players. They will all welcome him back ethusiastically.

Clackson Miller and Frank Hildreth, both of the football team, are expected to return from the field within the week. The team will be back in action next Saturday, Sept. 29, on the field of the Iowa State University, Des Moines. As usual, the contest will be held under the same rules as the regular games, and all players will be eligible for the contest, regardless of their class standing. The contest is open to all players, and all interested teams are encouraged to participate.

Gymnasium Work Begins This Week

SCHOLARSHIPS WILL EXAMINE ALL FRESHMEN IMMEDIATELY

On November 1 the regular gymnastics season in wrestling, boxing, fighting rings and horizontal bars begins. This work is open to all, and every wishing to take part must do so. As in the past, certain special classes have been exceedingly popular. In wrestling a tournament is held later in the year and the winners of the spirit developed in this class for supremacy. Medals are given in the different weight divisions.

As usual the naming of those men who are excelled from drill and new competitors to take gymnastics work are received the special classes will begin. The special classes for these teams will create a great deal of the official gymnastics work along with various exercises. They will be general interest due to the fact of pushing a little themselves.

Physical Education

The physical examinations are today. All freshmen in the departments of physical art and applied science are urged to make appointments with Physical Director E. G. Scholte as the work is more extensive than in the past.

Buy That Fall Hat At WILLNER’S

There’s so much difference in “hat styles” as in clothes styles. Apply a little wisdom to your hat buying this season and get “some class” to your headwear. We are sole agents for KNOX hats — the world’s best at $3.50 and our WILLNER’S SPECIAL hats in a wide range of crepe shapes and new colors, at $1.99, equal to any $2.50 ever produced. Hundreds of men and young men “who know” will buy their hats at Willner’s this season. Why not you? Have you noticed our display of bath robes? It’s the talk of the town, the robes sell at $4 to $7.50 and they’re going fast, better get yours now.

From the University of Chicago comes a story that it will have the poorest team since 1901, Captain Canuck, however, is of the optimistic kind and refuses to indulge in “bear stories.” He looks for Deaver to develop into a great player under the new rules.

PRESIDENT MAC LEAN ASKS
FOR SOME NOMINATIONS
WANTS TO KNOW WHO STUDENTS DESIRE

The Greater University committee will not be appointed for several days. President George K. MacLean, who selects the committee, in writing, has made an appointment before the end of the week. Before I do this I want to find out from the students whom they desire on this committee. I wish to have nominations made to meet directly or to have the names written and placed in a box for that purpose outside of the office.

The Greater University committee is one of the most important of the university and its membership is a matter of great interest to the student body. It is likely that a large number of nominations will be made.

sender practice will be on as possible. There will be some thirty teams in the Big League this year, so that Iowa will have an "idea" to land the championship. Special attention will be given to reviving work. Competition in this is not confined to the regiment but is open to any student in the university. Any one desiring to try this may report at once to Lieutenant Mumma or to E. H. Langer, secretary.

The commander will be in the field at the opening of the season today.

andes praxis as much as possible, he believes that it is for the best interests of the team. He wants the team to realize that this unit is his baby. He will not change the system unless he is convinced it is right. Most of the practice is spent in line drill, but there will be some instruction in the individual game. There will probably be a few times in the course of the year when it will be necessary to have changed games. This will be in preparation for some of the games at the end of the season.

Coach A. K. Lundy had charge of the freshmen football. He put them through a type of preliminaries work, such as falling on the field and throwing the ball. They were all dressed out in their new two-piece suits and pre- sent a fine appearance. The two assistant coaches, Fred Moore and H. E. Web, were not on the field, but they were expected to be present from that time on.
